Preparing Educational Leaders New Challenges And New Perspectives:

Preparing Educational Leaders: New Challenges and New Perspectives Melvin P. Heller, 1974-01-01      New Perspectives in Educational Leadership Sonya Douglass Horsford, 2010 New Perspectives in Educational Leadership examines educational administration and leadership within the complex social political and community contexts that inform and influence the work of today's educational leaders. With particular attention to the implications and larger contexts of shifting demographics, high stakes accountability, and globalization on schools and society in the twenty-first century, this volume seeks to advance lines of inquiry presented in other areas of education research that have yet to be fully explored or imagined in the field of educational leadership. This unique blend of empirical, theoretical, and conceptual research by both established and emerging scholars in the field directly acknowledges and addresses the demands of leading increasingly diverse and complex school communities. Topics include the social and cultural dynamics of leadership, reflective practice, politics of equity and adequacy, critical servant leadership, and the possibilities of transformative leadership within these dynamic educational contexts. As a primary or supplementary text in educational administration, leadership, and foundations courses, New Perspectives in Educational Leadership provides a much-needed complement to the traditional topics of instructional leadership and education management given the expanding and increasingly complex conditions that face educational administrators and school leaders today.

Educational Leadership Preparation and Development David Gurr, Peng Liu, 2025-08-04 This collection addresses key issues in the preparation and development of school leaders across eight countries and four world areas: North America, United Kingdom, Europe, and Australasia. The work offers evidence-based insights into the current and future leadership preparation and development needed for school success. The future focus extends across the coming two or more decades and challenges the reader to consider how schools will likely develop and the leadership we will need in these schools. The book comes at a time when many schools are faced with significant challenges, including enduring impacts from the pandemic, teacher shortages, and the incorporation of new technologies such as generative AI. Leadership in schools has never been more important, and it is timely to consider the leadership preparation and development we need now and into the future. There are chapters that address leadership from pre-service and early career teachers through to principals, providing a whole-of-career focus. The authors are part of the International Leadership Development Network and use their extensive research to consider the important areas of teacher and middle leaders, leadership for equity, inclusion, and social justice, and school community and university partnerships. It is a book that will prove useful to teachers and school leaders, system leaders, university faculty, and graduate researchers.

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976      Developing School Leaders Mark Brundrett, Megan Crawford, 2012-08-06 Many countries face a crisis in recruitment to the most senior positions in schools at a time when arguments rage about the best way to develop our school leaders. Focusing on leadership development in ten diverse cultural contexts this book brings together some of the most senior commentators in the field of educational leadership development to provide a global perspective on leadership development programmes and practices The rise of leadership development programmes has presented opportunities for some and challenges for others These challenges are both practical and conceptual and relate to a series of questions that are unpacked in the book including What is the appropriate balance between the academic and the practical in leadership programmes Should provision be located in higher education institutions in other government sponsored organizations or commissioned from the private sector Are models of leadership studies derived from the business and industry relevant to schools How can research into impact inform leadership development policy and strategy Should programmes be integrated into higher degree provision or should new and innovative forms of accreditation be developed This book should be fascinating reading for all those engaged in educational research and teaching and working in educational leadership
