Memoirs Of A Translator Of Poetry:

Memoirs of a Translator of Poetry Kendall E. Lappin, 1999 Kendall Lappin's intuition and initial translations of Charles Baudelaire led him to abandon rhyme in favor of rendering the essential rhythm and semantic quality of the poems an approach contrary to the prevailing theory and academic practice of translation. Containing an autobiographical narrative and excerpts from Lappin's personal correspondence, this volume portrays the rocky career of a maverick literary translator.

Carlyle. With a Memoir [by D. Laing] and Glossary David Irving, 1861 The Diary of Lady Murasaki Murasaki Shikibu, 1996-03-07 The Diary recorded by Lady Murasaki c. 973 c. 1020 author of The Tale of Genji is an intimate picture of her life as tutor and companion to the young Empress Shoshi. Told in a series of vignettes, it offers revealing glimpses of the Japanese imperial palace, the auspicious birth of a prince, rivalries between the Emperor's consorts, with sharp criticism of Murasaki's fellow ladies in waiting and drunken courtiers, and telling remarks about the timid Empress and her powerful father Michinaga. The Diary is also a work of great subtlety and intense personal reflection as Murasaki makes penetrating insights into human psychology; her pragmatic observations are always balanced by an exquisite and pensive melancholy. In The Shoes of the Other Samia Mehrez, 2019-12-10 In the Shoes of the Other: Interdisciplinary Essays in Translation Studies from Cairo. This anthology continues a tradition that is intended to give impetus to the development of Egyptian and Arab discourses on translation both within and beyond the American University in Cairo. It is a welcome and important contribution to raising the profile of translation in all its forms and of translators in the region. Mona Baker, University of Manchester. Since its founding, the Center for Translation Studies has hosted an astonishing number of academic events that are among the most intellectually serious and internationally prominent of AUC's activities in the humanities; this has been noted by universities across the world. Indeed, the In Translation lecture series is without any exaggeration the most impressive public lecture series of its kind anywhere and far beyond anything comparable in Africa or the Middle East. Adam Talib, Durham University. AUC's Center for Translation Studies has proved itself a vital interpreter of texts and events generated by Egypt's turbulent political history and fervent artistic culture. I know of no other group of scholars with equal competence in these matters and with an equivalent respect in the field. Anthony Cordingley, Université Paris VIII.
