Epimethean Imaginings Raymond Tallis, 2014-09-11 These essays written in the spirit of Goethe's Epimetheus who traces the quick deed to the dim realm of form combining possibilities display the depth and breadth of Tallis's fascination with our lives Whether discussing philosophical hardy perennials like time or a mundane artefact like ink Tallis challenges us to think differently about who we are and why we are The first part of the book Analysis dives into the deep end to explore some of the big questions in philosophy perception knowledge and belief time the relationship between mathematics and reality and probability and causation The middle section Tetchy Interludes takes a wry look at some aspects of contemporary art stupidity including the author's own and Christmas The third part Celebration is more experimental in both its subject matter and treatment It celebrates the complexity of ordinary everyday consciousness by contemplating the miracle of speech artefacts that have transformed our lives and what they reveal about our cognition such as the wheel the sail and ink and snapshots of the author's own consciousness on an ordinary day of past consciousness as captured in historical memory

Notwithstanding their diversity in theme and style these essays share the common aim of discovering and celebrating the submerged riches in the quick deeds of our everyday lives and perceptions
