Excerpt from Memoir of the Rev Pliny Fisk A M Late Missionary to Palestine

Some of the documents transmitted to this country by Mr Fisk have in part been published in religious periodicals particularly the Missionary Herald From these it has been necessary to make copious selections as well as from his private journal and correspondence The constant aim of the Compiler has been to make such a selection from the copious and valuable materials collected as will furnish a just exhibition of the life and character of this eminent Missionary and as may with a Divine blessing subserve the cause to which with untiring zeal and diligence he devoted his talents and sacrificed his life If this record of his religious exercises and benevolent works may but excite others to emulate his sterling virtues or inspire any one with the holy resolution to gird himself for the perils conflicts and sacrifices of the same self denying service the labor of preparing it for the press will not have been in vain That such may be the results this volume is respectfully committed to the Christian public and is commended with earnest prayer to the blessing of Almighty God
