Quest for a Christian America, 1800-1865 David Edwin Harrell,2003-09-29 The definitive social history of the Disciples of Christ in the 19th century The Disciples of Christ led by reformers such as Alexander Campbell and Barton W Stone was one of a number of early 19th century primitivist religious movements seeking to restore the ancient order of things The Disciples movement was little more than a loose collection of independent congregations until the middle of the 19th century but by 1900 three clear groupings of churches had appeared Today more than 5 million Americans members of the modern day Disciples of Christ Christian Church Independent Christian Churches and Churches of Christ among others trace their religious heritage to this Restoration Movement

Biography by Americans, 1658-1936 Edward H. O'Neill,2016-11-11 This volume is the most comprehensive bibliography of purely biographical material written by Americans It covers every possible field of life but by design excludes autobiographies diaries and journals

Answering the Call William E. Dickens, Jr.,1999-04 This book argues that the standardization of the American military chaplaincy occurred during the Civil War It shows that the chaplains of the North and South provided the model on which the modern chaplaincy is based This model is seen in both the regulations which were established during this war and the actual ministry of the chaplains with the men of their assigned units To accomplish this task the book traces the history of the military chaplaincy from the American Revolution through the American Civil War This analysis relies heavily on official documents and reports as well as personal accounts letters and diaries It also incorporates appropriate secondary source material
