Meeting Of Minds The Television Scripts:

Meeting of the Minds Steve Allen, 1989 Meeting of Minds Steve Allen, 1989 The man who invented the television talk show surpassed even himself when he created Meeting of Minds the award winning series that captured America's imagination These four volumes offer the original scripts from the series including material edited from the broadcast versions that ran from 1977 to 1981 on PBS stations nationwide Many believe that Meeting of Minds is the most brilliant series ever to be written for television The show provides a groundbreaking opportunity to be exposed to ideas by way of a medium not normally known for its intellectual vigor Indeed Meeting of Minds grew out of Allen's frustration with the mediocrity of the average network program He envisioned the show as a stimulating round table discussion conducted like any other talk show except that the participants would be actors portraying some of the greatest minds and most prominent figures of history Accordingly such characters as Aristotle Catherine the Great Oliver Cromwell Emily Dickinson Margaret Sanger Gandhi Thomas Paine Cleopatra Theodore Roosevelt and St Thomas Aquinas appear in startlingly effective juxtaposition their characters revealed through brilliantly conceived dialogue This first volume features appearances by President Theodore Roosevelt Queen Cleopatra Thomas Aquinas Thomas Paine President Ulysses S Grant Queen Marie Antoinette Sir Thomas More Karl Marx Charles Darwin Emily Dickinson Galileo Galilei and Attila the Hun The scripts for Meeting of Minds make for excellent reading distilling an enormous amount of research into a lively format that has the undeniable veracity of historical fact The result is unfailingly witty thought provoking and genuinely entertaining Steve Allen's lucidity and fertile intelligence are evident on every page Meeting of Minds remains one of the freshest most delightful ways of gaining historical perspective ever devised an incomparable tour de force with the power to make history come alive

TV in the USA Vincent LoBrutto, 2018-01-04 This three volume set is a valuable resource for researching the history of American television An encyclopedic range of information documents how television forever changed the face of media and continues to be a powerful influence on society What are the reasons behind enduring popularity of television genres such as police crime dramas soap operas sitcoms and reality TV What impact has television had on the culture and morality of American life Does television largely emulate and reflect real life and society or vice versa How does television's influence differ from that of other media such as newspapers and magazines radio movies and the Internet These are just a few of the questions explored in the three volume encyclopedia TV in the USA A History of Icons Idols and Ideas This expansive set covers television from 1950 to the present day addressing shows of all genres well known programs and short lived series alike broadcast on the traditional and cable networks All three volumes lead off with a keynote essay regarding the technical and historical features of the decade's covered Each entry on a specific show investigates the narrative themes and history of the program provides comprehensive information about when the show started and ended and why and identifies the star players directors producers and other key members of the crew of each television production The set also features essays

Through Alien Eyes Wesley H. Bateman, 2001-04-01 The accounts given by extraterrestrials in this volume are about events that occurred in our solar system many millions of years ago In that ancient time the solar system consisted of four planets and four radiar systems that orbited the central sun The four planets of the solar system are known today as Venus Earth Mars and a now totally shattered world that was called Maldec The term radiar applies to the astronomical bodies we presently call Jupiter Saturn Uranus and Neptune The original satellites of these radiars are generally called moons by Earth astronomers but the extraterrestrials prefer to call them planetoids This book reflects the personal views of a number of different types of extraterrestrials regarding the state of the local solar system and the state of the Earth

Broadcasting Birth Control Manon Parry, 2013-08-23 Traditionally the history of the birth control movement has been told through the accounts of the leaders organizations and legislation that shaped the campaign Recently historians have begun examining the cultural work of printed media including newspapers magazines and even novels in fostering support for the cause Broadcasting Birth Control builds on this new scholarship to explore the films and radio and television broadcasts developed by twentieth century birth control advocates to promote family planning at home in the United States and in the expanding international arena of population control Mass media

Manon Parry contends was critical to the birth control movement's attempts to build support and later to publicize the idea of fertility control and the availability of contraceptive services in the United States and around the world. Though these public efforts in advertising and education were undertaken initially by leading advocates including Margaret Sanger, increasingly a growing class of public communications experts took on the role, mimicking the efforts of commercial advertisers to promote health and contraception in short plays, cartoons, films, and soap operas. In this way, they made a private subject, fertility control, appropriate for public discussion. Parry examines these trends to shed light on the contested nature of the motivations of birth control advocates. Acknowledging that supporters of contraception were not always motivated by the best interests of individual women, Parry concludes that family planning advocates were nonetheless convinced of women's desire for contraception and highly aware of the ethical issues involved in the use of the media to inform and persuade.

The Mind of the Censor and the Eye of the Beholder Robert Corn-Revere, 2021-11-04. The book explores the importance of free speech in America by telling the stories of its chief antagonists, the censors.

Afrikan Mind Reconnection & Spiritual Re-Awakening Dr. Lumumba Umunna Ubani, 2011-01-17. The need for Afrikan mind regeneration and spiritual reawakening. A people who have lost these two principal inner qualities of mind can hardly find their true selves in life. This book is an attempt to begin the processes of African self-discovery. The ending of slavery and colonialism removed only our physical agony, but the trauma of long and extended torture left deep-rooted anguish within the psyche of the African race. The effects of this imprint legacy will continue until we start addressing these negative effects. In an effort to do this, the book has provided several suggestions. Some of the programs are being provided at the Institute of Mind Talk Afrika.
