

PROPERTY LAW

INTRODUCTION

Property Law Refers to the law of things which is the system of legal rules that regulates legal relationships btwn legal subjects in regard to a particular legal object – a thing.	Law of Things Branch of private law which consists of a number of legal rules that determine the nature, content, vesting, protection, transfer & termination of various legal relationships btw a legal subject & a thing as well as the rights & duties ensuing from these relationships.
Property Everything that forms part of a person's estate. This includes assets such as: 1. Things (e.g. land / car / computer / cell phone) 2. Personal rights (creditor's rights / claims – e.g. = right to salary, proceeds of an insurance policy, right to claim purchase price in terms of a contract of sale) 3. Immaterial property rights (e.g. copyright & patent rights)	Thing A specific asset (legal object) in a person's estate. And independent part of the corporeal world, which is: 1. External to humans; 2. Subject to human control; and 3. Useful & valuable to humans
Legal Subject Any person capable of acting as a subject in legal relationships & of acquiring rights & incurring duties in the process. Most common = natural persons (humans) Can also be legal persons such as – the state / universities / companies / close corporations, etc. – they act as legal subjects in legal relationships & can acquire rights & duties.	Legal Object Every object with which a legal subject has a legally recognised relationship. Divided into: 1. Things; 2. Performance; 3. Immaterial Property; and 4. Personality Property 1 & 2 = distinguishing btw these two is very NB because it determines NB distinguishing btw real & personal rights. Each of above (1 – 4) has it's own characteristics & distinguishes it from other legal objects.
The Law Body of rules & norms which regulates & harmonises the community by demarcating (making boundaries / limits) the rights & duties of legal subjects.	Rights Deals with the lawful relationships btw legal subjects among each other & in relation to the objects of their rights.

Real relationship:

A particular legal relationship btw one / more legal subjects & a thing – to which the law attaches consequences.

It is broader than the concept "real right" > real relationships INCLUDE real rights as well as certain unlawful real relationships!

There are 2 sides to a real relationship:

Subject-object relationship Btw particular legal subjects & the particular thing involved in the relationship which may imply specific rights & duties for the legal subject in relation to that thing.	Subject-subject relationship Btw the particular legal subject & all other legal subjects, which may imply specific rights & duties btw the various legal subjects.

Nature / content & consequences of a real relationship in a specific situation may be influenced by:

1. attitude of the legal subjects concerned,
2. nature of the thing; and
3. variety of surrounding circumstances.

Introduction to Conflict Resolution Sara Cobb,Sarah Federman,Alison Castel,2019-07-02 The field of conflict resolution has evolved dramatically during the relatively short duration of the discipline s existence Each generation of scholars has struggled with the major puzzles of their era providing theories and solutions that meet the needs of the time only to be pushed forward by new insights and at times totally upended by a changing world This introductory course text explores the genealogy of the field of conflict resolution by examining three different epochs of the field each one tied to the historical context and events of the day In each of these epochs scholars and practitioners worked to understand and address the conflicts that the world was facing at that time This book provides a framework that students will carry with them far into their careers enriching their contributions and strengthening their voices Rather than a didactic approach to the field students will develop their critical analytical skills through an inductive inquiry Students will broaden their vocabulary grapple with argumentation and develop critical reading skills
