Memoir Of A Modernists Daughter:

Memoir of a Modernist's Daughter Eleanor Munro, 1989 In this memoir the author describes her complex relationship with her dominant father who was a Modernist philosopher and teacher whose theories on child development and art predominated Woman's Art Journal, 1989 Naming the Father Eva Paulino Bueno, Terry Caesar, William Hummel, 2000-01-01 Naming the Father is a collection of essays on the subject of fatherhood its enduring power its secret ruses its unsettling provocations Despite the considerable critical attention devoted to motherhood in literature and despite the late twentieth century focus on patriarchy there is surprisingly no comparable collection on fatherhood This volume was born of the conclusion that critics of modern and contemporary literature may comprehend the father too little for presuming to have comprehended patriarchy so much Naming the Father begins with a series of nonfiction essays that attempts to locate the missing father in the individual experiences of three scholars at various stages of their careers The following thematically grouped sections recover and discuss fatherhood in fields ranging from Caribbean fiction to African American drama and in the work of authors as diverse as Rebecca West Anzia Yezierska William Burroughs and Stephen Wright as well as Henry James and James Joyce A variety of critical approaches from biographical to deconstructive activate and engage with the cultural national and global implications of fatherhood for the family and for the future of literary studies Scholars and students of contemporary literature cultural studies and gender studies will find this book a fascinating and invaluable collection High Doses of Wisdom, Low Doses of Advice Marian Chiesa, 2000 High Doses of Wisdom Low Doses of Advice calls attention to the practical skills that can sharpen our ability to make better decisions Embedded in these chapters is a sincere concern about salvaging relationships with others and with oneself In a writing style that is warm and infused with humor Dr Chiesa gently but firmly suggests ways to deal with the difficulties of life head on This is a wise book regarding the importance of solitude friendship marriage generosity and restorative action in these complex times It is a must for anyone who is longing for change in many aspects of their lives Historicizing Modernists Matthew Feldman, Anna Svendsen, Erik Tønning, 2021-06-17 Focussing upon both canonical figures such as Woolf Eliot Pound and Stein and emergent themes such as Christian modernism intermedial modernism queer Harlem Renaissance this volume brings together previously unseen materials from various archives to bear upon cutting edge interpretation of modernism It provides an overview of approaches to modernism via the employment of various types of primary source material correspondence manuscripts and drafts memoirs and production notes reading notes and marginalia and all manner of useful contextualising sources like news reports or judicial records While having much to say to literary criticism more broadly this volume is closely focused upon key modernist figures and emergent themes in light of the discipline's archival turn termed in a unifying introduction archivalism An essential ingredient separating the above recent tendency from a much older and better established new historicism in modernist studies at least is that the literary canon remains an important starting point

Whereas new historicism is interested in history as represented and recorded in written documents and tends toward a parallel study of literature and non literary texts archival criticism tends toward recognised oftentimes canonical or critically lauded writers presented in Part 1 Sidestepping the vicissitudes of canon formation manuscript scholars tend to gravitate toward leading modernist authors James Joyce Ezra Pound Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein T S Eliot and Samuel Beckett Part of the reason is obvious known authors frequently leave behind sizeable literary estates which are then acquired by research centres A second section then applies the same empirical methodology to key or emergent themes in the study of modernism including queer modernism spatial modernism little magazines and online finding aids structuring them and the role of faith and or emotions in the construction of modernism as we know it

Sylvia Townsend Warner Mary Butts and Virginia Woolf through the lens of material culture this text argues that women s imaginative work is inseparable from their ambivalent complicated relation to Britain s imperial history Modernist Commitments Jessica Berman,2012-01-03 Jessica Berman demonstrates how modernist narrative connects ethical attitudes and responsibilities to the active creation of political relationships and the way we imagine justice She challenges divisions between modernist and committed writing arguing that a continuum of political engagement undergirds modernisms worldwide and that it is strengthened rather than hindered by formal experimentation In addition to making the case for a transnational model of modernism Berman shows how modernism s play with formal matters its challenge to the boundaries between fact and fiction its incorporation of vernacular and folkways and its engagement with embodied experience and intimacy offer not only an expanded account of modernist texts and commitments but a new way of thinking about what modernism is and can do

Islands and the Modernists Jill Franks,2006-07-25 This study examines five modernists in different disciplines biology painting drama fiction and anthropology whose work on islands made them famous Charles Darwin challenged every presumption of popular science with his theory of evolution by natural selection derived from his study of the Galapagos Islands Paul Gauguin found on Tahiti inspiration enough to break through the inhibiting traditions of the Parisian art world John Millington Synge s experience on the Aran Islands off the coast of Ireland gave birth to a new style of drama that defied classic divisions between tragedy and comedy D H Lawrence s life long search for a utopian community culminated in his famous short story The Man Who Loved Islands that poignantly portrays the tension between idealism and realism solitude and human intimacy Finally Margaret Mead began her career in anthropology by studying the remote South Sea Islands and through her work acquired the sobriquet Mother of the World The text explores the extent to which islands inspired these radical thinkers to perform innovative work Each used islands differently but similar phenomena affected their choice of place and the outcome of their projects Their examples illuminate the relationship of modernism to alienation and insularity

dismissed American culture as nothing more than cowboy movies and the A bomb In response American cultural diplomats tried to show that the United States had something to offer beyond military might and commercial exploitation Through literary magazines traveling art exhibits touring musical shows radio programs book translations and conferences they deployed the revolutionary aesthetics of modernism to prove particularly to the leftists whose Cold War loyalties they hoped to secure that American art and literature were aesthetically rich and culturally significant Yet by repurposing modernism American diplomats and cultural authorities turned the avant garde into the establishment They remade the once revolutionary movement into a content free collection of artistic techniques and styles suitable for middlebrow consumption Cold War Modernists documents how the CIA the State Department and private cultural diplomats transformed modernist art and literature into pro Western propaganda during the first decade of the Cold War Drawing on interviews previously unknown archival materials and the stories of such figures and institutions as William Faulkner Stephen Spender Irving Kristol James Laughlin and Voice of America Barnhisel reveals how the U S government reconfigured modernism as a trans Atlantic movement a joint endeavor between American and European artists with profound implications for the art that followed and for the character of American identity

Katherine Mansfield and Periodical Culture Chris Mourant, 2018-11-23 This work considers Mansfield's ambivalent position as a colonial woman writer by examining her contributions to the political weekly The New Age the avant garde little magazine Rhythm and the literary journal The Athenaeum

Modernist Futures David James, 2012-08-27 This book examines what innovation means to novelists today by reading their work in dialogue with the modernist tradition

From That Place and Time: A Memoir, 1938-1947 Lucy S. Dawidowicz, 2019-08-17 In this memoir Lucy S Dawidowicz recounts her time in Vilna where she went to study in 1938-39 She also reconstructs the history of Vilna Jews through the centuries and gives a first hand account of Vilna's Jewish community right before its destruction by the Nazis Dawidowicz fled days before the German invasion of Poland and returned to the American zone in Germany in 1946-47 to help Jews in Displaced Persons camps with the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee It was in that role that Dawidowicz helped salvage remnants of YIVO's Vilna archives that were shipped to New York Dawidowicz a well known historian of the Jews has presented us a memoir on Vilna a city she left on Aug 24 1939 just before World War II began It is a tremendous collection of facts and names There are sketches depicting the everyday life of a thriving community and reflections upon its unique culture But the book is more than that it is a monument to the community destroyed not by forces of nature but by the evil human hand Tomas Venclova The New York Times In this deeply moving personal reminiscence eminent historian Dawidowicz recounts the year she spent in Vilna Poland in 1938-39 a poignant memoir Her piercingly eloquent narrative gives us a sharp first hand impression of a world in ruins and of the irreparable losses suffered by European Jewry Publishers Weekly The story of Dawidowicz's early years and a tribute to the Jewish community and culture of Vilna Crammed with descriptive details of a people and culture now destroyed and of WW II's chaotic aftermath chastening compelling powerful Kirkus Reviews A leading historian of the Holocaust Dawidowicz transports the reader from 1938 when she studied in Vilna Poland through 1946 when she returned to Europe to assist Jewish survivors This is a powerful and absorbing memoir Library Journal Lucy Dawidowicz's memoir comprises several books for the price of one it portrays Jewish Vilna as the plucky American student encountered it in 1938 describes the fate of Jewish cultural treasures as she helped recover them after the War and exposes the mind and spirit of an intrepid historian in the making Ruth R Wisse Harvard University Lucy Dawidowicz was an historian of monumental importance best known for her classic The War Against the Jews But she was also a vital chronicler of the world of European Jewry before its destruction A compelling memoir of Vilna on the brink of destruction Jonathan Rosen author of The Talmud and the Internet A Journey Between Worlds The Great War and the Language of Modernism Vincent Sherry, 2003-04-10 With the expressions Lost Generation and The Men of 1914 the major authors of modernism designated the overwhelming effect the First World War exerted on their era Literary critics have long employed the same phrases in an attempt to place a radically experimental specifically modernist writing in its formative historical setting What real basis did that Great War provide for the verbal inventiveness of modernist poetry and fiction Does the literature we bring under this heading respond directly to that provocation and if so what historical memories or revelations can be heard to stir in these words Vincent Sherry reopens these long unanswered questions by focusing attention on the public culture of the English war He reads the discourses through which the Liberal party constructed its cause its Great Campaign A breakdown in the established language of liberal modernity the idioms of public reason and civic rationality marked the sizable crisis this event represents in the mainstream traditions of post Reformation Europe If modernist writing characteristically attempts to challenge the standard values of Enlightenment rationalism this study recovers the historical cultural setting of its most substantial and daring opportunity And this moment was the occasion for great artistic innovations in the work of Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and Ezra Pound Combining the records of political journalism and popular intellectual culture with abundant visual illustration Vincent Sherry provides the framework for new interpretations of the major texts of Woolf Eliot and Pound With its relocation of the verbal imagination of modernism in the context of the English war The Great War and the Language of Modernism restores the historical content and depth of this literature revealing its most daunting import Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement Jody Cardinal, Deirdre E. Egan-Ryan, Julia Lisella, 2019-03-15 Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement explores the role of social and political engagement by women writers in the development of American modernism Examining a diverse array of genres by both canonical modernists and underrepresented writers this collection uncovers an obscured strain of modernist activism Each chapter provides a detailed cultural and literary analysis revealing the ways in which modernists politically and socially engaged interventions shaped their writing Considering issues such as working class women's advocacy educational reform political radicalism and the global implications for American literary production this book examines the complexity of the relationship between creating art and fostering social change Ultimately this collection redefines the parameters of modernism while also broadening the conception of social engagement to include both readily acknowledged social movements as well as less recognizable forms of advocacy for social change

Key Concepts in Modernist Literature Julian Hanna, Martin Coyle, 2008-11-24 Introducing the dynamic study of a literary period stretching from 1900 to the Second World War the book reflects the exciting mix of European avant garde writers of the Harlem Renaissance and regional voices within Britain Three distinct sections explore the major concepts themes and issues that characterise the literature

Of Love and Other Sorrows Ashok Chopra, 2016-02-15 Reports announcing the death of the book are now rife but the continued relevance of the ten master writers discussed in this volume is proof to the contrary Here we come across the dissident Czech writer Vclav Havel who later became the nation's president the South African Nobel Laureate Nadine Gordimer with her pronounced anti-apartheid novels the Chilean American Isabel Allende the world's most widely read Spanish author and Günter Grass hailed as the literary spokesman of his generation We also meet Graham Greene and Milan Kundera alongside the Egyptian Naguib Mahfouz who in his quiet way ridiculed Islamic fundamentalism The book is rounded off with three remarkable Latin

American writers Pablo Neruda Octavio Paz and Gabriel García Márquez Of Love and Other Sorrows takes the reader on a fascinating journey in the company of some of the biggest names in modern literature This illuminating study of their lives and works will seduce readers to rediscover these masters for themselves

The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Caroline Dodd, 1992 In The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Dodd explores the lives and work of four women poets of the twentieth century H.D., Louise Bogan, Elizabeth Bishop and Louise Gluck Dodd argues that sexist and male dominated cultural forces in their personal and professional lives challenged these women to find a unique mode of expression in their poetry a practice Dodd defines as personal classicism Dodd uses the term personal classicism to examine modern and contemporary poetry that appears torn between two major modes of poetic sensibility the Romantic and the Classical While the four poets she addresses exhibit a poetic sensibility that is primarily Romantic valuing Wordsworth's spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings adopting a natural spoken tone and relying on personal subject matter they have nonetheless employed masking and controlling strategies that are more nearly Classical Combining feminist theory and biographical studies with close readings of individual poems Dodd moves historically from H.D. one of the best known Imagists through the Confessional movement to the major contemporary poet Louise Gluck In the final chapter Dodd brings us to the present where she finds women writers still struggling with the recent Confessional legacy of such highly anthologized poets as Anne Sexton and Sylvia Plath The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet combines thoughtful consideration of both formal and theoretical issues in a graceful prose that reaffirms poetry as an art vitally connected to life It will be of significant interest to students of modern and contemporary poetry as well as to those concerned with women's studies Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. Official Voices: Poets and the Irish State Karl O'Hanlon, 2025-03-21 Official Voices: Poets and the Irish State examines the poet-politicians and bureaucrats who shaped the twenty-six county Irish state from its pre-history in the revolutionary period through its foundation in 1922 and complicated modernisation in the 1960s to the outbreak of the Troubles. Poet-officials juggled writing the state and navigating the force field between poetry and politics, with poetic form registering the aftershocks of this collusive antagonism. Combining political history, cultural history, and literary criticism, the book grapples with major issues in the state's history: revolution, state violence, insurgency against the state, patriarchy, partition, modernisation, as well as socialist and feminist alternatives to conservative nationalism. Poets examined in the book include W.B. Yeats, Ezra Pound, Desmond Fitzgerald, Denis Devlin, Joseph Campbell, Valentin Iremonger, Eithne Strong, Maire Mhac an tSaoi, and Thomas Kinsella. It draws on new archival work in state archives and literary collections and situates the Irish state and Irish poetry within a transnational frame. Taking up the relationship of poetry to politics and poet-officials to state governance, it tackles a perennial question: what did poetry make happen and not happen in the twenty-six counties? This book is about acknowledged legislators, poetry's formal vigilance, and how poets apprehended consciously and unconsciously the recalcitrant workings of power.
