

The book cover features a dark, textured background. In the upper left, there is a sprig of purple flowers with long, thin green leaves. The lower half of the cover is dominated by a collage of torn, overlapping papers and envelopes. These papers include various postage stamps, such as a 5-cent stamp, a 'TOKYO' postmark, and a 'PAR AVION' (airmail) stamp. One envelope is addressed to 'Barold Edward, 383 LePortay, APO 960 Dine'. Another piece of paper has the number '42522' and a small star. The overall composition is layered and artistic, suggesting themes of travel, communication, and memory.
