roots a Puerto Rican mother and a father who was an English born Caribbean islander In this poetically evocative work Julio Marzan explores the Latin American roots of Williams poetry In particular he focuses on the dualities and contradictions between Williams public North American persona Bill and his private poetically encrypted Latin persona Carlos He shows how Williams poetry draws on Latin American and Spanish sources particularly the poetry of Spaniard Luis de Gongora to encode a Latin subtext in poems that ostensibly present a mainstream Anglo vision These explorations uncover a wealth of complexity in Williams and his poetry Reflecting the experience of many immigrants his life and work embody the unreconcilable desires to assimilate and win acceptance in a new land while remaining separate and immersed in the beloved culture of one s birth A published poet Julio Marzan is also editor of Inventing a Word An Anthology of Twentieth Century Puerto Rican Poetry
