The European Jews, Patriotism and the Liberal State, 1789-1939 David

Aberbach, 2013 The fragility of the liberal democratic state after 1789 is illustrated in the history of the European Jews from the French Revolution to the Holocaust Emancipation and hope of emancipation amongst the European Jewish population created a plethora of Jewish identities and forms of patriotism This book takes the original approach of studying European Jewish patriotism as a whole with particular attention given to creative literature Despite their growing awareness of racial genocidal hatred most European Jews between 1789 and 1939 tended to be patriotic toward the countries of their citizenship an attitude reflected in the literature of the time Yet the common assumption among emancipated Jews that anti-Semitism would fade in a world governed by reason proved false For millions of European Jews the infinite possibilities they associated with emancipation came to nothing The Jewish experience exposed many of the weaknesses and failings of the liberal multicultural state and demonstrated that its survival cannot be taken for granted but is dependent on vigilance and struggle By focusing on Jewish patriotism from 1789 1939 this book explores the nature of the liberal state how it can fail and the conditions needed for its survival

Mass Culture and Italian Society from Fascism to the Cold War David A.

Forgacs, Stephen Gundle, 2007 From the 1930s to the 50s in Italy commercial cultural products were transformed by new reproductive technologies and ways of marketing and distribution and the appetite for radio films music and magazines boomed This book uses new evidence to explore possible continuities between the uses of mass culture before and after

World War II Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence

Mussolini Richard J. B. Bosworth, 2014-03-04 In 1945 disguised in German greatcoat and helmet Mussolini attempted to escape from the advancing Allied armies Unfortunately for him the convoy of which he was part was stopped by partisans and his features made so familiar by Fascist propaganda gave him away Within 24 hours he was executed by his captors joining those he sent early to their graves as an outcome of his tyranny at least one million people He was one of the tyrant killers who so scarred interwar

Europe but we cannot properly understand him or his regime by any simple equation with Hitler or Stalin Like them his life began modestly in the provinces unlike them he maintained a traditional male family life including both wife and mistresses and sought in his way to be an intellectual He was cruel though not the cruellest his racism existed but never without the consistency and vigor that would have made him a good recruit for the SS He sought an empire but in the most part his was of the old fashioned costly nineteenth century variety not a racial or ideological imperium And self evidently Italian society was not German or Russian the particular patterns of that society shaped his dictatorship Bosworth's Mussolini allows us to come closer than ever before to an appreciation of the life and actions of the man and of the political world and society within which he operated With extraordinary skill and vividness drawing on a huge range of sources this biography paints a picture of brutality and failure yet one tempered with an understanding of Mussolini as a human being not so different from many of his contemporaries The definitive study of the Italian dictator Library Journal Italy Lucio Sponza, Diego Zancani, 1995 Italy has transformed itself in the last fifty years changing from a rural society into one of the seven wealthiest nations in the world This is despite the fact that Italy has had to cope with many apparent contradictions such as the twin influences of the Roman Catholic Church and the most powerful Communist Party in the West Mussolini R.
