Accidental Diplomat, The: The Autobiography Of Maurice Baker Maurice Baker, 2014-07-25 For the life of a diplomat is often a variation of routine boredom and exhilarating crises. Maurice Baker is an academic and one of Singapore's pioneer diplomats. Growing up in colonial-governed Malaya and Singapore, his profound love for great literature works inspired him to obtain an honors in English from King's College London in 1948. Despite the cruelties faced during and after the Second World War, Baker's humble beginnings and political consciousness earned him the friendship and respect of many diplomats during his missions to India in 1967, Malaysia in 1969, Philippines in 1977, and back to Malaysia in 1980 before retiring from his career as a diplomat in 1988. Between his diplomatic missions, Baker returned to Singapore in 1972 to head the Department of English at the University of Singapore for five years. This is Baker's story of how he came to be The Accidental Diplomat. With occasional poems and a sense of humor, he candidly recounts the colourful romances of his life to his enriching encounters of diplomatic relations. His portrayals of admiration for great leaders and men paint a vivid picture of the qualities that guided his beliefs, proving that he was by no means an Accidental Diplomat in the eyes of others.

Rethinking Britten Philip Rupprecht, 2013-07-30 Rethinking Britten offers a fresh portrait of one of the most widely performed composers of the 20th century. In twelve essays, a diverse group of contributors, both established authorities and leading younger voices, explore a significant portion of Benjamin Britten's extensive oeuvre across a range of genres, including opera, song cycle, and concert music. Well-informed by earlier writings on the composer's professional career and private life, Rethinking Britten also uncovers many fresh lines of inquiry: from the Lord Chamberlain's last-minute censorship of the Rape of Lucretia libretto to psychoanalytic understandings of Britten's staging of gender roles; from the composer's delight in schoolboy humor to his operatic revival of Purcellian dance rhythms; from his creative responses to Cold War era internationalism to his dealings with BBC Television. Each essay blends awareness of overarching contexts with insights into particular expressive achievements. Balancing biographical, archival, and analytic commentary with cultural and historical criticism, Rethinking Britten broadens the interpretive context surrounding all phases of Britten's career and is essential reading for scholars and fans alike.

Speak, Silence Carole Angier, 2021-08-19 A SPECTATOR NEW STATESMAN AND THE TIMES BOOK OF THE YEAR The best biography I have read in years. Philippe Sands' Spectacular Observer A remarkable portrait. Guardian W G Sebald was one of the most extraordinary and influential writers of the twentieth century. Through books including The Emigrants, Austerlitz, and The Rings of Saturn, he pursued an original literary vision that combined fiction, history, autobiography, and photography, and addressed some of the most profound themes of contemporary literature: the burden of the Holocaust, memory loss, and exile. The first biography to explore his life and work, Speak, Silence pursues the true Sebald through the memories of those who knew him and through the work he left behind This quest takes Carole Angier from Sebald's birth as a second generation German at the end of the Second World War through his rejection of the poisoned inheritance of the Third Reich to his emigration to England exploring the choice of isolation and exile that drove his work It digs deep into a creative mind on the edge finding profound empathy and paradoxical ruthlessness saving humour and an elusive mix of fact and fiction in his life as well as work The result is a unique ferociously original portrait

Writing Talk Alex Hamilton,2012 In his long career in literary journalism Alex Hamilton has probably met and talked in depth to more of our great writers than anyone else from the most critically acclaimed to the most hard nosed bestsellers from novelists to cartoonists and in every genre from Thrillers and Whodunnits to Short Stories from Poetry to Science Fiction This selection from a life's work gives us a stimulating and rare insight into the minds and lives of some of the most fascinating creators of our modern culture It's a book that contains many surprises in the revelations given by some of the authors about their struggles and victories the serious or humorous commitments made by them and their addiction to the kind of fiction they like to write The reader will soon realise that no two of these eighty five featured authors such as Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Stephen King Daphne du Maurier Ian McEwan Jorge Luis Borges Graham Greene or Margaret Atwood are alike Splendidly informative and serious Writing Talk is also often very funny a book to dip into as the mood takes or to dive into hungrily It will appeal to those with a passion for books and for the people who have written them I've been fortunate to talk to so many marvellous writers Gathering some of these conversations into a book rather than their brief life in a daily newspaper offers a chance for readers to share my pleasure and to introduce a new generation to some past greats says Alex Hamilton behind his reason to create Writing Talk Culture, Empire, and the Question of Being Modern C. J. Wan-ling Wee,2003-01-01 Culture Empire and the Question of Being Modern explores the problematic formation of national culture within modern English society In this ambitious work of post colonial and cultural theory C J Wan ling Wee investigates the complex interaction between a modern industrialized metropolitan and progressively rational English national culture and a nationalistic imperial discourse interested in territorial expansion and the valorization of an idealized agrarian past Starting with the Victorian era the work documents the complex relationship of concepts such as home and frontier and Englishness and colonial through an analysis of key literary cultural figures in their historical contexts Rudyard Kipling Charles Kingsley T S Eliot and V S Naipaul Wee brings the discussion of modernity into the present with a consideration of post imperial Singapore a neo traditionalist modern society that reworks many of the colonial tropes and contradictions to investigate the ambiguities and contradictions revealed in the West's engagement with modernity

The Asian Modern C.J.W.-L. Wee,2007-10-01 How does one comprehend the phenomenon of the modernization of an Asian society in a globalized East Asian context With this opening question the author proceeds to give an account of how the modernization processes for postcolonial societies in Asia such as those of India Malaysia and Singapore are fraught with collaborations and conflicts between different socio political historical economic and cultural agents Such ambivalent dynamics contribute to what Wee argues as a revealing distortion of the extant models of Western modernity which is nonetheless rooted in the politics of worldwide capitalism Wee s narrative refuses to accept the uncritical interpretation of the modernizing processes in Asia as liberation from the hegemony of Euro American capitalism But neither is Wee prepared to concede that all cultural initiatives in the postcolonial societies are therefore denied all power to devise alternative forms of expression in the face of this haunting presence It is the persistent effort to see the many faces of modernization in Asia in their full complexity that sets this study apart Readers will discover that what seems to be the modernization of a single geopolitical entity is inevitably linked to the dynamics of various agents in other locations at different times which makes us reflect on the existence of the many distortions in our societies

A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches,Michael Cox,2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication

Rethinking Place through Literary Form Rupsa Banerjee,Nathaniel Cadle,2022-05-30 Rethinking Place Through Literary Form regards the relationship between place and linguistic form as challenging real and perceived configurations of place and renegotiating geopolitically determined categories of the centre and periphery The volume argues that the rise of scattered communities displaced physically and psychologically by urban and alienated geographies necessitates linguistic negotiations of one's locatedness in place as the chief means of uncovering and re-building identity. By looking at narrative re-imaginings of forgotten and interrupted intimacies between habitation and place from diverse parts of the world, the twelve chapters address the growing need to expand and alter approaches to literary representations of modernity and modes of self-location.

Pluralist Constitutions in Southeast Asia Jaclyn L. Neo, Ngoc Son Bui, 2019-04-04. This book examines the presence of ethnic, religious, political, and ideational pluralities in Southeast Asian societies and how their respective constitutions respond to these pluralities. Countries covered in this book are Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam. The chapters examine first the range of pluralist constitutional values and ideas embodied in the constitutions, secondly the pluralist sources of constitutional norms, thirdly the design of constitutional structures responding to various pluralities, and fourthly the construction and interpretation of bills of rights in response to existing pluralities. The pluralist constitution is thus one that recognises internal pluralities within society and makes arrangements to accommodate rather than eliminate these pluralities.

The Singapore Lion Irene Ng, 2010. Irene Ng has written a book that gives a comprehensive portrayal of Mr. Rajaratnam, one of Singapore's outstanding leaders who played a crucial part in the momentous and crisis-ridden transition to independence. This is a book about the man and his wisdom. One would fail to appreciate him until one reads this absorbing book and reflects on the acuity and breadth of his insights and his wisdom.

S. R. Nathan, President of Singapore. In the course of a thirty-three year career in diplomacy, I met many great leaders. Having done so, I can confidently assert that S. Rajaratnam was one of the greatest leaders I met. Sadly, few in Singapore understand how great Rajaratnam was. This well-researched, comprehensive volume by Irene Ng therefore fills a real need. Both Singaporeans and non-Singaporeans will benefit a lot from reading it.

Kishore Mahbubani, Dean Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, National University of Singapore. Rajaratnam is one of the founding fathers of modern Singapore. He was Singapore's first and longest-serving foreign minister. He was a rebel and a revolutionary. He was an intellectual and a man of action. In this wonderful book, Irene Ng tells the story of this remarkable leader of Singapore. I found the book both enjoyable and insightful.

The Experience of Expatriate English Language Teaching David B. Wilson, 2025-05-24. This is a unique applied linguistic study which demonstrates that the history of TEFLers is very different from the history of TEFL. Instead of studying theories of language learning and teaching, it explores the experience of being a TEFLer through the ages using a wide range of fictional and fictive sources: novels, plays, biographies, memoirs, essays, and poems. Part One considers the present and recent past through an analysis of 15 fictional works and five memoirs. Part Two is concerned with the experiences of some historical, iconic figures from the world of TEFL, beginning with the sixteenth century and ending with figures associated with the British Council and International House. Along the way, one meets Victorian governesses, Berlitz teachers, and literary figures from the inter-war Golden Age of travel. Interposed are some of the experiences of the author, garnered during his long and varied career as an expatriate TEFLer A Critical Study of the Novels of Anita Desai N.
