Memoirs Of A Judge:

BOLD DECISIONS Sandra Chapnik, 2023-02-14 At twenty one she married her soulmate By thirty she had four children By forty she was a practising lawyer At fifty she was appointed a Superior Court Judge a position she occupied for over twenty four years BOLD DECISIONS is a story of how the author used those roles to champion the disabled and the underdog in a world much in need of a kindred spirit In clear compelling language Honourable Sandra Chapnik tells you how she overcame her fears and disappointments to live her purpose over a lifetime In relating her intriguing experiences as a judge lawyer teacher and working mom she answers the recurring questions how did you balance your interests and priorities Why did you choose law What hurdles did you face Chapnik also speaks to the universal balancing act endured by working mothers who have growing children and grandchildren and the need to practice unconditional love It is a story of self learning where in the process of helping others to believe in themselves the author comes to believe in herself Her insight and her passionate love story over 60 years resonates through the ages and is told with a warm and endearing sense of humor As a judge Chapnik wrote over 600 reported decisions prompting a Supreme Court of Canada judge to describe her judgments as superb beautifully written and filled with common sense and good judgment Her description of some of her court cases will make you laugh and sometimes cry In joining the author on her journey through the generations the reader will obtain a personal first hand behind the scenes view of the challenges facing judges lawyers teachers and working moms in this increasingly complex and chaotic world

My Memoirs Judge Alphonso A. Christian, 2023-04-28 Many may think that 1917 and 2017 do not have much in common Though times have changed what is essential often stays the same These memoirs are a thrilling narrative of Alphonso A Christian I a barefoot boy in the most remote and undeveloped district of the United States Virgin Islands He never had the opportunity to attend a university He defied the odds to rise to be a judge a commissioner and an executive secretary of the Virgin Islands Legislature one of the most influential United States Virgin Islands legislature positions Alphonso A Christian I is one of the very few who served in all three branches of government A Renaissance man an autodidact polymath he taught himself three languages never forgetting to stand grounded in family by caring for his wife and six children Chapter after chapter allows Alphonso through his life experiences to tell a local story affected to its core by national and at times international life changing events He catches your attention Judge Alphonso A Christian I s vignettes of his early childhood in Frederiksted Saint Croix his relocation to Charlotte Amalie Saint Thomas his job experiences his family life and his public life for seventy five 75 of his almost ninety 90 years of existence on this earth is actual proof that every obstacle has an opportunity built in Some walls do not need to be torn down They need to be demolished to see the opening on the other side Without the obstacles and the walls he encountered he would not have realized the inner strength he so vividly describes and the determination to be true to himself Regardless of age race nationality socioeconomic status or geographic location every reader will be enlightened by Judge Christian s memoirs It is a

Voice is Ever Wholly Lost Louise Kaplan, 1996-04-17 In this brilliant and inspirational book Louise Kaplan draws on her own experience as a psychoanalyst as well as on art literature and recent history to illuminate the psychological forces that sustain the dialogue between parents and children even after death This dialogue the heartbeat of human existence begins with an exchange of gestures between parent and infant Through these intimacies of everyday life the parent transmits to the child the emotional language of his species and eventually the verbal language and symbolic communication that enable the child to participate in human culture Once having entered into the human dialogue we cannot live without it The dialogue continues even after death Using a wide variety of examples from the child suffering brief separation anxiety to children of Holocaust victims to parents coping with the lifelong grief of losing a child Dr Kaplan demonstrates how to keep the voices of lost loved ones eternally alive
