Book One: Sporadic Memories Ali Marsman, 2019-01-11 Sporadic Memories is a novel about a lifestyle that needs to be read about Within the first few pages you will realize there has been a loss it is not sad though the narrator expresses with great enthusiasm the life they lived which makes it nice during the times when it becomes difficult to read By the first few pages I hope you can hear the narrator has been alive for a long time explaining the way it is written There is no distinction between the characters genders which offers a personal experience for the reader The part that remembers the time they gave bracelets to each other brings about another way of joining together in marriage following how their courtship developed and the apple tree that is depicted throughout the novel using its fruit in traditional family recipes It gets sad for a bit after this but notice that it gets sad because there is so much more to why the one lost is worth writing about It is partly a love story You know for sure it is when you get to the parts about the piano played and songs written you should at first read to the first song The memory at the exhibition and recalling times in the rain and snow are next They traveled a lot together and you will read of a place if you read a little past the description of the surroundings of their home If you read to the first birthday mentioned you will find a recipe worth trying a poem worth reading and fireworks The narrator is a playwright so there is a play that is broken down throughout the novel it is a difficult read but it is important in showing how the two brought their work together and what positive influences they made upon those they met Things are repeated to show how important positive repetition is which helps to move past pain while remembering the passion This novel is full of passion carried throughout the life they had for each other their work and their friends you might want to read through first until you hear about their friends This novel completes the story as the pages turn putting certain pages together will bring the memories in order It is an easy read It is written poetically which gives it justice It begins the way it ends Sporadic Memories is a novel about a lifestyle that needs to be read about Memories with Recipes Ruth VanDyke,2018-03-07 From the rough and tough mining town of Butte Montana in the 1940s to the present time this captivating narrative of travel and cooking will motivate you not only to see the world but also to sample the local cuisine wherever you may roam Venture through the 1950s 60s and 70s experiencing natural disasters heartbreak and hilarious encounters Reminisce about Grandmas pork gravy and Christmas surprises Why not try some fried frogs legs or Rocky Mountain oysters Sixty years of laughter and tears good food and amazing friends will captivate readers from page 6 to 106 Running with God an Autobiography by Patrick Diccico Patrick R. DiCicco,2010-12-14 This is a spiritual journey that travelled through the mean streets of Youngstown Ohio to the calmer countrysides of California It is a story of overcoming adversity and having a burning desire to succeed all the while trusting and believing in God Pat DiCicco was born at an Army Base in Monterrey California at the end of World War II and was subsequently raised dysfunctionally in Youngstown Ohio While a teenager he experienced a fore telling dream which dramatically altered the way he lived and yet another vivid dream which released him from the bonds of death Throughout his journey he survived numerous accidents and turns in his life that led him to believe his journey was a spiritual one a journey greater than merely existing Come with us now as we walk the tightrope we call life and swim in the ever changing times Read and see if you can identify with Pats experiences his life changing events and the way they changed his life and hopefully those around him Memoirs of Mrs. Seacole Mary Seacole,2023-11-15 In Memoirs of Mrs Seacole Mary Seacole presents a compelling narrative that captures her extraordinary experiences as a Black woman in the 19th century Written in a conversational and candid style her memoir intertwines captivating anecdotes with insights into the socio political landscape of the time notably during the Crimean War Seacole s literary approach transcends mere autobiography it is a rich tapestry of personal resilience professional dedication and cultural pride reflecting both the prejudices she faced and the indomitable spirit that propelled her to serve as a nurse and caregiver on the front lines Her vivid descriptions and engaging storytelling offer a rare glimpse into the often overlooked contributions of women of color in medical and military domains Mary Seacole was a pioneering Jamaican nurse and businesswoman whose background and lifelong experiences influenced her profound commitment to medicine and care Born to a Scottish father and a Creole mother her early exposure to herbal medicine and caregiving shaped her path After facing racial discrimination in Britain she decided to travel to Crimea where she established a hotel for wounded soldiers and utilized her nursing skills to care for them defying the social norms of her time This memoir is highly recommended for readers interested in history gender studies and postcolonial literature Seacole's voice often muted in traditional historical narratives provides invaluable insights into the intersection of race gender and profession Her courageous story is not merely a testament to her personal strength but serves as an essential counter narrative to the prevailing historical accounts of her era
