unpacks what it means to make a conscious practice noticing God in daily life He explores the various ways people experience and recognize God's presence including mystical encounters ordinary daily life within our hearts through other people through Scripture nature and the church Throughout he returns to the question of discernment helping you understand how you can know that it is indeed God you are meeting in each of these places not just some fanciful figment of the imagination God is deeply present in our world and you can actually encounter him Here's how

Working Abroad with Purpose Glenn D. Deckert, 2019-03-05 The wise King Solomon gives us this proverb Do you see a man skilled in his work He will serve before kings Prov 22:29 This book won't ensure that you and your professional skills end up meeting kings but it will show how you and your training can be planted among unreached people abroad By taking a job in your field of expertise you gain far more than a paycheck rather a network of relationships with colleagues and neighbors In doing so you will learn that you are in good company with the Apostle Paul and thousands of other tentmakers in church history Deckert draws on his tentmaking experience with his wife and children spanning twenty years and six countries Readers will learn of a biology professor colleague in the Middle East who on hearing the gospel over lunch replied That's different That's wonderful No one ever taught me that before In another country a nationally ranked chess player after reading the Gospels was moved to tears saying He died for me I'm a sinner This book takes you through twelve key areas of tentmaking from finding a job to retirement
