

PEOPLE, CITIES AND WEALTH

The background of the book cover is a dark, atmospheric painting. It depicts a large industrial complex, likely a factory or mill, at night. Several tall smokestacks are visible, with thick plumes of smoke rising from them into a dark, cloudy sky. A full moon is visible in the upper left portion of the sky. The foreground is dark and indistinct, suggesting a body of water or a distant shore. The overall mood is somber and industrial.

The Rise of Market Society in England, 1066-1800 Christiane Eisenberg,2013-12-01 Focusing on England this study reconstructs the centuries long process of commercialization that gave birth to the modern market society It shows how certain types of markets e g those for real estate labor capital and culture came into being and how the social relations mediated by markets were formed The book deals with the creation of institutions like the Bank of England the Stock Exchange and Lloyd s of London as well as the way the English dealt with the uncertainty and the risks involved in market transactions Christiane Eisenberg shows that the creation of a market society and modern capitalism in England occurred under circumstances that were utterly different from those on the European continent In addition she demonstrates that as a process the commercialization of business society and culture in England did not lead directly to an industrial society as has previously been suggested but rather to a service economy Beyond the Body Proper Margaret M.
