Melancholy Of Masterpieces Old Masters Paintings In America 1900-1914:

The Melancholy of Masterpieces Flaminia Gennari Santoni, 2003 The book is a fresh investigation of American collecting between 1900 and 1914 and of the impact of transatlantic displacements and mass media on the public perception of old master paintings Rather than a consideration of the itineraries of their acquisitions this is an analysis of the political cultural and social implication of the phenomenon and how it functioned within American society and in relation to Europe The first three chapters of the book analyse how the American press The New York Times The Nation Century Scribner's McClure's and the World's Work exploited the phenomenon turning it into a journalistic genre in which the rhetoric of nationalism and civilisation as well as that of business and speculation provided the style of the narrative Two aspects of the press coverage are thoroughly investigated the collectors and experts public role Chapters four to six are devoted to a case study of an unknown but extraordinary publishing venture Noteworthy Paintings in Old Masters Worldwide Susanna Avery-Quash, Barbara Pezzini, 2020-10-15 As a result of the Napoleonic wars vast numbers of Old Master paintings were released on to the market from public and private collections across continental Europe The knock on effect was the growth of the market for Old Masters from the 1790s up to the early 1930s when the Great Depression put an end to its expansion This book explores the global movement of Old Master paintings and investigates some of the changes in the art market that took place as a result of this new interest Arguably the most important phenomenon was the diminishing of the traditional figure of the art agent and the rise of more visible increasingly professional dealerships firms such as Colnaghi and Agnew's in Britain Goupil in France and Knoedler in the USA came into existence Old Masters Worldwide explores the ways in which the pioneering practices of such businesses contributed to shape a changing market Old Masters, New World Cynthia Saltzman, 2008-08-14 A spellbinding account of the rapacious pursuit of the most exquisite paintings in the world In the Gilded Age newly wealthy and culturally ambitious Americans began to compete for Europe's extraordinary Old Master pictures causing a major migration of art across the Atlantic Old Masters New World is a backstage look at the cutthroat competition financial maneuvering intrigue and double dealing often involved in these purchases not to mention the seductive power of the ravishing paintings that drove these collectors including financier J Pierpont Morgan sugar king H O Havemeyer Boston aesthete Isabella Stewart Gardner and industrialist Henry Clay Frick Packed with stunning reproductions this is an ideal gift book for art lovers and history buffs alike Henry Walters and Bernard Berenson Stanley Mazaroff, 2010-06-15 Collecting Italian Renaissance paintings during America's Gilded Age was fraught with risk because of the uncertain identities of the artists and the conflicting interests of the dealers Stanley Mazaroff's fascinating account of the close relationship between Henry Walters founder of the legendary Walters Art Museum in Baltimore and Bernard Berenson the era's preeminent connoisseur of Italian paintings richly illustrates this important chapter of America's cultural history When Walters opened his Italianate museum in 1909 it was labeled as America's Great Temple of Art With more than 500

Italian paintings including self portraits purportedly by Raphael and Michelangelo Walters's collection was compared favorably with the great collections in London Paris and Berlin In the midst of this fanfare Berenson contacted Walters and offered to analyze his collection sell him additional paintings and write a scholarly catalogue that would trumpet the collection on both sides of the Atlantic What Berenson offered was what Walters desperately needed a badge of scholarship that Berenson's invaluable imprimatur would undoubtedly bring By 1912 Walters had become Berenson's most active client their business alliance wrapped in a warm and personal friendship But this relationship soon became strained and was finally severed by a confluence of broken promises inattention deceit and ethical conflict To Walters's chagrin Berenson swept away the self portraits allegedly by Raphael and Michelangelo and publicly scorned paintings that he was supposed to praise Though painful to Walters Berenson's guidance ultimately led to a panoramic collection that beautifully told the great history of Italian Renaissance painting Based primarily on correspondence and other archival documents recently discovered at the Walters Art Museum and the Villa I Tatti in Florence the intriguing story of Walters and Berenson offers unusual insight into the pleasures and perils of collecting Italian Renaissance paintings the ethics in the marketplace and the founding of American art museums

Money in the Air Gail Feigenbaum, Sandra van Ginhoven, Edward Sterrett, 2024-06-25 This volume explores the crucial role of art dealers in creating a transatlantic art market in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries There was money in the air ever so much money wrote Henry James in 1907 reflecting on the American appetite for art acquisitions Indeed collectors such as Henry Clay Frick and Andrew W Mellon are credited with bringing noteworthy European art to the United States with their collections forming the backbone of major American museums today But what of the dealers who possessed the expertise in art and recognized the potential of developing a new market model on both sides of the Atlantic Money in the Air investigates the often overlooked role of these dealers in creating an international art world Contributors examine the histories of well known international firms like Duveen Brothers M Knoedler Co and Goupil Cie and their relationships with American clients as well as accounts of other remarkable dealers active in the transatlantic art market Drawing on dealer archives scholars reveal compelling findings including previously unknown partnerships and systems of cooperation This volume offers new perspectives on the development of art collections that formed the core of American art museums such as the National Gallery of Art the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Frick Collection

The Fricks Collect Ian Wardropper, 2025-03-04 Before his New York home became a museum Henry Clay Frick engaged some of his era's most important art dealers to build a notable collection and the best decorators to create suitable Gilded Age interiors to accommodate the works This story traces the journey that led to the creation of one of America's finest art collections At its heart this story centers on Frick and his daughter Helen Clay Frick both pivotal figures in the formation of the renowned Frick Collection The volume delves into the Fricks exposure to and acquisition of some of the finest art of their time With an exquisite blend of textual narrative and ample imagery showcasing masterpieces and the sumptuous interiors of homes in Pittsburgh and New York the book offers a captivating narrative of ambition wealth and cultural patronage White Allom Co and Elsie de Wolfe worked with Frick on the decoration of his houses and influenced the choice of many furnishings the owner acquired and that formed the backdrop for his paintings As was commonplace at the time decorators often collaborated with dealers in creating spaces suitable for the esteemed works of art Further influential figures who shaped the era s cultural landscape include Frick s business partner Andrew Carnegie and noted art dealers Joseph Duveen in London and Charles Carstairs of M Knoedler Co in New York Presenting the glittering halls of their homes and the masterpieces adorning the walls of The Frick Collection this volume is a testament to the enduring allure of art and the power of patronage in shaping cultural institutions

Italian Forgers Carol Helstosky,2024-05-15 Italian Forgers takes an unorthodox approach to the fascinating topic of art forgery focusing not on art forgery per se but on the major forgery scandals that shifted the Italian art market in response to constant and often intense demand for Italian objects By focusing on power dynamics that both precipitated forgery scandals and forged Italian cultural identities this book connects the debates and discussions about three well known Italian forgers Giovanni Bastianini Icilio Joni and Alceo Dossena to anchor and investigate the mechanics of the Italian art market from unification through the fascist era Carol Helstosky examines foreign accounts of transactions and Italian writings about the art market The actions and words of Italian dealers illustrate how the Italian art and antiquities market was an undeniably modern industry on par with tourism in terms of its contribution to the Italian economy and to understandings of Italian identity These accounts also reveal how dealers artists go between guides and restorers worked to not only meet the intense demand for Italian products but also to develop highly sophisticated business practices to maintain financial stability and respond to shifts in demand consciously but not always conscientiously Italian Forgers weaves a compelling narrative about the history of Italian identity forgery and the value of the past As a result Helstosky brings historical perspective to the study of art forgery and art fraud She reveals how historical circumstances and structural imbalances of cultural power shaped the market for art and antiquities and amplified incidents of art deception and forgery scandals

Spaces of Connoisseurship Alison Clarke,2022-07-18 In Spaces of Connoisseurship Alison Clarke explores the who where and how of judging Old Master paintings in the nineteenth century British art trade She describes how the staff at family art dealers Thomas Agnew Sons Agnew s and London s National Gallery took advantage of emerging technologies such as the railways and photography Through encounters with pictures in a range of locations both private and public these art market actors could build up the visual memory and necessary expertise to compare artworks and judge them in terms of attribution condition and beauty Also explored are the display tactics adopted by both commercial outfit and art museum to showcase pictures once acquired In a time of ever spiralling art prices this book tackles the question of why some paintings are preferred over others and exactly how art experts reach their judgements

Art Crossing Borders Jan Dirk Baetens,Dries Lyna,2019-02-11 Art Crossing Borders offers a thought provoking analysis of the internationalisation of the art market during the long nineteenth century Twelve experts dealing with a wide variety of geographical temporal and commercial contexts explore how the gradual integration of art markets structurally depended on the simultaneous rise of nationalist modes of thinking in unexpected and ambiguous ways By presenting a radically international research perspective Art Crossing Borders offers a crucial contribution to the field of art market studies

Love and Marriage in Renaissance Florence Caroline Campbell,2009 Love and Marriage in Renaissance Florence explores an important but historically neglected art form Cassoni are pairs of chests that were lavishly decorated with precious metals and elaborate paintings and were often the most expensive of a whole suite of decorative objects commissioned to celebrate marriage alliances between powerful families in Renaissance Florence Cassoni were displayed in the husband s chamber and were used to store precious clothes and textiles The painted panels set into them told tales and history from ancient Greece Rome and Palestine as well as from Florentine literature and more recent history These pictorial narratives were intended to entertain as well as to instruct the household and its visitors This book reflects the extensive iconographic range of cassone painting Its focus however is around a pair of chests ordered in 1472 by the Florentine Lorenzo Morelli to celebrate his marriage with Vaggia Nerli These are the only pair of cassoni to be still displayed with their painted backboards spalliere The unusual survival of both the chests and their commissioning documents enables a full examination of this remarkable art form Caroline Campbell is Schroder Foundation Curator of Paintings at the Courtauld Gallery London

Apollo and Vulcan Guido Guerzoni,2011-06 Guido Guerzoni presents the results of fifteen years of research into one of the more hotly debated topics among historians of art and of economics the history of art markets Organized by thematic areas the ethics and psychology of consumption an analysis of the demand labor markets services prices laws that cover a large chronological period from the 15th through the 17th century various geographical areas and several institution typologies this book offers an exhaustive and up to date study of an increasingly fascinating topic
