Dwyer,2009-07-13 In World War II Bill Dwyer served as a Stars Stripes correspondent with the US Fourth Infantry Division in Belgium Luxembourg and Germany often in company with Collier s correspondent Ernest Hemingway He was a member of a six man truce party who went behind enemy lines for three hours and worked to negotiate the surrender of Rothenburg a walled Bavarian city dating to the 14th century For this action he was awarded the Bronze Star Captured : Memoir of World War II James D. Pascoe,2014-08-29 Two years after the United States entered the Second World War 21 year old college student James D Pascoe was drafted into the U S Army Air Force The California native trained as a tail gunner and was assigned to a B 26 Marauder On his 11th mission the young airman was shot down over the French countryside Passed by local families to the Resistance Pascoe spent weeks on the run Betrayed he was captured and imprisoned by the Germans This memoir based on the daily journal he kept through the war tells the story of an ordinary American from civilian to POW and back again

Reliving World War II, A Memoir Walt Banko, Not Me! The World War II Memoir of a Reluctant Rifleman , A Time to Keep: a Memoir Richard J. J. O'Connor,2012-02-16 This memoir describes what it was like growing up as the youngest member of a large boisterous Irish American family in Massachusetts during the 1940s and 1950s The author also tells about his experiences as a young naval officer during the Cuban Missile Crisis his work in international communicable disease control as a Commissioned Officer of the U S Public Health Service and later teaching and research involvement at several universities in the development and application of computer based individualized instruction and emerging K 12 classroom technologies Call to Duty a Personal Memoir of World War II Roger A. Howard,2010-10 All my life I grew up listening to my father tell stories of his life especially his wartime experiences I knew these stories had to be put into print for future generations to enjoy The events recounted here reflect the true voice of my father While reading the text I can picture a group of family and friends of all ages sitting around him captivated by his life s stories The favorites are always of the 78th Infantry Division and all the characters he fought with Now these stories will be told forever Liberty and Freedom David Hackett Fischer,2005 The bestselling author of Washington s Crossing and Albion s Seed offers a strikingly original history of America s founding principles Fischer examines liberty and freedom not as philosophical or political abstractions but as folkways and popular beliefs deeply embedded in American culture 400 illustrations 250 in full color

Memories and Representations of War ,2009-01-01 The contributors to the present volume approach World War I and World War II as complex and intertwined crossroads leading to the definition of the new European and world reality and deeply pervading the making of the twentieth century These scholars belong to different yet complementary areas of research history literature cinema art history they come from various national realities and discuss questions related to Italy

Britain Germany Poland Spain at times introducing a comparison between European and North American memories of the two World War experiences These scholars are all guided by the same principle to encourage the establishment of an interdisciplinary and trans national dialogue in order to work out new approaches capable of integrating and acknowledging different or even opposing ways to perceive and interpret the same historical phenomenon While assessing the way the memories of the two World Wars have been readjusted each time in relation to the evolving international historical setting and through various mediators of memory cinema literature art and monuments the various essays contribute to unveil a cultural panorama inhabited by contrasting memories and by divided memories not to emphasise divisions but to acknowledge the ethical need for a truly shared act of reconciliation

The Mighty Eighth in WWII: A Memoir J. Kemp McLaughlin USAFR (Ret.), One of the great bomber pilots of World War II recalls his various missions over the European theater from bombing heavy water installations in Norway to the raid that nearly wiped out German ball bearing production

A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang, 2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research

Shanghai Refuge: A Memoir of the World War II Jewish Ghetto Ernest Heppner, 2019-08-09 After the Nazis took power Heppner a member of a privileged middle class German Jewish family suffered from constant anti Semitism But Kristallnacht in November 1938 introduced a new level of Nazi horror Heppner and his mother used the family s resources to escape to Shanghai the only city in the world that did not require a visa Heppner was taken aback by experiences on the ocean liner that took him and other refugees to Shanghai he was embarrassed and confounded when Egyptian Jews offered worn clothing to the Jewish passengers he resented the edicts against Jewish passengers disembarking in any ports on the way and he was unprepared for the poverty and cultural dislocation of the great city of Shanghai But being self reliant energetic and clever Heppner found niches for his skills that enabled him to survive in a precarious fashion in Shanghai s ghetto In 1945 after the liberation of China Heppner found a responsible position with the American forces in Nanjing He and his wife a fellow refugee he had met and married in Shanghai arrived in the United States in 1947 with only eleven dollars but boundless hope and energy This inspiring memoir is a story of survival The unique and traumatic experiences of tens of thousands of Jews who managed to escape for the temporary haven of Shanghai are described with objectivity and clarity Leonard H D Gordon Shofar The author describes in detail the sights and sounds of his adopted environment the mingling of Jews and many nationalities the choking stench and the humidity the decadent exotic underworld of criminals and beggars the terror of air raids and Japanese guards the rampant poverty and disease The general tone however is positive even inspiring and behind all the experiences lurks a sense of adventure and simple good luck Association of Jewish Libraries Newsletter A fascinating and moving memoir that begins with Heppner s childhood in Nazi Germany and moves briskly from one compelling scene to the next Forward Ernest G Heppner s Shanghai Refuge fills in the fragments of this little known Jewish community His story is an odd mixture of defiance courage endurance and survival His experience is fascinating Michael Berenbaum Director U S Holocaust Research Institute An important addition to the historical record of World War II an autobiography of a remarkable man s formative years and a testimony to the power of community and human perseverance Indianapolis Star Heppner s descriptions ring true and carry conviction especially when he recalls in evocative detail his day to day experiences in Nazi Germany Similarly his recollection of Shanghai with its small telling details of privations indignities anxieties and horrors make maximum impact from the rat in the bakery that he lifted up by its tail to the carnage following an American air raid Bernard Wasserstein author of The Secret Lives of Trebitsch Lincoln

The Memory of the Second World War in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia David L. Hoffmann, 2021-08-26 This volume showcases important new research on World War II memory both in the Soviet Union and in Russia today Through an examination of war remembrance in its various forms official histories school textbooks museums monuments literature films and Victory Day parades chapters illustrate how the heroic narrative of the war was established in Soviet times and how it continues to shape war memorialization under Putin

This war narrative resonates with the Russian population due to decades of Soviet commemoration which continued virtually uninterrupted into the post Soviet period Major themes of the volume include the use of World War II memory for political legitimation and patriotic mobilization the striking continuities between Soviet and post Soviet commemorative practices the place of Holocaust memorialization in contemporary Russia Putin s invocation of the war to bolster national pride and international prestige and the relationship between individual memory and collective remembrance Authored by an international group of distinguished specialists this collection is ideal for scholars of Russia across a range of disciplines including history political science sociology and cultural studies

Dear Wanda Onan A. Hill,2013-03 Dear Wanda A Memoir of World War II is a very personal account of Onan Hill s life for four years in the military from 1942 to 1946 This long letter was written specifically for his wife and four children So it is sometimes intimate The narration covers his enlistment in the Signal Corps and his work as a radio operator in Hawaii his transfer to the Army Air Corps and his training as a cadet to become a Navigator and eventually a Mickey Operator a radar navigator the one who does the bombing when there is an undercast He survives a combat tour returns to the States and washes out of pilot school takes a refresher course and navigates C 54s across the Pacific He is separated from the service as a Captain and undergoes a let down from four years of living with men only and then goes off to college
