Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore N. H. Morison,1885 The Invisible Emperor Mark Braude,2018 Part forensic investigation part dramatic jailbreak adventure Mark Braude s The Invisible Emperor is a gripping narrative history of Napoleon Bonaparte s ten month exile on the Mediterranean island of Elba In the spring of 1814 Napoleon Bonaparte was defeated Having overseen an empire spanning half the European continent and governed the lives of some eighty million people he suddenly found himself exiled to Elba less than a hundred square miles of territory This would have been the end of him if Europe s rulers had had their way But soon enough Napoleon imposed his preternatural charisma and historic ambition on both his captors and the very island itself plotting his return to France and to power After ten months of exile he escaped Elba with just of over a thousand supporters in tow landed near Antibes marched to Paris and retook the Tuileries Palace all without firing a shot Not long after tens of thousands of people would die fighting for and against him at Waterloo Braude dramatizes this strange exile and improbable escape in granular detail and with novelistic relish offering sharp new insights into a largely overlooked moment He details a terrific cast of secondary characters including Napoleon s tragically noble official British minder on Elba Neil Campbell forever disgraced for having let Boney slip away and his young second wife Marie Louise who was twenty two to Napoleon s forty four at the time of his abdication What emerges is a surprising new perspective on one of history s most consequential figures which both subverts and celebrates his legendary persona The Invisible Emperor is both a riveting story and an original examination of how preposterous quixotic and grandiose ideas can suddenly leap from the imagination and into reality Catalogue of Books in the Mercantile Library, of the City of New York Mercantile Library Association of the City of New-York,1866     The Bulletin of the Hartford Public Library Hartford Public Library,1901     Catalogue of Superior Second-hand Books ... ,1857     Catalogue of books in the Mercantile library Mercantile library assoc New York,1866     Catalogue of the Putnam Library National home for disabled volunteer soldiers, Dayton, O.
