Memoir of the Bobotes Joyce Cary, 1964 Memoir of the Bobotes Joyce Lunel Cary, 1964 Memoir of the Bobotes Arthur Joyce Lunel Cary, 1969 Memoir of the Bobotes. (Published as a Supplement to the Texas Quarterly, Vol. 3, No. 1.) Illustrations by the Author. Introductory Note by James B. Meriwether. [With Maps.] Joyce Cary, 1960 Memoir of the Bobotes Joyce Cary, 1960 Memoir of the Bobotes, foreword by W. Allen Joyce Cary, Memoir of the Bobotes. Illus. by the Author. Foreword by Walter Allen Joyce Cary, 1964 Memoir of the Bobotes. Illus. by the Author. Introductory Note by James B. Meriwether Joyce Cary, The Joseph M. Bruccoli Great War Collection at the University of South Carolina Elizabeth A. Sudduth, 2005 Bruccoli Great War Collection at the University of South Carolina An Illustrated Catalogue provides a reference tool for the study of one of the great watershed moments in history on both sides of the Atlantic serving historians researchers and collectors Recounting Cultural Encounters Marija Knežević, 2009-10-02 Contributions reprinted in this book highlight some of the wide ranging ways in which the issues of culture and identity can be approached in a literary text while focusing on the ways in which cultural encounters have been changing both the world and its reflection in literature The beginning of the twenty first century is an appropriate time to repay careful attention to these issues Understanding how our perception of the Other changes with the concept of the world we inhabit we want to emphasize the rising importance of fostering cultural pluralism and global understanding Having based their research on widespread readings in academia such as deconstruction post colonialism post modernism new historicism and narratology the authors of these papers proceed by addressing the metaphor of travel as one of the strongest metaphors for the evolution of mankind especially if considered under the light of the historically and politically imposed opposition between the progressive western and the static eastern or African societies However as the end of the imperialist era brought about poignant awareness of cultural relativism as well as deconstruction of the great narrative of progress facing the Other as an unconceptualized entity became a major moral concern of a modern traveller It is pronounced that this concern should be textually testified to dramatize the human inability to avoid verbal appropriation of the other The final question we seek to answer is whether the era of advanced technology and globalisation along with a post modern ironical attitude to hyper realities and textual transparencies has rendered the sphere of the text the only available point of concern of contemporary literature and thought in general For its argumentation strongly founded in recent literary studies and humanities in general its interdisciplinary nature and its focus on the actual global problems of abrupt cultural change and exchange its heightened understanding of the necessity of coexistence of differences in a changing world its spirit of tolerance and its international spirit in general we assume this collection will not only attract academic literary scholars but will also appeal to the general reading public The Balkans in Travel Writing Marija Knežević, 2015-09-18 This book revisits images of the Balkans in twentieth century travel writing that vividly mirrors the turbulent changes that the region went through As such it provides a vital basis for research into the variety of possibilities or obstacles present on the region's path to accession when its unique heritage will have to be reconciled with a more European identity This volume explores the work of well known authors such as Rebecca West Paul Theroux Robert D Kaplan and also contributes to travel writing theory by addressing less known travellers who recorded their thoughts on the social dynamics of the region The corpus offers divergent and often contradictory views ranging from moral and political criticism to a delight in the rich heritage and the still undiscovered Balkan paths More importantly its generic potentials prove to overcome both the discourse of power and the discourse of apology Its narrative style also comprises striking variations from the objective and well researched approaches to quick impressionist sketches Being a multi generic form travel writing is observed from a multidisciplinary perspective encompassing fields such as literature linguistics history sociology anthropology ethnology political sciences and geography

Realm of the Black Mountain Elizabeth Roberts, 2024-10-24 Montenegro was admitted to the UN as its 192nd member in June 2006 thus recovering the independence it had lost nearly ninety years earlier at the Versailles Peace Conference This is the first full length history of the country in English for a century tracing the history of the tiny Balkan state from its earliest roots in the medieval empire of Zeta through its consistently ambiguous and frequently problematic relationship with its larger neighbour Serbia the emergence of a priest warrior ruler in the shape of the Vladika and its emergence from Ottoman suzerainty at the Congress of Berlin In more recent history the book focuses on Montenegro's troubled twentieth century its prominent role in the Balkan wars its unique deletion from world maps as an independent state despite being on the winning side in the Great War its ignominious role in the wars leading to the disintegration of Yugoslavia and its final reemergence as a member of the international community on the anniversary of the Battle of Kosovo in 2006 Since independence Montenegro has grappled with the question of Euro Atlantic integration including membership of NATO achieved and the EU applicant Even as it has fought to define its identity it has gone from being one of the poorest nations in the Western Balkans to having the highest per capita income of the region It successfully navigated democratic transition in 2020

Irish Literature in Transition, 1940-1980: Volume 5 Eve Patten, 2020-03-12 This volume explores the history of Irish writing between the Second World War or the Emergency in 1939 and the re emergence of violence in Northern Ireland in the 1970s It situates modern Irish writing within the contexts of cultural transition and transnational connection often challenging pre existing perceptions of Irish literature in this period as stagnant and mundane While taking into account the grip of Irish censorship and cultural nationalism during the mid twentieth century these essays identify an Irish literary culture stimulated by international political horizons and fully responsive to changes in publishing readership and education The book combines valuable cultural surveys with focussed discussions of key literary moments and of individual authors such as Seán O Faoláin Samuel Beckett Edna O'Brien and John McGahern

Images of Montenegro in Anglo-American Creative Writing and Film Neil Diamond, Marija Knežević, 2017-01-06 This book observes images of

Montenegro in Anglo American creative writing and films from the late eighteenth century until 2016 Like the Balkans as a whole Montenegro usually reappeared in the West's consciousness with the outbreak of wars but remained marginalized on the larger Balkan map because of its peripheral political influence and therefore remained little known In the past Montenegro was experienced as almost unapproachable barren and wild Its people like their mountains were seen as massive and fierce while their primitivism equally delighted and repulsed visitors Even today when one searches the Internet for Montenegro one finds titles mostly containing modifiers circling around undiscovered magical and mysterious The book follows these vignettes chronologically to point out how the rhetoric they share dangerously builds a caricature of the country However they also provide a very lively mosaic of landscapes history people their costumes houses and everyday life which are sometimes distorted No one can claim that these descriptions were not influenced by the ideologies the travellers inherited at home and were not filtered through their own cultural grids but significantly they evoke places that are now forever lost destroyed in wars by earthquakes faulty development planning or simply by time

Resistance Shane Moran, 2021-04-19 In Resistance Sol Plaatje and South Africa Shane Moran studies Sol Plaatje the founding secretary of what was to become the African National Congress ANC and his work within the context of colonial politics and resistance Arguing for a return to the study of one of the founders of anti racism Moran explores issues of land reform human rights and the legacy of colonialism Through an in depth analysis of Plaatje's resistance to racial domination Moran examines the nature of the struggles that continue within and beyond South Africa today In particular Moran analyzes events from the beginning of the previous century that shaped post 1994 South Africa such as the resolution of the ANC to expropriate land without compensation

Image_Identity_Reality Biljana Đorić-Francuski, 2011-05-25 This book is a result of the international conference English Language and Literature Studies Image Identity Reality ELLSIIR held at the English Department of the Belgrade Faculty of Philology to mark its 80th Anniversary The conference covered a wide range of topics from extremely diverse fields namely theoretical linguistics applied language studies literature and cultural studies This book comprises papers covering all of these areas divided into three sections according to the shared topic Image Identity and Reality Owing to its interdisciplinarity its argumentative and theoretically founded wealth of knowledge and the outstandingly interesting topics the book will be very useful for academic study and a valuable resource in understanding the range of subjects covered in its three chapters not only to experts interested in scholarly research but also to the general public as a reliable and trustworthy source of information

The Balkan Wars in the Eyes of the Warring Parties Igor Despot, 2012 In the fall of 1912 the Ottoman Empire was in turmoil In addition to the Albanian and the Yemen rebellions the Empire was at war with Italy over the Libyan territory Worse yet cholera was spreading throughout the country leaving a decimated population in its wake In its weakness the Ottoman Empire was ripe to be attacked and the Balkan countries did so On October 8 1912 Montenegro declared war on the Ottoman Empire beginning the first of the Balkan Wars Embracing maturity and setting their differences aside four nations joined together to form the Balkan League Serbia Greece Montenegro and Bulgaria Despite the tremendous land victory celebrated by the Balkan League disputes over dividing the won territory soon arose Dissatisfied with its share of the Macedonia Bulgaria attacked its former allies Serbia and Greece On August 10 1913 the Treaty of Bucharest ended the second conflict but it did not bring the peace In the First World War which was initiated by Sarajevo assassination Balkan again became theater of the war The Balkan wars have been a popular topic for scholarly research since their resolution Despite the attention this topic has received however the research is far from complete In this study contributing to the documentation and understanding of this conflict author Igor Despot has not only reviews the events of the wars but also considers these events in light of pertinent cultural aspects identifying the commonalities and differences that may have determined alliances or sparked conflict throughout Balkan history

The Falcon and the Eagle John D. Treadway,1998 Treadway s work is the first comprehensive study of Montenegro s relations with her Great Power neighbors on the eve of World War I An excellent contribution Eastern European Quarterly
