Memoir of Mrs. Eliza Ann Chipman Eliza Ann Chipman,Allen B. Robertson,Acadia Divinity College,United Baptist Convention of the Atlantic Provinces. Baptist Historical Committee,1989 The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis

Dagg,2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women s studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada s past Canadian Women in Print, 1750-1918 Carole Gerson,2011-05-24 Canadian Women in Print 1750 1918 is the first historical examination of women s engagement with multiple aspects of print over some two hundred years from the settlers who wrote diaries and letters to the New Women who argued for ballots and equal rights Considering women s published writing as an intervention in the public sphere of national and material print culture this book uses approaches from book history to address the working and living conditions of women who wrote in many genres and for many reasons This study situates English Canadian authors within an extensive framework that includes francophone writers as well as women s work as compositors bookbinders and interveners in public access to print Literary authorship is shown to be one point on a spectrum that ranges from missionary writing temperance advocacy and educational texts to journalism and travel accounts by New Woman adventurers Familiar figures such as Susanna Moodie L M Montgomery Nellie McClung Pauline Johnson and Sara Jeannette Duncan are contextualized by writers whose names are less well known such as Madge Macbeth and Agnes Laut and by many others whose writings and biographies have vanished into the recesses of history Readers will learn of the surprising range of writing and publishing performed by early Canadian women under various ideological biographical and cultural motivations and circumstances Some expressed reluctance while others eagerly sought literary careers Together they did much more to shape Canada s cultural history than has heretofore been recognized Changing Roles of Women Within the Christian Church in Canada Elizabeth Gillan Muir,Marilyn Färdig Whiteley,1995-01-01 Canadian religious history has been written with relatively little reference to the role of women Throughout the years the church itself has intensified this problem by restricting the options of women excluding them from the most valued roles and positions In the past Christian women were obliged to find alternative avenues for the expression of their faith and as a result their experience has been unusually rich and varied This pioneering anthology traces the history of Canadian women in the Roman Catholic Anglican and Protestant traditions from the early days through the 1960s Seventeen Canadian scholars tell the stories of individuals who have worked in traditional and non traditional roles alone and as members of groups both within and outside church structures All of the articles present new or little known material relating the faith determination and inventiveness of women whose experience has so far been overlooked The volume includes an introductory overview of women s church work as well as a comprehensive bibliography of papers and books published about women in the Christian church in Canada both in English and French The incorporation of feminist analysis and an emphasis on gender issues set this collection apart from all other studies of Canadian church history A unique and valuable book it not only fills a void in the chronicles of religion it adds an important new dimension to Canadian history Canadian Baptist Women Sharon M.

Bowler,2016-09-14 The stories of the women have often stayed in the shadows of Canadian Baptist history The writers of this book have sought out neglected primary source materials to reveal the lives and work of an array of Baptist women in Canada s history Read here about the Acadian Mary Lore hungrily reading her French Bible and welcoming the message of Baptist missionaries in Lower Canada Jane Gilmour leaving her home in Britain to minister with her husband in Montreal and the wilds of Upper Canada a group of remarkable black Baptist women in southern Ontario in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Isabel Crawford from Niagara becoming an advocate for the Kiowa people of Oklahoma Miriam Ross from Nova Scotia ministering in the Congo Lois Tupper pioneer female Baptist theological educator and more generally the work of Baptist women in the Maritimes in the nineteenth century and western Canada in the first half of the twentieth century Empowered by their Baptist faith these Canadian women did remarkable things and their stories deserve to be told and read

Into Deep Waters Daniel Corey Goodwin,2010 How two generations of preachers and parishioners created and sustained a religious tradition Changing Women, Changing History Diana Lynn Pedersen,1996 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive

Baptists in Canada Gordon L. Heath,Dallas Friesen,Taylor Murray,2020-12-16 Baptists arrived in what would become Canada in the mid eighteenth century and from those early arrivals Baptists from a wide variety of backgrounds planted churches in every region of the vast nation This book traces that history of Baptists in Canada and provides historical antecedents and theological rationales for their church polity Written in a generous spirit it recognizes what Baptists share with other Christian communities and how they differ among themselves on some matters It places Baptists in Canada in the larger historical and global context and concludes with commentary on opportunities and challenges ahead Contribution
