Mediations In Theology:

Mediations in Theology Jacques Haers, 2003 On the occasion of the retirement of Prof Georges De Schrijver his former students organised a special symposium in close collaboration with the Centre for Liberation Theologies of the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven and some of its friends and supporters Fifteen years earlier in 1987 the intellectual friendships between Fr Georges and his students based on their common concerns for a theology at the service of those who suffer gave birth to the Centre for Liberation Theologies Over the years a common project inspired theological investigation out of many different contexts requiring a close look at the mediations or processes of translation that would allow those contexts to fruitfully interact with theology This book contains a fundamental reflection on the practice of mediations in theology and provides concrete examples out of a variety of contexts It responds to the need for developing a new style of theology in which a common concern is expressed in a rich diversity of perspectives The idea of mediation provides one of the insights that allow to think the tension between unity and plurality

Thomas Torrance's Mediations and Revelation Titus Chung, 2016-12-05 Could a work of revelation be justified as a viable theological project today especially in light of some modern sceptics questioning its validity as a doctrinal discipline Engaging with the work of theologians such as Karl Barth Paul Tillich and Colin Gunton Chung explores and justifies revelation and mediation in the theology of T F Torrance and argues that Torrance's distinctiveness is able to contribute significantly to current debate and bring a fresh perspective to the theological landscape rejection of the concept of sacrament explicated in the final volume of his Church Dogmatics is not only at odds with his account of the nature and importance of sacraments presented earlier in the Church Dogmatics but subverts important elements of his theology as a whole especially the mediation of divine grace in preaching and the Bible Bringing Barth into fruitful dialogue with Yves Congar Yocum contends that the notion of sacrament is crucial to an account of the divine human relation that respects the character of both agents

Colin Gunton's Trinitarian Theology of Culture Andrew Picard, 2024-06-27 Whilst upholding some of the criticisms of Colin Gunton's work this incisive book argues that there is a Hauptbriefe in Gunton reception that assumes his early classic works The One the Three and the Many and The Promise of Trinitarian Theology 1st ed are definitive of his project and fail to engage adequately with the progressions in Gunton's later thought Instead this book offers a fresh reading of Gunton by giving greater prominence to his later writings which are centred in the mediation of the Son and the Spirit in creation Andrew Picard argues that Gunton's trinitarian theology of culture emerges from his later trinitarian theology of mediation creation Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology Exploring these doctrinal foci enables an understanding of Gunton's account of faithful human culture as embodied worship a living sacrifice of praise which contributes to the divine redemption and perfection of creation It is the church's particular calling to embody such praise through its visible life in community The study concludes by intersecting Gunton's theology with the social sciences to critique ableism and consider the politics of the church's belonging in community

Thomas Torrance's Mediations and Revelation Titus Chung, 2011 Could a work of revelation be justified as a viable theological project today especially in light of some modern sceptics questioning its validity as a doctrinal discipline Engaging with the work of theologians such as Karl Barth Paul Tillich and Colin Gunton Chung explores and justifies revelation and mediation in the theology of T F Torrance and argues that Torrance's distinctiveness is able to contribute significantly to current debate and bring a fresh perspective to the theological landscape

Nature Lost? Frederick Gregory, 1992 Gregory shows that the loss of nature from theological discourse is only one reflection of the larger cultural change that marks the transition of European society from a 19th century to a 20 century mentality depicting varying theological responses to the growth of natural science

Mediation and Immediacy Jenny Ponzio, Robert A. Yelle, Massimo Leone, 2020-12-07 Religion like any other domain of culture is mediated through symbolic forms and communicative behaviors which allow the coordination of group conduct in ritual and the representation of the divine or of tradition as an intersubjective reality While many traditions hold out the promise of immediate access to the divine or to some transcendent dimension of experience such promises depend for their realization as well on the possibility of mediation which is necessarily conducted through channels of communication and exchange such as prayers or sacrifices An understanding of such modes of semiosis is therefore necessary even and especially when mediation is denied by a tradition in the name of the ineffability of the deity or of mystical experience This volume models and promotes an interdisciplinary dialogue and cross cultural perspective on these issues by asking prominent semioticians historians of religion and of art linguists sociologists of religion and philosophers of law to reflect from a semiotic perspective on the topic of mediation and immediacy in religious traditions Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation Matthew Levering,2014-11-11 How do human beings today receive divine revelation Where and in what ways is it mediated so that all generations can hear the fullness of the gospel In this volume distinguished theologian Matthew Levering shows that divine revelation has been truthfully mediated through the church the gospel and Scripture so that we can receive it in its fullness today Levering engages past and present approaches to revelation across a variety of traditions offering a comprehensive historical study of all the key figures and perspectives His thorough analysis results in an alternative approach to prevailing views of the doctrine and points to its significance for the entire church The Political Ethics of Jean-François Lyotard and Jacques Derrida Georges de Schrijver,2010 A genuine political ethics seems to require a universal perspective and yet we are told that the postmodern age eschews universal perspectives In this book Georges De Schrijver argues that the leading proponents of postmodernity have not as is commonly assumed abandoned the search for universals Rather they have sought to reshape the concept in ways that account for postmodernity s critique Examining the thought of both Jean Francois Lyotard who prophesies the end of the grand stories and Jacques Derrida the leading proponent of deconstruction De Schrijver comes to the conclusion that each in his turn is still in search of the universal Taking his lead from Kant s unrepresentable Idea Lyotard holds out hope for a universal expressed through respect for heterogeneity whereas Derrida arrives at this impossible dream through a critical study of Husserl s phenomenology The common bond for Lyotard and Derrida is their quest of the unrepresentable For Lyotard this comes through a sublime sadness urging him to side with the silenced party in legal disputes For Derrida the same quest is expressed through a yearning for the impossible things to come a justice that goes beyond legality a reshaping of the international juridical order and a hospitality that is truly unconditional in its reach Underlying the thought of both men is a profound appreciation for their Jewish ethical inheritance an appreciation they learn from Emmanuel Levinas In passing judgment on the new world order both authors go decidedly beyond Kant and thus beyond modernity in reaching for a truly transcultural perspective in this era of globalization Mediation and Immediacy Jenny Ponzo,Robert A. Yelle,Massimo Leone,2020-12-07 Religion like any other domain of culture is mediated through symbolic forms and communicative behaviors which allow the coordination of group conduct in ritual and the representation of the divine or of tradition as an intersubjective reality While many traditions hold out the promise of immediate access to the divine or to some transcendent dimension of experience such promises depend for their realization as well on the possibility of mediation which is necessarily conducted through channels of communication and exchange such as prayers or sacrifices An understanding of such modes of semiosis is therefore necessary even and especially when mediation is denied by a tradition in the name of the ineffability of the deity or of mystical experience This volume models and promotes an interdisciplinary dialogue and cross cultural perspective on these issues by asking prominent semioticians historians of religion and of art linguists sociologists of religion and philosophers of law to reflect from a semiotic perspective on the topic of mediation and immediacy in religious traditions Religion and Culture Timothy P. Fallon, SJ, Philip Boo Riley, 1987-01-23 While the framework of this book is Lonergan the essays stand as original and constructive works in a number of fields and topics The theme of the relation of religion to culture is addressed from four orientations philosophy theology human science and economics The contributors include Stephen Toulmin Frederick Crowe S J Sebastian Moore Walter Conn and William Johnston S J Topics covered include process thought historical mindedness mysticism religious truth and language nuclear war and economic transformation Lonergan s monumental Insight 1957 and Method in Theology 1972 are substantial and powerful The key to these and other works is method Lonergan s thought rests on the subject s intelligent and responsible self appropriation grounded in creative and cooperative work from diverse disciplines This volume demonstrates the richness and importance of the methodical collaboration called for by one of our century s greatest minds God's Mediators Andrew S. Malone, 2017-12-05 There are many investigations of the Old Testament priests and the New Testament s appropriation of such imagery for Jesus Christ There are also studies of Israel s corporate priesthood and what this means for the priesthood of God s new covenant people In this NSBT volume Andrew S Malone traces these two distinct threads and their intersection through Scripture with an eye to the contemporary Christian relevance The Mediation of Christ Thomas Forsyth Torrance, 1984 Torrance professor emeritus of Christian Dogmatics at the University of Edinburgh sets forth a devotional theology of the atoning work of Christ in the mediation of revelation the mediation of reconciliation and the Holy Trinity How Would We Know What God is Up To? Ernst M. Conradie, Cynthia Moe-Lobeda, 2023-03-01 This second volume in the series on An Earthed Faith will address the following question Given what we know about the Anthropocene how does one even begin to answer the question What is this God up to and how ought humans respond This is a question of theological method including the sources and interlocutors of Christian theology its aims and starting points social theories shaping it and presuppositions grounding it Addressing this question is the classic task of doing contextual theology namely describing and analysing a particular context and considering how this context may best be addressed theologically and practically The question highlights the need for prophetic theology to discern the signs of the time to recognise a moment of truth Kairos and to discern counter movements of the Spirit The question of method opens the door to constructive critique of how theology has been done and should be done Mediation Henrietta Sullivan, 1871
