Meesterlijk Vee:

Meesterlijk vee Dordrechts Museum, Fries Museum, 1988 Inleidingen over de betekenis van vee in de Nederlandse schilderkunst en de invloed van het denken hierop met als middelpunt de Jonge stier van Potter Narratives of Low Countries History and Culture Jane Fenoulhet, Lesley Gilbert, Ulrich Tiedau, 2016-11-07 This edited collection explores the ways in which our understanding of the past in Dutch history and culture can be rethought to consider not only how it forms part of the present but how it can relate also to the future Divided into three parts The Uses of Myth and History The Past as Illumination of Cultural Context and Historiography in Focus this book seeks to demonstrate the importance of the past by investigating the transmission of culture and its transformations It reflects on the history of historiography and looks critically at the products of the historiographic process such as Dutch and Afrikaans literary history The chapters cover a range of disciplines and approaches some authors offer a broad view of a particular period such as Jonathan Israel's contribution on myth and history in the ideological politics of the Dutch Golden Age while others zoom in on specific genres texts or historical moments such as Benjamin Schmidt's study of the doolhof a word that today means labyrinth but once described a 17th century educational amusement park This volume enlightening and home to multiple paths of enquiry leading in different directions is an excellent example of what a past present doolhof might look like From Criminal to Courtier David Kunzle, 2021-10-11 The art of the Netherlands Dutch and Flemish is unique in Early Modern Europe in its concern for military cruelty against civilians principally the peasantry Decimated by time and changes in taste this popular iconography proves varied and extensive stretching from Bruegel to and past Rubens Massacres of the Innocents continue to be a favourite subject through the Eighty Years War in contrast to ruling class glorifications of war Dutch patriotic siege prints lay claim to scientific precision in landscapes free of military terror while the idea of military conquest is presented as generous rather than cruel in the ever popular figure of Scipio Africanus Most of the pictorial material is unfamiliar some of it even to specialists and never before published new light is shed on the more familiar phenomena of the civic guard groups and Ter Borch courtier officers good soldiers overcoming a bad image Murdering Animals Piers Beirne, 2018-03-12 Murdering Animals confronts the speciesism underlying the disparate social censures of homicide and theriocide the killing of animals by humans and as such is a plea to take animal rights seriously Its substantive topics include the criminal prosecution and execution of justiciable animals in early modern Europe images of hunters put on trial by their prey in the upside down world of the Dutch Golden Age the artist William Hogarth's patriotic depictions of animals in 18th Century London and the playwright J M Synge's representation of parricide in fin de siècle Ireland Combining insights from intellectual history the history of the fine and performing arts and what is known about today's invisibilised sites of animal killing Murdering Animals inevitably asks should theriocide be considered murder With its strong multi and interdisciplinary approach this work of collaboration will appeal to scholars of social and species justice in animal studies criminology sociology and law Natural Disaster at the Closing of the Dutch Golden Age Adam Sundberg,2022-01-27 By the early eighteenth century the economic primacy cultural efflorescence and geopolitical power of the Dutch Republic appeared to be waning The end of this Golden Age was also an era of natural disasters Between the late seventeenth and the mid eighteenth century Dutch communities weathered numerous calamities including river and coastal floods cattle plagues and an outbreak of strange mollusks that threatened the literal foundations of the Republic Adam Sundberg demonstrates that these disasters emerged out of longstanding changes in environment and society They were also fundamental to the Dutch experience and understanding of eighteenth century decline Disasters provoked widespread suffering but they also opened opportunities to retool management strategies expand the scale of response and to reconsider the ultimate meaning of catastrophe This book reveals a dynamic and often resilient picture of a society coping with calamity at odds with historical assessments of eighteenth century stagnation Infelicities Peter Mason,1998 In Infelicities Peter Mason explores the texts paintings drawings photographs and museum displays in which the exotic has been represented from the early modern period to the present He describes the unique iconography that Europeans developed to convey the exotic and the means they employed to display it once artifacts were brought to Europe In both instances the exotic object is taken out of its original context and given a meaning and significance it never had this new meaning and significance Mason argues are derived from the imposition of European cultural values and the need to recontextualize the object in a European setting Subjugated Animals Nathaniel Wolloch,2017-07-12 This book is a study of attitudes toward animals in early modern Western culture Emphasizing the influence of anthropocentrism on attitudes toward animals historian Nathaniel Wolloch traces the various ways in which animals were viewed from predominantly anti animal thinking to increasingly pro animal sentiments and viewpoints Wolloch devotes a chapter each to six major themes early modern philosophical perspectives on animals till the end of the seventeenth century pro animal opinions in the eighteenth century the connection between attitudes toward animals and the early modern debate about the existence of extraterrestrial life scientific modes of discussing animals the role of animals in early modern anthropomorphic literature and depictions of animals in seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish painting He concludes his broad interdisciplinary study by linking these historical trends to the modern discussion of animal rights and ecological issues Collection of Dutch Paintings Marina Sergeevna Senenko,2009 Catalogue raisonné
