Melba The Voice Of Australia:

Melba Therese Radic,1986-09-15 A biography of the world famous opera singer Dame Nellie Melba this book provides fresh insights into her character and motivations It describes her childhood in Australia her studies in Paris her rise to fame and the fascination which she inspired up to the time of the mysterious illness which caused her death Melba is presented as a shrewd self made woman financially and personally independent She managed her greatest asset her voice and her earnings cleverly so that the voice lasted the distance of a long and strenuous career and her investments enabled her to enjoy life on a grand scale She dictated the terms of her own life and rose to unsurpassed heights in her chosen profession The book s large format enables the main text to be supplemented by lengthy footnotes running down the outside margins providing additional historical and anecdotal information To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott,2001-08-30

Between 1870 and 1940 tens of thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the center of the publishing art musical theatrical and educational worlds Even more Australian women than men made the pilgrimage home seeking opportunities beyond those available to them in the Australian colonies or dominion In tracing the experiences of these women this volume reveals hitherto unexamined connections between whiteness colonial status gender and modernity Alice Henry: The Power of Pen and Voice Diane Kirkby,2002-08-08 A biography of Alice Henry 1857

1943 a pioneer in both the Australian and American labour movements Imperialism and music Jeffrey Richards,2017-03-01 Fritz Hart Peter Tregear,Anne-Marie Forbes,2024-12-05 Fritz Bennicke Hart 1874 1949 stands as one of the more astonishing figures of the so called English Musical Renaissance This long overdue biographical study explores and assesses the substantial and lasting contributions he made to the musical life of England Australia and Hawai i As Tregear and Forbes have richly documented Hart was a charismatic and extraordinarily productive composer conductor educator and institutional leader whose life journey in music throws new light on the aesthetic concerns of early twentieth century imperial Britain and how they were received and refracted at that empire s farthest extent Poorhouse to

Christiansen,2002-08-20 In the nineteenth century London was a city of big money large audiences and creative dynamism In The Victorian Visitors Rupert Christiansen lucidly captures the city to which visitors went in search of the artistic fervor fame and wealth that only London could offer The great French painter Theodore Gericault escaped to London after a disappointing reception in Paris to show his painting Raft of the Medusa The high pitch and hustle of London life influenced the fecundity and variety of several of his paintings including Derby d Epsom Composer Richard Wagner went for the first time in search of money but was disappointed to find the audiences indiscriminating the musicians poorly trained and the weather depressing Writing to his friend Liszt in a frenzy of despair he said I live here like a damned soul in hell Then there was the demon Australian bowler Frederick Spofforth who changed the course of English cricket

The Old Italian School of Singing Daniela Bloem-Hubacka, 2014-01-10 This work describes in accessible language the technical foundations of the Old Italian School of Singing It enables the reader to grasp the teachings of the old masters theoretically and practically The research for this book used not only the old treatises from the 1700 s onwards but also firsthand testimonies biographies and recordings from historical singers The author systematically takes us through the basic elements of historical singing with practical hints and exercises tested by extensive teaching experience

Australian History Live! Ian Warden, 2013 This book is a collection of virtual time travellings back to Australiae tm s past AustralianHistory Live is a compelling look at Australian history using first person accounts as reported in the press and in journals and diaries Included in the collection are gripping accounts of occasions both great and minor Here you can find the heart wrenching account of a bewildered little terrier dog refusing to leave the bayoneted dead body of its master just killed at the Eureka Stockade Read an amazing description of Bert Hinkler landing his absurdly tiny little aeroplane here tm d just flown it across the world in a world record time on the straight at Flemington Racecourse Share scientist Francis Ratcliffee tm s experience of being caught and shaken by a very wild willy willy

Tuning the Antipodes: Battles for performing pitch in Melbourne Simon Purtell, 2016-12-01 Examining the many controversies associated with pitch standards in Melbourne over more than a hundred years Simon Purtell discovers their impact on the tuning of the city s orchestras and organs as well as its defence municipal and Salvation Army bands This fascinating history involves famous local and touring singers conductors and organists including Nellie Melba Malcolm Sargent and William McKie revealing just how complex a problem it was to ensure that Melbourne s music makers remained in tune Harry Potter and the Cursed Child has nothing on the saga of Pitch pitch that cursed pitch the seemingly endless and frequently caustic attempts to establish a uniform performing pitch for music in the Antipodes It is a typically Melburnian drama of mixed deference to Britain and stubborn upholding of local interests that the author so eloquently and patiently chronicles and it ranges from the almost theocratic intervention of Dame Nellie Melba at the beginning of the twentieth century to the Stanthorpe Apple and Grape Harvest Festival of 1972 At the same time it will have been a battle taking place comparably in all the major cities of the British Empire and beyond though each with its peculiar twists and turns What Simon Purtell has done is show us in immaculate detail just how pervasive and intricate not to mention costly this tectonic realignment of a fundamental element of musical infrastructure must have been in all places over a very long period of time Emeritus Professor Stephen Banfield Centre for the History of Music in Britain the Empire and the Commonwealth University of Bristol Opera Anecdotes Ethan Mordden, 1988 From backstage squabbles and box office chicanery to the gallantry and glory of creation this book of stories unveils a delightful panorama of opera lore An opera lover's handbook that should always be near at hand Schuyler G Chapin Columbia University The Graphic ,1919 Australian Book Review ,1995 Cigar Box Lithographs Volume VII Charles J. Humber, The objective of volume VII of the Cigar Box Lithographs series has been to acknowledge women with assorted backgrounds who envisioned fostering cultural foundations in support of future generations all eager to climb social ladders To discover cigar boxes featuring such hailed women has certainly been a huge challenge especially when considering that the great majority of such wooden containers were carelessly tossed into fireplaces or cast off in dumps more than 100 years ago Nonetheless the author of this production has been most fortunate to locate a gamut of cigar boxes identified with such a worthy subject matter The women featured on these cigar boxes wooden containers assembled between 1875 and 1920 not only enhanced such crafted packets during past times but were considered legendary household names during their era For sure their edifying influence has assisted in making life more satisfactory and extra rewarding The Australian Musical News ,1925 History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888-1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I's Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive Subjects Or Citizens? Adolf Ens, 1994 During the 1870s 7 000 Mennonites descendants of Dutch and German Anabaptists arrived in Canada to settle in the newly created province of Manitoba While in Europe they had steadily moved eastward under pressure of persecution and governmental restrictions until they settled in foreign colonies in New Russia Ukraine in 1789 Generations of living as non citizen settlers under special arrangements with the ruler had reinforced their separatist understanding of what it meant to live in nonconformity with the world Adolf Ens's volume traces the tensions of Mennonites becoming full citizens in the participatory democracy of Canada through the crucial steps of immigration settlement and naturalization implementing local municipal government and becoming part of the public school system This process was greatly complicated by the outbreak of the First World War and the intolerance it produced toward those who were pacifist German and different Almost 8 000 of the descendants of this immigrant group left for Latin America in the aftermath of the war becoming subjects once again The rest gradually accommodated themselves to being full Canadian citizens BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music ,1913
