Sheila Young:

The Struggle for Social Justice in British Columbia Irene Howard, 2011-11-01 Helena Gutteridge was a socialist and feminist whose vision helped to shape social reform legislation in British Columbia in the first decades of the twentieth century and also one of the first women there to hold high political office She was born in England in 1879 A militant suffragist tutored by the Pankhursts she learned the politics of confrontation early Emigrating to Vancouver in 1911 she found the suffrage movement there too polite and organized the B C Woman s Suffrage League to help working women fight for the vote And she kept on organizing As a journeyman tailor she was a power in her union local and as the only woman on the Vancouver Trades and Labor Council their rebel girl she championed the rights of workers and organized women to fight for themselves In the 1930s as a member of the feisty new political movement the Co operative Commonwealth Federation she joined in the struggles of the unemployed for work and wages Then in 1937 as the first woman ever elected to Vancouver City Council she led the fight for low income housing As was typical for women of her class and time Helena did not keep personal records nor did organizational records exist to any extent Irene Howard made it her task over a period of years to search out and assemble details of Helena s life and career and to interview old comrades who knew Helena and the turbulent times in which she lived Herself a miner s daughter the author brings to her subject an affectionate regard and sympathy qualified by the larger view of the scholar and researcher The result is a lively biography shot through with humour and pathos that pays homage to Helena Gutteridge and to many of the people who have been inspired by a cause and who have taught us about the politics of caring

Women Warriors of WW2 Jeanette B Reid,2015-09-17 It s 1939 war is imminent for the people of Britain It is becoming increasingly clear that every able bodied man will be needed on the battlefield and that British women will have to take over the jobs the men left for military service This is the narrative of Scottish women in particular through their stories experiences and sacrifices how they not only kept Scotland and Britain alive but helped change the course of history Some historians like to think that the British were very fortunate when Hitler grew impatient with his attempt to run over the British Isles becoming distracted then moving his attention to the Russian Front I take a different perspective Hitler found that it was much tougher to defeat the British people than he or any of his top aides ever imagined We had many losses in our military and civilian population but we were able to call upon every available man to fight on the frontline because we had a secret weapon at home keeping the country surviving Our Women
