Magubanes South Africa:

Magubane's South Africa Peter Magubane, 1978 Fotografisk billedv rk Bringing the Empire Home Zine Magubane, 2004 Zine Magubane tracks colonial images of blackness from South Africa to England and back again to reveal the often overlooked links among ideologies of race class and gender The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability Racism and capitalism have a long history of entanglement Nowhere is this more evident than in South Africa where colonial and apartheid regimes used explicit systems of racial hierarchy to shore up profit It is therefore no surprise that South Africa has represented a key site for thinking about the role that racism plays in shaping state policy labor markets patterns of capital accumulation and working class struggle Illuminating these dynamics this volume develops a distinctive South African tradition of thought about the relationship between racism and capitalism The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism contributes to a burgeoning literature on the concept of racial capitalism the origins of which many commentators trace back to apartheid South Africa It pays particular attention to the crucial role of anti apartheid activists as theorists whose important insights remain relevant for scholars and activists around the globe This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies History from South Africa Joshua Brown, 1991 More starkly than any other contemporary social conflict the crisis in South Africa highlights the complexities and conflicts in race gender class and nation These original articles most of which were written by South African authors are from a special issue of the Radical History Review published in Spring 1990 that mapped the development of interpretations of the South African past that depart radically from the official history The articles range from the politics of black movements in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to studies of film television and theater as reflections of modern social conflict History from South Africa is presented in two main sections discussions of the historiography of South Africa from the viewpoint of those rewriting it with a radical outlook and investigations into popular history and popular culture the production and reception of history in the public realm In addition two photo essays dramatize this history visually maps and a chronology complete the presentation The book provides a fresh look at major issues in South African social and labor history and popular culture and focuses on the role of historians in creating and interacting with a popular movement of resistance and social change Magubane's South Africa Peter Magubane, 1978-01-01 Fotografisk billedv rk South Africa and the International Media, 1972-1979 James Sanders, 2012-10-12 This book studies the Anglo American media s representation of South Africa in the 1970s the international media is shown to have been under continuous pressure from both the South African Dept of Information and the anti apartheid movement The Contested Idea of South Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Busani Ngcaweni, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the complex and contested idea of South Africa drawing on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Ever since the delineation of South Africa as a country the many diverse groups of people contained within its borders have struggled to translate a mere geographical description into the identity of a people Today the new struggles for South Africa and to become South African are inextricably intertwined with complex challenges of transformation xenophobia claims of reverse racism social justice economic justice service delivery and the resurgent decolonization struggles reverberating inside the universities This book covers the genealogy of the idea of South Africa exploring how the country has been conceived of by a broad group of actors including the British Afrikaners diverse African nationalist traditions and new formations such as the Economic Freedom Fighters EFF Black First Land First BLF and student formations Rhodes Must Fall Fees Must Fall Over the course of the book a broad range of themes are covered including identity formation modernity race ethnicity indigeneity autochthony land gender intellectual traditions poetics of South Africanness language popular culture truth and reconciliation and national development planning Concluding with important reflections on how a colonial imaginary can be changed into a free and inclusive postcolonial nation state this book will be an important read for Africanist researchers from across the humanities and social sciences The Making of a Racist State Bernard Magubane,1996 How did the Union of South Africa come to be dominated by a white minority That is the obvious but haunting question addressed in this remarkable historical survey which documents and analyses the chain of events that led up to the passing in 1909 of the South African Act by the British Parliament South Africa Bernard Magubane,1989 Those of us who care about Africa owe a great debt to Ben Magubane No other thinker has given us as much insight into the struggle in South Africa Here again Magubane demonstrates why his work is required reading for anyone seeking to understand the complexities of apartheid These are the words not of a detached academic but of a political savant whose commitment shines from every page No Easy Victories William Minter,Gail Hovey,Charles E. Cobb (Jr.),2008 African news making headlines today is dominated by disaster wars famine HIV Those who respond from stars to ordinary citizens are learning that real solutions require more than charity This book provides a comprehensive panoramic view of US activism in Africa from 1950 to 2000 activism grounded in a common struggle for justice It portrays organisations activists and networks that contributed to African liberation and in turn shows how African struggles informed US activism including the civil rights and black power movements
