MEET DRACULA

Spooky excitement is afoot when the music scene's most famous chipmunk trio head to Europe on their latest world tour! Join Alvin, Simon, and Theodore in this all-new, full-length, fright fest of a musical invited to an afterparty within an ancient castle, Simon's sure there's something afoot with their mysterious host. With a wild chase through the castle's cavernous halls, the three chipmunks are separated, Along the way you'll hear Alvin, Simon, and Theodore performing on the big stage, taking their own spin on such hits as Michael Jackson's Thriller, Moonwalk from Fields Of The Nephilim, and Dirty Oldman's Paradise.

with each of them standing upon a separate clue pointing towards their host's haunting ancestry. Only, Simon returns with something more than a clue, and a strange devotion to host! Can Alvin and Theodore unravel this Transylvanian mystery, and save their brother before it's too late?

Music from the House of Hammer Randall D. Larson, 1996-06-28 In the 1950s Hammer Film Productions a small British filmmaking company introduced the world to a new genre of motion picture Referred to by some as horror by others as fantasy Hammer films had a unique look and feel that many other studios would later attempt and fail to capture Hammer films also had a unique sound For although the studio was small and the budgets limited those involved in making the Hammer films recognized that the musical score was just as important as the set the actors and the script in telling the story Consequently Hammer Films Productions recruited the best musical talent to make its films come alive Those artists and the work they did are chronicled here in careful detail by Randall D Larson From the studio's fledgling days through its great successes of the 60s and early 70s Music from the House of Hammer offers an inside look at how the Hammer sound was developed and nurtured

The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S. Hischak, 2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred

Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores
