Adam and Eve in Scripture, Theology, and Literature Peter B. Ely, 2018-01-15 Adam and Eve in Scripture Theology and Literature Sin Compassion and Forgiveness is an extended consideration of the narrative of Adam and Eve first seen in the Hebrew Bible but given new life by St Paul in the New Testament Paul's treatment of Adam and Eve especially his designation of Christ as a second Adam has had an enormous influence in Christianity Peter Ely follows this rich narrative as it develops in history providing the basis of the doctrine of original sin in Christianity giving rise in modern times to theological speculation and entering thematically into mysticism and literature The power of the adamic narrative can only be realized if one treats it as a true but non historical myth The truth of the myth lies in its ability to stimulate thinking and so reveal the depths of human experience Augustine understood that so did Julian of Norwich and even the Belgian author of mystery stories Georges Simenon who had a deep sense of the universality of human weakness and the possibilities of redeeming what was lost Simenon's detective Maigret saw himself as a mender of destinies The doctrine of original sin the notion that human beings share a common vulnerability can open the way to compassion and forgiveness As Shakespeare illustrates in Measure for Measure the awareness of weakness in ourselves should move us to compassion for others The recognition of a kind of democracy of sin can keep us from considering ourselves better than others unlike them in their weakness and entitled to stand in judgment of them Thus compassion opens the door to forgiveness The progress from sin to compassion to forgiveness forms the heart of this work Literary Afterlife Bernard A. Drew, 2010-03-08 This is an encyclopedic work arranged by broad categories and then by original authors of literary pastiches in which fictional characters have reappeared in new works after the deaths of the authors that created them It includes book series that have continued under a deceased writer's real or pen name undisguised offshoots issued under the new writer's name posthumous collaborations in which a deceased author's unfinished manuscript is completed by another writer unauthorized pastiches and biographies of literary characters The authors and works are entered under the following categories Action and Adventure Classics 18th Century and Earlier Classics 19th Century Classics 20th Century Crime and Mystery Espionage

Fantasy and Horror Humor Juveniles 19th Century Juveniles 20th Century Poets Pulps Romances Science Fiction and Westerns Each original author entry includes a short biography a list of original works and information on the pastiches based on the author s characters Maigret's Patience Georges Simenon,2019-02-07 Compelling remorseless brilliant John Gray Maigret finds himself back on the Rue des Acacias just ten days after cracking another case there This time it is the murder of a criminal Maigret has known for over twenty years and one he always suspected was behind a string of jewellery robberies in the city Maigret s patience is tested as he eliminates neighbour by neighbour in his hunt for the murderer This novel has been published in a previous translation as Maigret Bides His Time His artistry is supreme John Banville One of the greatest writers of the twentieth century Simenon was unequalled at making us look inside though the ability was masked by his brilliance at absorbing us obsessively in his stories Guardian The Irish Village Murder Dicey Deere,2025-08-22 When American translator and sometime sleuth Torrey Tunet returns home to the Irish village of Ballynagh she wants nothing more than to relax in front of a peat fire in her cottage But when she finds an eight year old girl at the bus stop waiting forlornly in the gathering darkness Torrey reluctantly takes charge of delivering the child to the country house where her usually dependable aunt serves as housekeeper What they find at Gwathney Hall however is not a warmly welcoming Auntie Megan it s cold blooded murder Historian John Gwathney has been brutally shot in his own house and the immediate suspect is none other than his housekeeper the girl s aunt Megan O Faolain Certain that her friend Megan is not a killer and unable to resist a good mystery Torrey vows to track down the murderer herself As she digs deeper and deeper into Gwathney s research looking for clues she gets caught up in a whirlwind of theft intrigue and scandal Is the guilty party Megan s not so secret lover jealous of the romance Megan and Gwathney had shared Was it Gwathney s assistant who stood to gain a great deal upon his mentor s death Was it Owen Thorpe whose castle Gwathney visited for mysterious purposes shortly before he was killed And how does the famous historian s final project an unprecedented piece of scholarly detective work into the Sack of Baltimore by Algerian pirates fit into the mysterious puzzle of his murder As Torrey struggles to clear her friend s name and uncover the real killer she must employ all her skills to find the key to this shocking crime and prove that even in a small town such as Ballynagh people can keep the most dangerous of secrets
