Memoirs Of A Philosopher:

Memoirs of a Philosopher Frederick Charles Copleston, 1993-06 Copleston's childhood conversion to Catholicism and life in the Church for most of this century are recounted An eventful life of a significant scholar Part of My Life Alfred Jules Ayer, 1977-01-01 Between Two Worlds Mario Bunge, 2016-04-29 To go through the pages of the Autobiography of Mario Bunge is to accompany him through dozens of countries and examine the intellectual political philosophical and scientific spheres of the last hundred years It is an experience that oscillates between two different worlds the different and the similar the professional and the personal It is an established fact that one of his great loves was and still is science He has always been dedicated to scientific work teaching research and training men and women in multiple disciplines Life lessons fall like ripe fruit from this book bringing us closer to a concept a philosophical idea a scientific digression which had since been uncovered in numerous notes articles or books Bunge writes about the life experiences in this book with passion naturalness and with a colloquial frankness whether they be persecutions banishment imprisonment successes would be losses emotions relationships debates impressions or opinions about people or things In his pages we pass by the people with whom he shared a fruitful century of achievements and incredible depths of thought Everything is remembered with sincerity and humor This autobiography is in truth Bunge on Bunge sharing everything that passes through the sieve of his memory as he would say Mario's many grandchildren are a testament to his proud standing as a family man and at the age of 96 he gives us a book for everyone for those who value the memories that hold the trauma of his life as well as for those who share his passion for science and culture Also perhaps for some with whom he has had disagreements or controversy for he still deserves recognition for being a staunch defender of his convictions Memoirs of Modern Philosophers ... Fourth edition Elizabeth Hamilton, 1804 Memoirs of the Life of Voltaire Voltaire, 1784 How I Arrived at This Conclusion Charles Renouvier, 2011-06 Charles Renouvier 1815 1903 is properly regarded as one of France's greatest philosophers of the nineteenth century and an important figure in the modern history of French politics and education Not only is this memoir Comment je suis arrive a cette conclusion the first work by Renouvier to be translated into English but as Renouvier claimed for it the first published philosophical memoir tracing the development of a philosopher's mature philosophical position In critically distinguishing his views from those of the major philosophers including those of Immanuel Kant he has written a most useful ancillary text for the study of modern western philosophy More both as a philosopher and a man Renouvier influenced the work of the American psychologist and philosopher William James who regarded him as a mentor Among others influenced by Renouvier was the French sociologist Emile Durkheim the American philosopher Charles Sanders Pierce the German philosopher Karl Marx the French philosopher Octave Hamlin the French poet and novelist Victor Hugo and the French novelist and critic Julien Benda The most recent attempts to replace philosophical as well as religious explanations of the origins and existence of the universe with purely scientific ones should heighten the interest in Renouvier

s memoir For while he attempts a purely scientific explanation he arrives at startlingly different conclusions Bernard J Looks holds a Ph D in modern European History from Columbia University He has published Triumph Through Adversity a memoir of the life and work of Martin S Dworkin a book of Dworkin s poetry entitled Unfinished Ruins and articles on education and film criticism The Philosopher's Autobiography Shlomit C. Schuster, 2003-01-30 Throughout the ages philosophers have examined their own lives in an attempt both to find some meaning and to explain the roots of their philosophical perspectives This volume is an introduction to philosophical autobiography a rich but hitherto ignored literary genre that questions the self its social context and existence in general The author analyzes representative narratives from antiquity to postmodernity focusing in particular on three case studies the autobiographies of St Augustine Rousseau and Sartre Through the study of these exemplary texts philosophical reflection on the self emerges as a valid alternative to Freudian psychoanalysis and as a way of promoting self renewal and change Behold The Philosopher Richard Schain, 2007-09 Behold The Philosopher presents the development of the author as a philosopher beginning with his childhood in New York City through his introduction to philosophy at New York University then his subsequent training as a research neurologist at Yale and finally culminating in his departure from medical academia and embarkation into the life of an independent philosopher totally apart from the conventions of academic philosophy The epochs in one s life as Henry David Thoreau once wrote are one s thoughts the author s thoughts form the central focus of his writings which are reviewed in this philosophical autobiography There is a clear metaphysical orientation throughout as opposed to the analytic and scholarly approach of most contemporary university philosophers An interview with the author published in the literary magazine The Die is reproduced in full The epilogue entitled The Last Infirmary of the Noble Mind summarizes the author s views on philosophy and the philosophic life The very essence of philosophy is the discovery of the metaphysical mind When a philosopher abandons this search for a tenuous membership in the institutions of science and takes on the habits accompanying them he has abandoned his high calling in the cosmos He has traded in the philosopher s venerable himation for the dubious white coat of science Memoirs of the Literary and Philosophical Society of Manchester Literary and Philosophical Society of Manchester, 1846 Memoirs of the Literary and Philosophical Society of Manchester, Vol. 2 (Classic Reprint) Literary and Philosophical S.  Martin, 2016-02-10 Memoir Ethics Good Lives and the Virtues is a philosophical study of moral themes in memoirs exploring how memoirists present and defend perspectives on good lives It pays particular attention to the interplay of the virtues including their interplay with additional non moral types of values in good lives More generally it explores the relevance of memoir to moral philosophy and in turn how moral philosophy enters into elucidating and critiquing memoirs Memoirs are understood as non fiction narratives written by oneself and significantly about oneself including full life autobiographies Mike W Martin explores perspectives on good lives as they are expressed in memoirs written by both philosophers and non philosophers Most of the chapters focus on one of the generic aspects of good lives moral goodness authenticity meaningfulness happiness health and self fulfillment The book clarifies how memoirists often employ life based arguments in defending value perspectives and it includes a discussion of whether philosophers memoirs are distinctive compared to memoirs by non philosophers and also compared to other forums for doing philosophy Martin highlights some parallels between features of good lives and features of memoirs for example both can be said to be meaningful authentic and having virtues such as wisdom and courage Demonstrating how memoirs are rich resources in exploring the good lives and exploring ways in which philosophical ethics provide tools for interpreting memoirs Memoir Ethics will be of interest to a broad audience of students scholars and general readers including anyone interested in ethics or the connections between literature and philosophy Memoirs and Proceedings of the Manchester Literary & Philosophical Society.
