Kinder,Allison Dale-Riddle,2012-01-01 How did race affect the election that gave America its first African American president This book offers some fascinating and perhaps controversial findings Donald R Kinder and Allison Dale Riddle assert that racism was in fact an important factor in 2008 and that if not for racism Barack Obama would have won in a landslide On the way to this conclusion they make several other important arguments In an analysis of the nomination battle between Obama and Hillary Clinton they show why racial identity matters more in electoral politics than gender identity Comparing the 2008 election with that of 1960 they find that religion played much the same role in the earlier campaign that race played in 08 And they argue that racial resentment a modern form of racism that has superseded the old fashioned biological variety is a potent political force Proceedings at the ... Annual Meeting ... ,1871 Where Cultures Meet David J. Weber,Jane M. Rausch,1997-08-01 In Where Cultures Meet editors Weber and Rausch have collected twenty essays that explore how the frontier experience has helped create Latin American national identities and institutions Using frontier to mean more than border Weber and Rausch regard frontiers as the geographic zones of interaction between distinct cultures Each essay in the volume illuminates the reciprocal influences of the pioneer culture and the frontier culture as they contend with each other and their physical environment The transformative power of frontiers gives them special interest for historians and anthropologists Delving into the frontier experience below the Rio Grande Where Cultures Meet is an important collection for anyone seeking to understand fully Latin American history and culture Missions, Nationalism and the End of Empire Stanley,Alaine M. Low,2003 Christian missions have often been seen as the religious arm of Western imperialism What is rarely appreciated is the role they played in bringing about an end to the Western colonial empires after the Second World War Missions Nationalism and the End of Empire explores this neglected subject Respected authorities on the history of missions explore new territory in these chapters examining from diverse angles the linkages between Christianity nationalism and the dissolution of the colonial empires in Asia and Africa This work not only sheds light on the relation of religion and politics but also uncovers the sometimes paradoxical implications of the church's call to bring the gospel to all the world Contributors Daniel H Bays Philip Boobbyer Judith M Brown Richard Elphick Deborah Gaitskell Adrian Hastings Caroline Howell Ka che Yip Ogbu U Kalu Hartmut Lehmann Derek Peterson Andrew Porter Brian Stanley John Stuart
