From Stalingrad to Italy - Von Senger's War Andrew Sangster,2025-06-30 Anti Nazi German general von Senger und Etterlin led with honour strategy and compassion throughout WWII In a world defined by the brutalities of war one German general stands apart from the Hollywood stereotype Before the storm of the Second World War Fridolin von Senger und Etterlin was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford fluent in multiple languages and a devoted Christian a lifelong Benedictine Oblate From the very outset he was anti Nazi and on many occasions defied Hitler s orders His military skills were good in France he beat Rommel to Cherbourg and on the Eastern Front he tried to relieve the German 6th Army in Stalingrad It was in Italy where his reputation grew by safely evacuating German troops from Sicily Sardinia and Corsica a delicate matter because the Italians had changed sides He defeated General Clark s forces at the Rapido battle fiasco and he caused Cassino to become a serious hold up for the Allied advance north It was he who willingly signed the surrender documents in Italy on 4 May 1945 His Christian beliefs meant there were no barbarities within his command and he made lifelong friends with some occupied residents helping to save lives from the dreaded SS and the Italian partisans never attacked him because he had helped the helpless He was a brilliant tactician always with his troops on the frontline and his anti Nazi views were not a post war justification but were widely known during the war years by friend and foe Von Senger was never even considered for war crimes and was granted the rare privilege of being allowed to explore the English countryside from the Bridgend PoW camp Discover the life of a general who fought not just for victory but for honour compassion and morality under the brutal Nazi regime
