Pedersen, Laszlo Tihanyi, 2010-07-27 A volume that concentrates on the substantive gaps in the IB IM field and addresses whether these gaps are resolvable with the theoretical and methodological toolkit Corporate Social Entrepreneurship

Christine A. Hemingway, 2013-05-23 Business ethics teaching appears to have had little impact particularly in the light of continued malpractice and misdemeanour in the form of financial scandals environmental disasters and adverse consequences for communities This timely book directly addresses a central question is it that the existence of an ethical or an unethical climate influences behaviour or does the presence or absence of a moral character and personal values have the greatest influence on behaviour at work Hemingway proposes four modes of individual moral commitment to corporate social responsibility CSR and sustainability the Active Corporate Social Entrepreneur the Concealed Corporate Social Entrepreneur the Conformist and the Disassociated Hemingway posits that the Conformists represent the majority of people in organisations adhering to the prevailing ethical climate whatever that might be However it is the discovery of the corporate social entrepreneur which offers students and scholars a critical alternative and optimistic perspective for the future of ethical business
