O'Connor ... Thomas Power O'Connor, 1929 Memoirs of an Old Parliamentarian. [With Plates, Including Portraits.] Thomas Power O'CONNOR (Rt. Hon.), 1929 Memoirs of an old parliamentarian, vol.1, by t.p. o'connor T. p O'connor, 1929 Radical Journalist Alfred F. Havighurst, 1974-09-05. The first study of the career of H W Massingham, an outstanding journalist early in the twentieth century when editors were often ranked equal in significance with ministers of state. Massingham featured most significantly in the history of the press as editor of the Star, the Daily Chronicle, and finally the Nation. Professor Havighurst demonstrates Massingham's central position by arguing that he played a more important role in the formation of progressivism in the period 1888-92 than even the Fabian Society. Massingham's clash with the Fabians is examined along with his gradual disillusionment with Rosebery, his influence upon important questions of public opinion, his connection and his subsequent contact with Ramsay MacDonald. The influence of journalists is frequently alleged but is often unproved; this biography provides a detailed assessment of the impact of a major journalist and is a complete and fascinating account of an extremely important political figure. It will appeal to specialists in political and social history and the history of journalism. The Illustrated London News, 1929 A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte, 2018-03-01. A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self-representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty-first century. The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages. Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland, the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography, a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters, diaries, and online journals. This ambitious book is rich in insight. Chapters are structured around key subgenres, themes, texts, and practitioners, each featuring a guide to recommended further reading. The volume's extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published Book Bulletin of the Chicago Public Library Chicago Public Library, 1928 Staging

Authority Eva Giloi, Martin Kohlrausch, Heikki Lempa, Heidi Mehrkens, Philipp Nielsen, Kevin Rogan, 2022-10-24 Staging Authority Presentation and Power in Nineteenth Century Europe is a comprehensive handbook on how the presentation embodiment and performance of authority changed in the long nineteenth century It focuses on the diversification of authority what new forms and expressions of authority arose in that critical century how traditional authority figures responded and adapted to those changes and how the public increasingly participated in constructing and validating authority It pays particular attention to how spaces were transformed to offer new possibilities for the presentation of authority and how the mediatization of presence affected traditional authority The handbook's fourteen chapters draw on innovative methodologies in cultural history and the aligned fields of the history of emotions urban geography persona studies gender studies media studies and sound studies Aesop's Mirror Maryalice Huggins, 2025-06-25 Everything I needed to know about Fox and Grapes mirror I knew the moment I first saw it What antiques restorer Maryalice Huggins knew when she stumbled across the mirror at a country auction in Rhode Island was this She was besotted Rococo and huge more than eight feet tall the mirror was one of the most unusual objects she had ever seen Huggins had to have it The frame's elaborate carvings were almost identical to a famous eighteenth century design Could this be eighteenth century American That would make it rare indeed But in the rarefied world of American antiques an object is not significant unless you can prove where it's from Huggins set out to trace the origins of her magnificent mirror Fueled with the delightfully obsessive spirit of Susan Orlean's The Orchid Thief Aesop's Mirror follows Huggins on her quest as she goes up against the leading lights of the very male world of high end antiques and dives into the historical archives And oh what she finds there The mirror was likely passed down through generations of the illustrious Brown family of Providence Rhode Island Throughout history mirrors have been seen as having mystical powers enabling those who peer into them to connect the past and the future In Aesop's Mirror Maryalice Huggins does just that creating a marvelous one of kind book about a marvelous one of a kind American treasure Writers, Readers, and Reputations Philip Waller, 2008 Philip Waller explores the literary world in which the modern best seller first emerged with writers promoted as stars and celebrities advertising both products and themselves Among Our Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1929 The Byrnes and the O'Byrnes Daniel Byrne-Rothwell, 2010 Quarterly Bulletin of the Port Elizabeth Public Library Port Elizabeth (South Africa). Public Library, 1923 Lancashire and the New Liberalism P. F. Clarke, 2007-03-26 Why was there a Liberal Government in Britain from 1905 until the First World War And why was the Liberal party replaced by the Labour party so shortly afterwards These are the kinds of problems which Dr Clarke examines in his study of the Liberal revival in Lancashire The vote in north west England was largely responsible for bringing the Liberal Government into power and for maintaining its position but it also produced almost half the new Labour MP s in 1906 Thus any satisfactory interpretation of electoral history in the early twentieth century must account for what happened in Lancashire This book calls into question many of the conventional assumptions about British politics in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Cosmopolitan Nationalism in the Victorian Empire J. Regan-Lefebvre, 2009-08-14 The first biography of Alfred Webb Irish nationalist and president of the 1894 Indian National Congress The biography explores how Webb viewed nationalism as a vehicle for global social justice Drawing on archives in Britain Ireland and India the author reveals how Irish and Indians used cosmopolitan London to create networks across the Empire Ancestral Voices in Irish Politics Paul Bew, 2023 The story of Charles Stewart Parnell one of the greatest Irish leaders of the nineteenth century and also one of the most renowned figures of the 1880s on the international stage and John Dillon the most celebrated of Parnell s lieutenants As Paul Bew shows the differences between the two men reflect both Ireland s past and its future The story of Charles Stewart Parnell one of the greatest Irish leaders of the nineteenth century and also one of the most renowned figures of the 1880s on the international stage and John Dillon the most celebrated but also the most neglected of Parnell s lieutenants As Paul Bew shows the differences between the two men reflect both Ireland s past and its future Every time the principle of consent for a united Ireland is discussed today we can perceive the legacy of both men Even more profoundly that legacy can be seen when Irish nationalism tries to transcend a tribalist outlook based on the historic Catholic nation even when the country is no longer so very Catholic Library Record Free Public Library of Jersey City, 1928
