Painter,2019-10-09 What happens when you discover that the person you admire love and trust most of all has secretly discredited your integrity for most of your life even on their deathbed Rebecca Painter s frank far flung and often funny exploration of a painful mother daughter relationship is for anyone challenged by hidden as well as open assaults on their character To understand and heal her deep rooted lifelong trauma the author transports readers across the Pacific to her mother s youth in the outback of 1920s New Zealand and Rachel s fateful voyage to the Pacific Northwest in 1939 Did a telegraph error ruin her engagement to the man she called the love of her life Why would she quickly marry an American cult leader Rebecca's father whose paranormal influence lingers after his untimely death We witness the family's survival struggles and Rebecca's challenges as an outsider attending an elite women's college which resemble the barriers her mother faced in the British class system Rebecca's dream of a scholarly career is deferred but her prayers are answered by the chance to care for and be reconciled with her dying mother LOVE RACHEL speaks of believable miracles and despite decades of soul wrenching negative judgments how personal integrity can be defended and empowered from within A gripping haunting journey of forgiveness Despite her mother's harsh judgments Rebecca learns to love herself have compassion for her mother and comes to terms with their demons Her memoir is a lyrical and intelligent page turner and an inspiration Carole Mallory actress supermodel author of Picasso's Ghost Loving Mailer and Flash Rebecca Painter's wonderful memoir examines the compelling dramatic and puzzling events of her mother's life in her struggle to understand their fraught relationship As a daughter I consider this to be more than just a great story It is a truly important read about human relations Miriam Katin artist author of award winning illustrated memoir We Are on Our Own and Letting It Go A daringly honest amazing account of a complex always fascinating relationship Lee J Strauss author of The First Language and Toward a Biology of Culture
