Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo, 2016 Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re imagination in post colonial Africa Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga Ngugi wa Thiong o Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot The analysis dwells on self representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works Thus the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir the forms and styles it takes the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 63 Subject African Studies Literary Criticism From History to Herstory Paul Leshota, Maxwell Musingafi, Itumeleng Mokhele, Makhulu Makumane, 2024-11-15 This book seeks to contribute to reflections done on the gender equality agenda by combing through oral and written resources to unearth and document heroic displays of leadership by women of Africa in general and of Southern Africa in particular that remain hidden under the rubble of Eurocentric colonial and African patriarchal archive and hegemony It seeks to open the archive of Southern Africa to unearth the names of women who have played an important role in shaping the course of Southern Africa history in every way While acknowledging the systematic marginalisation of women s voices and identities by scribal patriarchy the aim is to bring to life women s experiences and voices through critical engagement of sources of knowledge available to Africa in general and southern Africa in particular The chapters of this book will contribute to the debate on gender equality and women empowerment by women themselves within the framework of Sustainable Development Goals especially SDG 5 Warrior Women Alison S. Fell, 2023-05-18

This Element examines women warriors as vehicles of mobilisation. It argues that women warrior figures from the mid nineteenth century until the end of the Second World War are best understood as examples of palimpsestic memory as the way they were represented reflected new contexts while retaining traces of legendary models such as Joan of Arc and of travelling memory as their stories crossed geographical borders and were re told and re imagined. It considers both the instrumentalisation of women warriors by state actors to mobilise populations in the world wars and by non state actors in resistance anti colonial and feminist movements. Fell's analysis of a broad range of global conflicts helps us to understand who these actors were what motivated them and what meanings armed women embodied for them enabling a fresh understanding of the woman warrior as an archetype in modern warfare.

An African Journey Through Its Art Fima Lifshitz, 2009. There were five. They came together for reasons that no one is even sure of anymore and cut a swath through the universe. Everyone knew their name and the lined up to follow them. They knew their symbol the snarling wolf. The warlords formed a following an almost religion. And then it was over. Years later and the followings of each of the original warriors have become clans. The clans have grown and trained new warriors over time creating the driving force in all the universe. Here are four people now training to follow in the ways of one particular wolf. The wolf that ended it all in the first place the Blackwolf. This is the start of their journey the beginning of their training. Gregor Holden a Prince whose sense of duty is equaled only by his lust for adventure. Candace Orthon a legacy whose father is a Blackwolf whose grandfather was a Blackwolf and who will be a Blackwolf if it kills her. Ran Grastle already an accomplished warrior in his own right. He's on the run for committing a crime to exact justice and cares very little for the clan or anyone else. Xesca a child of the last planet that the Blackwolf attacked. She has come to learn his ways his style so that no one can ever attack her planet again. These four. If no one else let these four progress.

Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M. Mbah, 2023-08-29. Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa: Gender, Religion, and Ethno-cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender, ethno-cultural and religious identity. Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M. Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups, studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio-economic and political spheres in the continent. These chapters cover subjects such as women's career identity, gender roles and knowledge, childlessness, ethnocentrism and democracy, cultural identity through theater, Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness. Using existing scholarship, the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa.

Sub-Saharan African Immigrants' Stories of Resilience and Courage Mariam Konate, Fredah Mainah, 2022-12-06

The purpose of this book is to give a voice to nameless and countless stories that represent the personal lived experiences of sub-Saharan African immigrants in the United States. The authors believe that telling our own stories from our own perspectives is important and empowering because when others tell our stories there are omissions and misrepresentations and a lot of stereotyping. The authors hope that the insights gained from the research in this book will be used by immigrant communities, academic institutions and governmental agencies in advocating for immigration policies that positively impact the lived experiences of sub-Saharan African immigrants and in planning support interventions. Wangari Maathai

Namulundah Florence, 2014-10-07 Nobel Peace Prize laureate, fighter for democratic space, founder of the Green Belt Movement and inspiration for women and grassroots activists throughout the world, the environmentalist Wangari Maathai 1940-2011 was a complex and multifaceted figure. In this book, fellow Kenyan Namulundah Florence offers an expansive examination of Maathai's role as a public figure, educator, inside and beyond the academy, symbol of resistance to oppression and very visible woman in a patriarchal society. Examining Maathai through the lens of feminist theory, Florence unpacks the social and political background of Maathai's life and work and places her within the context of women's struggles in Africa for self-determination and access to education and political power. In so doing, Florence reveals the complexities and many dimensions of this fascinating and extraordinary voice for women in Africa and beyond. African Publishing Review

, 2001 Managing Heritage, Making Peace Annie E. Coombes, Lotte Hughes, Karega Munene, 2019-12-26 Kenya stands at a crossroads in its history and heritage as the nation celebrates its fiftieth anniversary of independence from Britain in 2013. At this important juncture, what parts of its history, including the Mau Mau uprising, do citizens and state wish to remember and commemorate and what is best forgotten or occluded? What does heritage mean to ordinary Kenyans and what role does it play in building nationhood and forging peace and reconciliation? Focusing on the 1990s to the present, Managing Heritage, Making Peace is a timely exploration of the ways in which Kenyans are engaging with the past in the present, including such local initiatives as the community peace museums movement, local and national monuments and other notable commemorative actions. The authors show how Kenya is facing a continuing crisis over nationhood, heritage, memory and identity which must be resolved to achieve social cohesion and peace. Teachers' Guide to the Lion Books, 2001

Mwai Kibaki Ng'ang'a Mbugua, 2003 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G.

Smith, 2008-01-23 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work. Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region, no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history. The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike
