Memoirs Of A Pet Lamb:

Memoirs of a Pet Lamb David Sylvester, 2002 Dry comic and poignantly unforgettable this is a moving childhood memoir of the great late art critic David Sylvester who died in June 2001 achieved fame with his work on Cezanne but became known especially for his close perceptive studies of artists who became personal friends Giacometti Henry Moore Francis Bacon A brilliant interviewer who could make the most reticent artists disclose their secrets he rarely revealed his own But in the weeks before his death he wrote this brief unforgettable account of his childhood Beginning with his bewildered shuttling between an English nursery school and the turbulent Yiddish speaking parental country he reaches back for his child's eye view to bring us a life and a whole world in miniature Memoirs of the Rev. Edward Bickersteth Thomas Rawson. - Birks, 1852 Catalogue of Books of the Free Public Library of the Santa Barbara, California.

Romanticism and Animal Rights David Perkins, 2003-10-23 In England in the second half of the eighteenth century an unprecedented amount of writing urged kindness to animals This theme was carried in many genres from sermons to encyclopedias from scientific works to literature for children and in the poetry of Cowper Wordsworth Coleridge Clare and others Romanticism and Animal Rights discusses the arguments writers used and the particular meanings of these arguments in a social and economic context so different from the present After introductory chapters the material is divided according to specific practices that particularly influenced feeling or aroused protest pet keeping hunting baiting working animals eating them and the various harms inflicted on wild birds The book shows how extensively English Romantic writing took up issues of what we now call animal rights In this respect it joins the growing number of studies that seek precedents or affinities in English Romanticism for our own ecological concerns The Itinerant Samuel William Ryley, 1817

Trials of the Diaspora Anthony Julius, 2012-02-09 The first ever comprehensive history of anti-Semitism in England from medieval murder and expulsion through to contemporary forms of anti-Zionism in the 21st century Memoirs of the literary ladies of England, from the commencement of the last century Mrs. Anne Katharine ELWOOD, 1843 The Great Indoors Ben Highmore, 2014-01-02 House has long been synonymous with home the significance of four walls and a roof lies far deeper than simply shelter from the elements A house stands for sanctuary family belonging privacy and our pasts even when standardised as a Barratt Home or modern housing estate every house bears the stamp of the people who live in it remaining a bastion of quirky individualism The Great Indoors is the first cultural history of the family home in the twentieth century comparable to Rachel Hewitt's Map of a Nation or Joe Moran's Queuing for Beginners As society has changed so has the house the hall which had its finest hour during the middle ages when families and their servants ate slept and socialised there together has now been relegated to a mere passageway only useful for getting to other more private rooms Highmore shows how houses display the currents of class identity and social transformation that are displayed in the arrangement and use of the family home And he also offers an engaging and stimulating peek through the curtains to explain why the fridge is used as a communication centre how the loo or toilet inspired its very own literary genre and what your furniture arrangement reveals about how you function as a family Memoirs of an author Percy Hetherington Fitzgerald,1895 Memoirs of the Literary Ladies of England Anne Katharine Curteis Elwood,1843 The Palgrave Dictionary of Anglo-Jewish History W.
