Fionn mac Cumhail James MacKillop, 1985-12-01 The Gaelic hero Fionn mac Cumhaill often known in English as Finn MacCool has had a long life First cited in Old Irish chronicles from the early Christian era he became the central hero of the Fenian Cycle which flourished in the high Middle Ages Stories about Fionn and his warriors continue to be told by storytellers in Ireland and in Gaelic Scotland to this day This book traces the development of Fionn s persona in Irish and Scottish texts and constructs a heroic biography of him As aspects of the hero are borrowed into English and later world literature his personality undergoes several changes Seen as less than admirable he may become either a buffoon or a blackguard Somehow these contradictions exist side by side Among the writers in English most interested in Fionn are James Macpherson the translator of The Poems of Ossian 17601 William Carleton the first great fiction writer of nineteenth century Ireland and Fiann O Brien the multifaceted author of At Swim Two Birds Aspects of Fiann appear as far apart as Mendelssohn s Hebrides or Fingal s Cave Overture and a contemporary rock opera But the most complex use of Fionn s story in modern literature is James Joyce s Finnegans Wake The Celtic Encyclopedia Harry Mountain, 1998 The book concentrates on the cultures that arose in Europe after the dispersal of the Aryan speaking people from their homeland north of the Black Sea during BC 4th millenium Relying on mythology history and archeology the author has traced the development and movements of the Q Celt and P Celt speaking peoples of Europe and Asia Minor The time span covers from BC 3rd millenium to the Roman occupation of Celtic Europe The emphasis is on the Bronze and Iron Ages The result is a comprehensive overview of the people we have come to call the Celts The work uses a clear language style and is organized as an encyclopedia for easy reference Over 50 sub cultures 260 tribes and 1000 characters dieties heroes warriors etc are listed alphabetically with separate chapters describing religious practices customs social structure etc as well as relevant museum collections and sites of interest Complete 5 volume set ISBN 1581128894 US 129 95 Vol 1 ISBN 1581128908 US 25
