Margaret Atwood Margaret Atwood, 1990 Interviews with Atwood by other writers including Graeme Gibson Joyce Carol Oates Geoff Hancock Margaret Atwood Reingard M. Nischik, 2000 Novelist poet cultural critic Margaret Atwood is one of the most fascinating versatile and productive authors of our time a superb writer in any genre she chooses to tackle This book was prepared on the occasion of Atwood's sixtieth birthday in November 1999 Its first aim is therefore to take stock of Atwood's multifarious works and international impact at the height of her creative powers Secondly the book serves as a wide ranging introduction to the writer and her works Fifteen informative articles written specifically for this volume by Atwood specialists from Canada the USA the UK Germany and France treat her life and status her works up to date survey articles on Atwood's novels short fiction poetry and literary and cultural criticism and important approaches to her works from the standpoints of gender politics mythology ecology popular culture constructivism and Canadian nationalism A final section on creativity transmission and reception includes an interview with Atwood on creativity statements by some of Atwood's important transmitters including publishers editors literary agents and translators and some 15 statements by Atwood's fellow writers in which they explore her importance for them A number of photographs of Atwood several cartoons drawn by her an up to date bibliography of works by and about Atwood and an index round out the volume Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American literature at the University of Konstanz Germany Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Margaret Atwood Neeru & Anshul Chandra Tandon, Neeru Tandon, Anshul Chandra, 2009 Study on the novels of Margaret Atwood b 1939 Canadian litterateur

Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1997-12 Books in Print, 1991 Brutal Choreographies J. Brooks Bouson, 1993 Brutal Choreographies investigates the novels of Margaret Atwood focusing on their psychological and political concerns Drawing on recent feminist and psychoanalytic theory J Brooks Bouson examines Atwood's recurring self family and romantic dramas her novelistic subversion of romantic love ideology and her critique of gender and power politics Bouson also considers the oppositional strategies used in Atwood's novels their punitive plotting and enactments of female revenge fantasies their dialogic resistance to romantic discourse and their self conscious manipulation and sabotage of romance and other traditional plot lines and conventions From the protofeminism of The Edible Woman the cultural feminism of Surfacing and the examination of the perils of Gothic thinking in Lady Oracle to the domestic and sexual warfare of Life Before Man the anti feminist backlash terrors of Bodily Harm and The Handmaid's Tale and the power politics of female relationships in Cat's Eye Atwood's women centered fiction has strong oppositional appeal Because Atwood does not shun what she calls the story of the disaster which is the world her tales are often brutal portraying female victimization at the hands of the husband or male lover the mother or the female friend But if the Atwood novel has the power to disturb compel and at times brutalize its reader it is also carefully choreographed using form and design to contain and control the female fears anxieties and anger that drive the narrative PhotoGraphic Encounters William F. Garrett-Petts, Donald Lawrence, Kamloops Art Gallery, 2000-10 Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Literary Trauma Deborah M. Horvitz, 2000-11-02 Examines representations of political psychological and sexual violence in seven novels by American women

Feminism/postmodernism M. Prabhakar, 1999 Censorship in Canadian Literature Mark Cohen, 2001-10-09 Cohen critiques Timothy Findley's broad anti censorship position he traces Margaret Atwood's evolution from implicit support for the censorship of pornography in Bodily Harm to the rejection of censorship in The Handmaid's Tale and he provides the first detailed study of the draft of Margaret Laurence's unfinished novel showing the degree to which her final silence was a result of her censorship ordeal Finally an analysis of the writing of Beatrice Culleton and Marlene Nourbese Philip shows how different kinds of socio cultural censorship from gate keepers to self censorship silence Native and black Canadian voices Cohen's re definition of censorship as essentially a practice of judgment takes us beyond the traditional Enlightenment delineation of censorship as an oppressive government practice and the consequent neutralist liberal condemnation of censorship on principle Since judgment is enmeshed in the fabric of human endeavour censorship is inevitable since censorship is inevitable Cohen concludes debate over whether censorship itself is desirable should give way to a search for censorship practices that are more just Censorship in Canadian Literature is an essential text for scholars of Canadian literature as well as for anyone concerned with contemporary debates about censorship and civil rights George Woodcock's Introduction to Canadian Fiction George Woodcock, 1993 Here in one volume is noted literary critic George Woodcock's condensed guide to Canada's major fiction writers From Susanna Moodie and John Richardson to Margaret Laurence and Robertson Davies Canada's pre eminent critic considers over sixty of our short story writers and novelists This one book covers the field An excellent survey for anyone interested in Canadian literature AB Bookman's Weekly ,1998

Waltzing Again Margaret Atwood, 2006 I don't mind being interviewed any more than I mind Viennese waltzing that is my response will depend on the agility and grace and attitude and intelligence of the other person Some do it well some clumsily some step on your toes by accident and some aim for them Margaret Atwood This gathering of 21 interviews with Margaret Atwood covers a broad spectrum of topics Beginning with Graeme Gibson's Dissecting the Way a Writer Works 1972 the conversations provide a forum for Atwood to talk about her own work her career as a writer feminism and Canadian cultural nationalism and to refute the autobiographical fallacy These conversations offer what Earl Ingersoll calls a kind of biography of Margaret Atwood the only kind of biography she is likely to sanction Enlivened by Atwood's unfailing sense of humor the interviews present an invaluable view of a distinguished contemporary writer at work From the Interviews Let's not pretend that the interview will necessarily result in any absolute and blinding revelations Interviews too are an art form that is to say they indulge in the science of illusion I don't think you ever know how to write a book You never know ahead of time You start every time at zero A former success doesn't mean that you're not going to make the most colossal failure the next time
