Memoirs Of A Canadian Doctor:

Memoirs of a Canadian Doctor C. Lamont (Carleton Lamont) MacMillan, 1977 Memoir - Geological Survey of Canada, 1915 Cilemo Robert Ian Greidanus, 2021 This book began as letters that Bob Greidanus a young Canadian physician wrote to bring his family friends and other supporters closer to his experiences on the medical frontlines in Africa a mission hospital in Kapsowar northwestern Kenya a state hospital in Rundu northern Namibia and a large referral hospital in Windhoek Namibia It is a personal account of his journey the struggles sorrows and joys but also the story of the people he met there most of whom call Africa home The hope is that this book will be inspiring for many including those who want to know more about the application of medicine in the developing world those interested in the theological and ethical issues of justice or anyone considering humanitarian work abroad A Doctor's Memoir of the Romanian Holocaust Arthur Kessler, 2024 Based on detailed notes taken during a doctor's incarceration in the concentration camps and ghettos of Romanian ruled Transnistria during the Holocaust this memoir tells a gripping story of calculated murder resistance and survival In the aftermath of the Romanian Holocaust Transnistria a little known region north of Odessa between the Dniester and Bug rivers came to be known as the forgotten cemetery Between 1941 and 1944 an estimated 300 000 Jews were killed or died there from starvation and disease This memoir by Dr Arthur Kessler based on daily notes he kept as a physician during his two year imprisonment in Transnistria's Vapniarka concentration camp and Olgopol ghetto provides a unique perspective of a Jewish medical doctor who witnessed murderous death as well as brave acts of resistance and survival Introduced and annotated by historian Leo Spitzer and translated from German by the late Margaret Robinson Dr Kessler's memoir provides an engrossing account of his infamous discovery that Vapniarka's Romanian authorities routinely and it seems knowingly fed camp inmates a daily soup containing toxic chickling peas Lathyrus sativus that induced paralysis kidney failure and oftentimes death It reveals the daring by which he together with fellow inmate medical associates saved hundreds of lives by organizing a hunger strike that resulted in the camp's dissolution and the prisoners relocation to ghettos throughout Transnistria Kessler's narrative continues with an account of privileges attainable by deportees with useful skills and provides illuminating details about informal systems and practices that enabled many to survive and to provide care to fellow victims of genocidal persecution The memoir is illustrated with moving drawings produced by prisoners in the Vapniarka concentration camp and presented to Dr Kessler in recognition of his brave work of healing In Search of Canadian Materials, 1978 Say you'll Wait for Me, A Memoir Samantha Rosalia, 2023-11-09 Being the owner of vast stretches of land in certain areas of Pakistan meant you could marry the most beautiful girl of any nearby village a devout Muslim woman from an affluent family born of a traditional Hindu caste and the eldest daughter of a neighboring landlord Looking back in writing this now I think about all the people who were supposed to care about me who had bad intentions related to why they claimed to welcome me as an American never bothering to fill me in as to the reasons why I traveled to

Pakistan I found myself in a strange new land left to raise Sameer and Asad without a father Thrust into a world of strangers disguised as well meaning relatives extending a hand to greet me as a foreigner from the United States I found myself standing in the middle of a deserted field trying not to see Daniyal in new relatives offering flowers and Muslim prayers of protection in Urdu I was no longer called by my birth name Samantha but morphed into a Pakistani woman known only by my Muslim name Kasra Say You ll Wait for Me is my first book based on a true to life experience of meeting and marrying an immigrant from a rural village area of Ganish Pakistan As I struggle to fit in with a large eccentric joint family as a foreigner from Louisiana who knows next to nothing about Pakistani customs haphazard attempts at blending in with my Muslim family turn into a series of cultural blunders and missteps Secretive in laws appear as well meaning family members offering Muslim prayers revealing a series of family betrayals and secrets surrounding an ongoing legal case in Karachi Pakistan involving the acquisition of ancestral property A territorial dispute in Karachi Pakistan spirals out of control in the form of an ongoing family feud What remains of my time in a rural village area of Ganish is a true story comprised of people who lied to me and a broken promise of a happy life in a foreign country that existed in a past memory The beginning of our financial issues began more than five years ago over a valuable piece of property in Karachi The most tragic part of my real life experience about marrying a Pakistani wasn t that years later I had come to find out my immigrant husband s ancestral land had been stolen from him and he could no longer return to his birth country I prayed for the land to be returned to its rightful owner Say You ll Wait for Me

On Military Memoirs L.H.E. (Esmeralda) Kleinreesink,2016-10-11 Winner of the Caforio prize for the best book in armed forces and civil military relations published between 2015 and 2016 In On Military Memoirs Esmeralda Kleinreesink offers insight into military books who were their writers and publishers what were their plots and what motives did their authors have for writing them Every Afghanistan war autobiography published in the US the UK Germany Canada and the Netherlands between 2001 and 2010 is compared quantitatively and qualitatively On Military Memoirs shows that soldier authors are a special breed that self published books still cater to different markets than traditionally published ones that cultural differences are clearly visible between warrior nations and non warrior nations that not every contemporary memoir is a disillusionment story and that writing is serious business for soldiers wanting to change the world The book provides an innovative example of how to use interdisciplinary mixed method cross cultural research to analyse egodocuments

Labrador Memoir of Dr Harry Paddon, 1912-1938 Harry Paddon,Ronald Rompkey,2003-07-16 Paddon s memoir gives the reader a sense of the resident Innu Inuit and settler communities as well as the prevailing institutions of non governmental authority the Hudson s Bay Company the Moravian Mission and the International Grenfell Association At a time when Labrador is undergoing further industrial development and social change his writings carefully edited and annotated by Ronald Rompkey the biographer of Sir Wilfred Grenfell capture the heart of the region and its people

Memoirs from Away Helen M. Buss,2006-01-01 How does the imagination entwine the shreds of memory of family place and culture to root a self in the fluid experience of the present Daughter wife mother teacher writer and feminist academic Helen M Buss Margaret Clarke has lived in many parts of Canada and writes from a life of multiple perspectives full of contradictory loyalties and obligations of opposing histories and identities For this woman whose sense of a unified identity is so tenuous that she even writes under two names writing memoirs becomes the way to bring together the diverse strands of her life A Newfoundland girl who awakened to the public world just at the moment her homeland joined Canada she writes of her childhood of the effects of war technology the politics of nation and gender and of the private world of several generations of her close knit family From the perspective of a woman from away she discovers a New Found Land of girlhood that weaves past and present in a narrative that delights in questioning its own making

Breakthrough: A Memoir of Toxic Work, Mindfulness, and Inner Peace Sunita Devi Alves, 2022-11-22 As the first woman in her Indo Caribbean family to be an engineer Sunita enjoyed her career in Canadian tech but soon saw a darker side of corporate life This memoir is a courageous and open first hand account of how work can harm health spirit and integrity You ll cheer on the sidelines as Sunita finds well being in a silent mindfulness retreat with a group of strangers from Toronto after losing her health to toxic stress Readers will enjoy how the story flows and leave with techniques to create more balance peace and health even if they are navigating toxic situations

Full Circle: Memoir of A Vietnamese-Canadian Librarian Vinh-The Lam, 2024-01-05 In Full Circle Memoir of A Vietnamese Canadian Librarian Vinh The Lam tells the story of his journey from American trained librarian in South Vietnam to Librarian Emeritus in Canada After becoming the first US educated President of the Vietnamese Library Association VLA in 1974 Lam worked alongside a team of fellow American trained librarians to modernize and expand the South Vietnamese library system He even founded the country s first library science department at V n H nh University But after the fall of South Vietnam in 1975 the VLA and all of Lam s achievements were lost He spent the next six years in poverty before emigrating to Canada in 1981 and rebuilding his life and career With a new start in North America Lam made valuable contributions to the library community eventually retiring as Librarian Emeritus from the University of Saskatchewan in 2006 When Vietnam appealed to overseas intellectuals to return and help the country move forward in the aftermath of the collapse of the Communist system Lam and his former VLA team answered the call ready to help Vietnam thrive in a new era of innovation and progress This is the personal memoir of Lam s full journey from Vietnam to Canada and back again

Perceptions of Pregnancy from the Seventeenth to the Twentieth Century Jennifer Evans, Ciara Meehan, 2016-12-31 This multi disciplinary collection brings together work by scholars from Britain America and Canada on the popular personal and institutional histories of pregnancy It follows the process of reproduction from conception and contraception to birth and parenthood The contributors explore several key themes narratives of pregnancy and birth the patient consumer and literary representations of childbearing This book explores how these issues have been constructed represented and experienced in a range of geographical locations from the seventeenth to the twentieth century

Crossing the boundary between the pre modern and modern worlds the chapters reveal the continuities similarities and differences in understanding a process that is often in the popular mind set considered to be fundamental and unchanging

Personal and Professional Recollections 1940 ? 2012 AuthorHouse,2014-04-03 Of all the many autobiographies and memoirs that I have read through the years this one by Percy Licardo Moore is far and away one of the most unique among them in its arrangement aspects and accents This book Personal and Professional Recollections 1940 2012 appealingly introduces Dr Moore s life his work and his major interests allied with many personal photographs and also offers some highly readable essays whose content help to augment and illumine its rich narrative Percy Licardo Moore has recorded far more here than personal details regarding his family background his education determinative encounters and life work he has strikingly accented the theme of divine guidance he has experienced as an ardent Christian believer Having known Dr Moore across many years I am aware of much recounted in this narrative he has prepared about his life and I commend his memoir to others for the moral spiritual and humane values it uniquely accents JAMES EARL MASSEY Dean Emeritus Former Dean of the Chapel of Tuskegee University Founding Pastor Pastor Emeritus Metropolitan Church of God Detroit MI

Making a Middle Class Paul Axelrod,1990-10-01 Using a rich array of archival and quantitative sources and oral testimony from ex students across Canada Axelrod explores the characteristics and significance of university life during a trying decade He describes who went to university what they were taught how they amused themselves how they responded to the pressing political issues of the day and what became of them after graduation Axelrod argues that these students shared the aspirations of middle class communities elsewhere Dreading the prospect of downward social mobility they craved the status a university degree and professional credentials might produce Accordingly they forged an associational life on campus that challenged the control of paternalistic authorities perpetuated the values of middle class culture and helped them cope with the stresses of the time Women composed almost one quarter of the student population and faced discrimination inside and outside the classroom How they coped with this how they adapted their own expectations and how they contributed to campus and community culture are extensively discussed Through the prism of the student experience Making a Middle Class furnishes fresh insights into the social history of higher education the history of youth the history of the middle class and the history of the Depression
