

A colorful illustration of a girl with dark hair in a bun, wearing a red jacket over a striped shirt and blue shorts, climbing a grey pole. She is holding a green spiral notebook in her left hand and a yellow object in her right. The pole has two green street signs: 'MEET ME on' and 'MERCER STREET'. The background is a light blue sky with various floating objects: a shopping cart, a key, a popsicle, a spilled drink, a yellow envelope, a magnifying glass, sunglasses, a pencil, a notebook, a traffic cone, leaves, a bench, and a coin. A large yellow banner in the bottom left corner reads 'written and illustrated by BOOKI VIVAT NEW YORK TIMES bestselling author of the FRAZZLED Series'. A red banner at the bottom center says 'SCHOLASTIC' with a small book icon.

Katsirubas,2022-01-06 In August 1973 a poet contemplating suicide arrives on the Greek Cycladic island of Santorini To make a decision of such finality requires intellectual acuity Seeking it he drinks ouzo and engages in existential conversations with local philosophers and rudderless travelers and in passing becomes involved with several young women Six days on the volcanic Aegean island thought by some to be the Lost Continent of Atlantis will resolve the matter or not Wild Woman Amy Frykholm,2021 In the dusty corner of a library journalist Amy Frykholm discovers a footnote that leads her on a decades long search for Mary of Egypt runaway prostitute holy desert dweller saint and archetypal wild woman As their storylines crisscross maps and centuries both become more fully revealed in the embrace of the sacred The Life and Loves of Victoria Briony Beredo,2022-07-06 The Life and Loves of Victoria chronicles the journey of a young and liberated Filipina who has just graduated from college and goes abroad to work as a customer service executive for a big shipping line Victoria is one hell of a woman worldly passionate sensual lustful mentally fierce and highly emotional This novel explores the intimate details of her romantic and sexual affairs in an unnamed country in Singapore and back in the Philippines It follows her aspirations desires losses survival and triumphs The 'G' Factor George Grubisha,2001-04-12 The G Factor was never spelled out in so many words This was a code name whose significance was known only to my employer and me for the expected reward discreetly given to a facilitator who brokered the sale of aircraft for their respective governments agencies companies or clients I never showed in the bills of sale and was therefore untraceable to the recipients and it was buried in the legalese of our contracts to balance our own books In other words the G Factor was more often than not the critical success factor of any major negotiation but it depended on instinct to know when how how much and to whom it should or should not be offered A wrong guess could blow a major deal Like another George of historical renown who said I cannot tell a lie neither can I so the tales I am about to tell about the world of intrigue I have experienced and how the mighty rise and fall are absolutely true They are my moments in time based on a lifetime of memories

CONNIE James Kelly Jr.,2023-10-16 I ve used Connie as the pseudonym for my father Then rearranged names and places to conceal my ideas of how he dealt with the family and his job career while heading an independent Labor Union He was raised in a strong labor movement household and was strongly opposed to large international unions where he felt the independent union would be just another clog in the wheel of the giant organization with no autonomy or say in contract negotiations This is the story of politics in New York City from the 1920 s to the late 1950 s The history is slanted from his point of view but realistically accurate My story moves along with the trials and tribulations of all immigrant families dealing with both outside influences and the family s resistant to change The one difference from most other immigrants was the lack of the language barrier Although there were some who would dispute that

Indonesia Walter Reed,2025-09-10 I have had the desire to write this book for forty years before finally taking the plunge The book encompasses the entire time I spent working at the American embassy in Jakarta Indonesia as a Marine Security Guard It follows all the adventures and misadventures of myself and the entire detachment I was assigned to and the eight Marines I worked with there I also followed the political landscape in Indonesia at the time as well as embassy life and politics and life within my detachment But most of the book details my desire to learn about and experience everything Indonesian and how I mostly accomplished that with the help of my Indonesian girlfriend Neneng

“Now I Can Call Myself a Biker” David Royle,2011-11-11 David has always had a passion for classic cars right from an early age but had always wanted to ride a motorcycle He left this until the age of 47 when his brother in law passed his test and bought himself a Triumph Thunderbird That did it As soon as David sat on Nigel s bike he decided he would pass his test and buy his own Triumph This is exactly what he did but there was one small problem David picked up his new bike on his 50th birthday but had missed out on all that valuable experience he should have picked up in his younger years He d left it too late So David decided he needed to get some miles under his belt and took a Harley across America and has never looked back This is the story of David s exploits and adventures to gain that experience he so desperately wanted and it has shown that even at his age in his mid life crisis it wasn t too late to learn how to ride a motorbike This book will appeal to the many motorcycle enthusiasts out there as well as the more mature person thinking about taking up biking
