Melody's Gifts: An Inspirational Story Of A Family's Determination That Neither Cerebral Palsy Nor Mental Retardation Would Silence Melody's Song

This is the kind of book that will be hard for a reader, whether parent or special education professional, to put down. Melody's mother, Louise Wade, tells the story with intense emotions. She is not a writer but a mother with a story to tell, and she tells the story from her heart and soul. At times, the reader may feel on top of the world, laughing and cheering at the adventures and victories of the family. At other times, the reader may cry softly as Louise expresses the depth of her grief that can only be found in a mother's heart. This is a true story, heartwarming, inspiring, and encouraging about the author's daughter, Melody Marie, who was diagnosed at fourteen months of age to be profoundly brain damaged. Fortunately, the family was living in Pennsylvania at the time. They learned of the Doman Delacato intensive patterning therapy program, which had a center just outside Philadelphia, and they were off and running. Louise moved with lightning speed to convince Jack, Melody's dad, and Mike, her seven-year-old brother, that the time had come to get little Melody crawling, creeping, walking, and talking. A determined, driven mother with a bountiful supply of energy, Louise had soon organized small teams of patterners, all of which moved as little brigades to meet the enormous challenge. The family's energies were great and were rewarded with Melody's achievements. Their lives changed as Louise felt that the Lord was calling her into a lifelong career in special education. The career of Melody's dad, Jack, later changed to recreational therapy. Her older brother, Mike, majored in special education in college and was President of the student chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children. Melody became an inspiration for each member of her family. The book reveals the innermost feelings from her mother's heart about Melody's life from 1962 through 2008. She did her writing the old-fashioned way, with pencil, paper, and lots of erasers. Louise, now in her seventies, has been relentless in her motivation She applied great pressure on herself to get the story told before her health limited her physical activity She drove sixty miles to enroll in a course called Writing Your Life Story A small writing group emerged from the course and Louise never missed their meetings She plodded along for months and years then began to feel discouraged that perhaps she would not be able to see this project through to publication She met Sheila Nelson by happenstance Sheila began by proof reading Louises work then a series of events and circumstances changed her role to that of re writing Melodys story Sheila recognized that the load seemed to be getting too heavy for Louise to carry alone to the finish line publication Louise describes Sheila as an answer to my prayers She worked tirelessly with the greatest dedication to complete the work Her devotion talent and abilities were paramount in the publishing of this work Emily Gabrysch and Daniel Burdess students at New River Community College in Dublin Virginia designed the book cover They took hundreds of pictures of Melody happily playing her spoons tambourine and bells The family selected one picture and had it framed for Melodys bedroom door From that day on Melody repeatedly encouraged her mother to write in the book The illustrations are from Melodys personal photo album and pictures in her bedroom especially designed for her enjoyment Before she could talk the family bombarded her with meaningful pictures Each created much happiness for all They proved to be valuable in her early language development A picture is worth a thousand words actually may be critical in stimulating communication Louise wants Melodys story to make a positive impact in as many liv

The Enchanting Adventures of Christian Nature
James A. Rousseau Jr.,2018-01-03 Imagine living in a God created heart in the world of your imagination Imagine living in a world where the Holy Spirit seen allegorically in the person of the beautiful patience of Christian Nature lovingly and tenderly seeks to fill every nook and cranny of your heart with the beauty that only the Holy Spirit through Christian Nature can provide Imagine living in a world where each citizen like a cherished and highly valued goblet is filled to overflowing with enchanted golden drops of comfort to freely pour upon everyone whom their lives may touch Imagine living in a world where each citizen places their cup filled with goodness to the parched dry lips of the weary traveler who has not tasted the refreshing drops of kindness for a long time and in so doing restoring life to that previously hardened person who was on the verge of losing his life to a thirst for goodness in a hardened world Is this the kind of world in which you would like to live Sounds nice you may say But this is not real life The purpose of this literary endeavor the reason for this story is to reveal to each reader that this world is real It really does exist It exists in our own God created heart and the Holy Spirit who has filled it with the beauty of Christian Nature lovingly invites you to live here as a cherished citizen for all the days of the enchanted adventure of your life
