Linguistic Bibliography for the Year 2000 / Bibliographie Linguistique de l'Année 2000 Sijmen Tol, Hella Olbertz, Mark Janse, 2004-12-10
Bibliographie Linguistique Linguistic Bibliography is the annual bibliography of linguistics published by the Permanent International Committee of Linguists under the auspices of the International Council of Philosophy and Humanistic Studies of UNESCO With a tradition of more than fifty years the first two volumes covering the years 1939 1947 were published in 1949 1950 Bibliographie Linguistique is by far the most comprehensive bibliography in the field It covers all branches of linguistics both theoretical and descriptive from all geographical areas including less known and extinct languages with particular attention to the many endangered languages of the world Up to date information is guaranteed by the collaboration of some forty contributing specialists from all over the world With over 20 000 titles arranged according to a detailed state of the art classification Bibliographie Linguistique remains the standard reference book for every scholar of language and linguistics

Bibliographie Linguistique de L'annee 1999 Mark Janse, Hella Olbertz, Sijmen Tol, 2003-11-30
Setting out the historical national and religious characteristics of the Italians as they impact on the integration within the European Union this study makes note of the two characteristics that have an adverse effect on Italian national identity cleavages between north and south and the dominant role of family It discusses how for Italians family loyalty is stronger than any other allegiance including feelings towards their country their nation or the EU Due to such subnational allegiances and values this book notes that Italian civic society is weaker and engagement at the grass roots is less robust than one finds in other democracies leaving politics in Italy largely in the hands of political parties The work concludes by noting that EU membership however provides no magic bullet for Italy it cannot change internal cleavages the Italian worldview and family values or the country's mafia dominated power matrix and as a result the underlying absence of fidelity to a shared polity Italian or European leave the country as ungovernable as ever

Mélanges linguistiques 1996 Robert Fournier, 1996

The Emergence of the Modern Language Sciences Sheila M. Embleton, John Earl Joseph, Hans-Josef Niederehe, 1999-01-01 Although it is widely thought that structural linguistics began abruptly with the publication of Saussure's revolutionary Course in General Linguistics the work of E F K Koerner has demonstrated that Saussure for all his originality remained true to the basic tenets of his 19th century predecessors In this volume the development of modern linguistics before during and after Saussure is traced in 20 studies honouring the scholar who has done more than anyone else to professionalize linguistic historiography during the last quarter century Among the wide range of topics covered are grammar and philosophy in the age of comparativism the relation of Saussure's anagram studies to his theory of the linguistic sign nationalist overtones in German linguistics from 1914 to 1945 and the true story with newly discovered documentation of why Chomsky's Logical Structure of Linguistic Theory didn't get published during the 1950s or 60s In addition to an introductory overview of Koerner's career and a complete listing of his publications the volume includes previously unpublished materials from Saussure's notebooks

Aspectuality and Temporality Zlatka Guentchéva, 2016-03-09 This volume brings together a collection of articles exploring tense and aspect phenomena in a variety of non related languages Indo European Albanian Bulgarian Armenian English Norwegian Hindi Hamito Semitic Berber Zenaga Berber Arabic varieties Neo Aramaic African Wolof Langi Asian Badaga Korean Mongolian languages Khalkha Buriat Kalmuck Tha Tibetic languages Amerindian Yucatec Maya Sikuani Greenlandic Eskimo and Oceanian N I mwa Each article is grounded in solid empirical knowledge It offers an in depth study of aspectual and temporal devices as manifested in many diverse and complex ways from a cross linguistic perspective and seeks to contribute to our understanding of the domain under consideration and more broadly to linguistic typology and theoretical linguistics especially the enunciative approach The book gives readers access to a collection of data and is of particular interest to scholars working on aspectuality and temporality on pragmatics on areal linguistics and on typology

The Limits of Structuralism James McElvenny, 2023
Based around seven primary texts spanning 130 years this volume explores the conceptual boundaries of structuralism The texts are made accessible to present day English speaking readers through translation and extensive critical notes each text is also accompanied by a detailed introduction that places it in its intellectual and historical context and outlines the insights it contains

Jacket The Arabic Influence on Northern Berber Maarten Kossmann, 2013-07-18 The Arabic Influence on Northern Berber provides an overview of the effects of language contact on a wide array of Berber languages spoken in the Maghrib These languages have undergone important changes in their lexicon phonology morphology and syntax as a result of over a thousand years of Arabic influence The social situation of Berber Arabic language contact is similar all over the region Berber speakers introducing Arabic features into their language with only little language shift going on Moreover the typological profile of the different Berber varieties is relatively homogenous The comparison of contact induced change in Berber therefore adds up to a study in typological variation of contact influence under very similar linguistic and social conditions

Fictions of Identity in Medieval France Donald Maddox, 2000-11-23 In this study of vernacular French narrative from the twelfth century through the later Middle Ages first published in 2000 Donald Maddox considers the construction of identity in a wide range of fictions He focuses on crucial encounters widespread in medieval literature in which characters are informed about fundamental aspects of their own circumstances and selfhood These always arresting and highly significant moments of specular encounter are examined in numerous Old and Middle French romances hagiographic texts epics and brief narratives Maddox discloses the key role of identity in an original reading of the Lais of Marie de France as a unified collection as well as in Arthurian literature fictions of the courtly tryst genealogies and medieval family romance The study offers many new perspectives on the poetic and cultural implications of identity as an imaginary construct during the long formative period of French literature

Laws and Rules in Indo-European Philomena Probert, Andreas Willi, 2012-05-10 Leading scholars from all over the world reassess the operation of the laws and rules in Indo European which constrain the reconstructions and etymologies on which knowledge of the history and prehistory of the language family is based The book makes an important contribution to the history of ancient languages

Adverbs and Functional Heads Guglielmo Cinque, 1999 This text presents evidence locating adverb phrases in the specifiers of distinct functional projections within a theory of the clause In this theory both adverbs and heads which encode the functional notions of the clause are ordered in a rigid sequence The author's proposal suggests that the structure of natural language sentences is much richer than previously assumed
