Hearing-impaired Child--into the Mainstream of Education Vira J. Froehlinger, 1981 Kid-friendly Parenting with Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children Daria J. Medwid, Denise Chapman Weston, 1995 A step by step guide for parents of children ages 3-12 SIGNS OF SHARING Sue F. V. Rakow, Carol B. Carpenter, 1993-01-01 SIGNS OF SHARING is a unique set of materials that provides educators whose responsibilities include the integration of hearing impaired children with a multifaceted tool to teach sign language and deaf awareness Included is an initial section on mainstreaming deaf children in regular classrooms which is followed by a section on deaf awareness that provides complete information goals necessary materials and step by step activities for a class to learn by the hands on approach The main section of the book is a complete teacher's guide to teach sign language to preschool through third grade students in classrooms and organizations There are 28 lessons designed to provide creative exciting and fun ways to learn and use sign language Each lesson includes a list of signs to be introduced materials needed and numerous activities to present and practice the signs Each lesson contains sign cards sign sheets and activity or song sheets Suggestions for the use of these materials are given in each lesson The lessons are arranged to follow the natural progression of a school year The drawings used to teach the signs are appealing clear easy to understand depictions of multicultural children thus creating a child oriented curriculum for learning

Rehabilitation of the Deaf, 1986 Integration Len Barton, 1989 A collection of conference papers on disability handicap and policy The intention behind the international conference was to provide a forum in which perspectives research findings and policy developments could lead to a strengthening of our commitment to the empowerment of disabled people Mainstreaming Preschoolers: Children with hearing impairment, 1978 Disability Studies in India Renu Addlakha, 2020-11-29 Since the 1970s the international disability rights movement the United Nations and national governments across the world have attempted to ameliorate the status of the disabled population through a range of legislative and policy measures primarily in the areas of health education employment accessible environments and social security While the discourse in the disability sector in India has shifted from charity and welfare to human rights and entitlements disability studies as an interdisciplinary academic terrain that focuses on the contributions experiences history and culture of persons with disabilities has not yet taken root This volume collates some of the most recent pioneering work on disability studies from across the country The essays presented here engage with the concept of disability from a variety of disciplinary positions sociocultural contexts and subjective experiences within the overarching framework of the Indian reality The contributors including some with disabilities themselves provide a well rounded perspective in shifting focus from disability as a medical condition only needing clinical intervention to giving it due social and academic legitimacy This book outlines key issues that would be germane to any disability studies endeavour in India and South Asia and will appeal to academics activists institutions laypersons and professionals involved in social welfare sociology disability studies women s studies psychiatry rehabilitation and social and preventive medicine Auditory Disorders in School Children Ross J. Roeser, Marion P. Downs, 1995
