When Marina Abramovic Dies James Westcott, 2014-08-29 The extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most important and pioneering performance artists in contemporary art When Marina Abramovi Dies examines the extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most pioneering artists of her generation and one who is still at the forefront of contemporary art today This intimate critical biography chronicles Abramovi s formative and until now undocumented years in Yugoslavia and tells the story of her partnership with the German artist Ulay one of the twentieth century's great examples of the fusion of artistic and private life. In one of many long durational performances in the renewed solo career that followed, Abramović famously lived in a New York gallery for twelve days without eating or speaking, nourished only by prolonged eye contact with audience members. It was here in 2002 that author James Westcott first encountered her, beginning an exceptionally close relation between biographer and subject. When Marina Abramović Dies draws on Westcott's personal observations of Abramović, his unprecedented access to her archive and hundreds of hours of interviews he conducted with the artist and the people closest to her, the result is a unique and vivid portrait of the charismatic self-proclaimed grandmother of performance art.

The ArtStars* Guide to Getting Your Sh*t Together Nadja Sayej, 2014-09-02

Your essential guide to publicity, finance, and career management with advice from the top. Including everything you didn't get in art school and even more. Are you making art but nobody seems to notice? Do you find it difficult to make money or develop your network? Need to add some skills to make your career worthwhile? Look no further. The ArtStars Guide to Getting Your Shit Together is the go-to ebook for any art student, art school grad, or professional artist in or entering the contemporary art world with a goal of cashing in and making a splash in the public eye. Beginning from the core basics, this tell-all inspiration ebook covers every aspect of working as an individual artist beyond the studio practice. Every successful professional artist knows they must put in the extra effort to get noticed, and that means more than just sitting in your studio making your work in the dark. Since interviewing thousands of artists since 2003, the internationally acclaimed arts journalist and celebrity interviewer Nadja Sayej has written this book to help artists succeed with career management, publicity, and finance. With a focus on recovering from your biggest mistakes, this must-have guide is built for visual artists who want to thrive, not just survive, in an increasingly visual-based society. There is no business in BFA: Art schools don't train artists for media interviews, how to price their work, or even ways to profit as self-made entrepreneurs. That's why there's an ebook to get you caught up on the homework you never got, and it's cheaper than a MFA Reality Check. In the real world, there are many artists who get press but no sales. Hence, people in their 30s and 40s are totally well-known in their industry but have nothing to show financially. This is totally unfair but totally possible to change. In fact, it's never too late to change that. Career Advice from the Top: Getting your shit together is about finding your own voice and managing your career in a time when you can't expect other people to do everything for you. You can have a gallerist, an agent, a PR team, and a studio, but if you're not in control of your own life, you will not get results. The advice in this ebook comes from interviews with Marina Abramović, James Franco, Yoko Ono, Genesis P. Orridge, Olafur Eliasson, Peaches Hercules Love Affair, Chilly Gonzales, curators, artists, collectors, and more. What you'll get in this must-have ebook: How to think beyond the artist statement and create a compelling vision. How to put together a press kit and the five necessary elements you need to succeed. How to get press from newspapers, magazines, and blogs. How to stay quotable and notable in a media interview. What to do if you get a bad review or if they get all the facts wrong. The do's and don'ts of an artist's website.
