History of English Music in Honour of John Caldwell Emma Hornby, David Nicholas Maw, 2010 The major themes of the essays in this collection reflect the work of the distinguished scholar John Caldwell professor of music at Oxford University and a composer in his own right There is a strong focus on early music with contributions considering the medieval carol sources for seventeenth and eighteenth century harpsichord music and the transmission of fifteenth century English music to the Continent but they range right up to the twentieth century with an examination of music in Oxford All are concerned in one way or another with themes which recur in Professor Caldwell's scholarship sources style performance and historiography Pub desc The Ethnomusicology of Western Art Music Laudan Nooshin, 2013-10-23 Since the late 1980s the boundaries between the musicologies have become increasingly blurred Most notably a growing number of musicologists have become interested in the ideas and methodologies of ethnomusicology and in particular in applying one of the central methodological tools of ethnomusicology ethnography to the study of Western art music a tradition which had previously been studied primarily through scores recordings and other historical sources Alongside this since the 1970s a small number of ethnomusicologists have also written about Western art music thus complicating the idea of ethnomusicology as the study of other music Indeed there has been a growth in this area of scholarship in recent years Approaching western art music through the perspectives of ethnomusicology can offer new and enriching insights to the study of this musical tradition as shown in the writings presented in this book The current volume is the first collection of essays on this topic and includes work by authors from a range of musicological and ethnomusicological backgrounds exploring a variety of issues including music in orchestral outreach programmes new audiences for classical music concerts music and conflict transformation ethnographic study of the rehearsal process and the politics of a high profile music festival This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnomusicology Forum The Making of European Music in the Long Eighteenth Century D R M Irving, 2024 In this book author D R M Irving traces the emergence of such large scale categories as European music and Western music showing how they originate from self fashioning in contexts of intercultural comparison outside the European continent rather than the resolution of national aesthetic differences within it Taken as a whole this study demonstrates how reductive labels for the musics of a continent or a hemisphere often imply homogeneity and essentialism and how a renewed critique of primary sources can help dismantle historiographical constructs that arose within narratives of musical pasts involving Europe Fandango at the Wall Kabir Sehgal, 2018-09-25 Multi Grammy winning producer and New York Times bestselling author Kabir Sehgal examines the relationship between the US and Mexico accompanied by music from Grammy winning musician Arturo O Farrill and special guests an extended foreword from historian Douglas Brinkley and afterword by Ambassador Andrew Young The US Mexican relationship has involved periods of great friendship with robust trade and loose immigration policies But its history has also been beset by wars drug trade and human trafficking With the latest xenophobic turn toward Mexico this book contextualizes the latest swing in the up and down two hundred year history of these two countries In a lyrical narrative reflecting on Fandango Fronterizo an annual musical celebration held on both sides of the border wall Sehgal addresses how the broken US Mexico relationship has been repaired in the past and continues to adapt today Fandango at the Wall provides clarity to the current debate regarding construction of the wall and America's posture toward immigration Sehgal and his artistic collaborators brought over thirty musicians from various traditions to the San Diego Tijuana border to record a musical repertoire composed of son jarocho songs from Veracruz Mexico and Latin jazz With these tunes accompanying a call to action narrative Fandango at the Wall demonstrates how music can heal and provide a soundtrack for the US Mexico and beyond Billboard ,2008-03-01 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Plunkett's Retail Industry Almanac 2006 Jack W.
