Prepositions The Collected Critical Essays Of Louis Zukofsky:

Prepositions Louis Zukofsky, 1981 Prepositions Rapp & Carroll, 1967 The Utopian Moment in Contemporary American Poetry Norman Finkelstein, 1993 This second edition includes all of the material from the first in depth analyses of the work of such poets as George Oppen John Ashbery Robert Duncan and William Bronk as well as a new Preface and a lengthy chapter on the younger language poets Writing Not Writing Tom Fisher, 2017-07 Writing Not Writing is both a detailed analysis of four individual poets who left poetry behind and a theoretically provocative exploration of the political and ethical possibilities of silence not doing and disavowal Reading the silences of George Oppen Carl Rakosi and Bob Kaufman the renunciation of Laura Riding and other more contemporary instances and modes of poetic abnegation Tom Fisher explores silence refusal and disavowal as political and ethical modes of response in a time of continuous crisis Through a turn away from writing these poets offer strategies of refusal and departure that leave anagrammatical hollows behind activating the negational capacities of writing and aesthetics to disrupt the empire of sense speech and agency

The Marginalization of Poetry Bob Perelman, 2021-02-09 Language writing the most controversial avant garde movement in contemporary American poetry appeals strongly to writers and readers interested in the politics of postmodernism and in iconoclastic poetic form Drawing on materials from popular culture avoiding the standard stylistic indications of poetic lyricism and using nonsequential sentences are some of the ways in which language writers make poetry a more open and participatory process for the readers Reading this kind of writing however may not come easily in a culture where poetry is treated as property of a special class It is this barrier that Bob Perelman seeks to break down in this fascinating and comprehensive account of the language writing movement A leading language writer himself Perelman offers insights into the history of the movement and discusses the political and theoretical implications of the writing He provides detailed readings of work by Lyn Hejinian Ron Silliman and Charles Bernstein among many others and compares it to a wide range of other contemporary and modern American poetry A variety of issues are addressed in the following chapters The Marginalization of Poetry Language Writing and Literary History Here and Now on Paper Parataxis and Narrative The New Sentence in Theory and Practice Write the Power Building a More Powerful Vocabulary Bruce Andrews and the World Trade Center This Page Is My Page This Page Is Your Page Gender and Mapping An Alphabet of Literary Criticism and A False Account of Talking with Frank O Hara and Roland Barthes in Philadelphia Poetry, Publishing, and Visual Culture from Late Modernism to the Twenty-first Century Natalie Pollard, 2020-05-27 This is a book about contemporary literary and artistic entanglements word and image media and materiality inscription and illustration It proposes a vulnerable fugitive mode of reading poetry which defies disciplinary categorisations embracing the open endedness and provisionality of forms This manifests itself interactively in the six case studies which have been chosen for their distinctness and diversity across the long twentieth century the book begins with the early twentieth century work of writer and artist Djuna Barnes exploring her re animation of sculptural and dramatic sources It then turns to the late modernist artist and poet David Jones considering his use of the graphic and plastic arts in The Anathemata and next to the underappreciated mid century poet F T Prince whose work uncannily re activates Michelangelo s poetry and sculpture The second half of the book explores the collaborations of the canonical poet Ted Hughes with the publisher and artist Leonard Baskin during the 1970s the innovative late twentieth century poetry of Denise Riley who uses page space and embodied sound as a form of address and finally the contemporary poet Paul Muldoon who has collaborated with photographers and artists as well as ventriloquising nonhuman phenomena The resulting unique study offers contemporary writers and readers a new understanding of literary artistic and nonhuman practices and shows the cultural importance of engaging with their messy co dependencies The book challenges critical methodologies that make a sharp division between the textual work and the extra literary and raises urgent questions about the status and autonomy of art and its social role William Carlos Williams and Transcendentalism Ron Callan,1992-06-18 This book examines the achievements of William Carlos Williams in the context of the transcendentalism of Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau and Walt Whitman The author develops a narrative of sensibilities to enrich the understanding of transcendentalism 1960 Al Filreis,2021-10-26 In 1960 when World War II might seem to have been receding into history a number of artists and writers instead turned back to it They chose to confront the unprecedented horror and mass killing of the war searching for new creative and political possibilities after the conservatism of the 1950s in the long shadow of genocide Al Filreis recasts 1960 as a turning point to offer a groundbreaking account of postwar culture He examines an eclectic group of artistic literary and intellectual figures who strove to create a new language to reckon with the trauma of World War II and to imagine a new world Filreis reflects on the belatedness of this response to the war and the Holocaust and shows how key works linked the legacies of fascism and antisemitism with American racism In grappling with the memory of the war he demonstrates artists reclaimed the radical elements of modernism and brought forth original ideas about testimony to traumatic history 1960 interweaves the lives and works of figures across high and popular culture including Chinua Achebe Hannah Arendt James Baldwin Amiri Baraka Paul Celan John Coltrane Frantz Fanon Roberto Rossellini Muriel Rukeyser Rod Serling and Louis Zukofsky and considers art forms spanning poetry fiction memoir film painting sculpture teleplays musical theater and jazz A deeply interdisciplinary cultural literary and intellectual history this book also offers fresh perspective on the beginning of the 1960s The Cambridge Companion to Ezra Pound Ira B. Nadel,1999-02-11 This Companion contains fifteen chapters by leading international scholars who together reflect diverse but complementary approaches to the study of Ezra Pound s poetry and prose They consider the poetics foreign influences economics politics and publication history of Pound s entire corpus and reveal his importance in developing some of the key movements in twentieth century poetry The book also situates Pound s work in the context of Modernism illustrating his influence on contemporaries like T S Eliot and James Joyce Taken together the chapters offer a sustained examination of one of the most versatile influential and certainly controversial poets of the modern period

Expressivity in Modern Poetry Donald Wellman, 2019-02-26 Expressivity in Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural neobarroco and language centered aspects of composition The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams Aime Cesaire and Jose Lezama Lima A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery decentering the New York to Paris vector is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity based poetics Wellman's purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth century modernism and contemporary poetic practice Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L.

Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States A History of American Literature 1900 - 1950 Christopher MacGowan, 2024-05-13 A look at the first five decades of 20th century American literature covering a wide range of literary works figures and influences A History of American Literature 1900 1950 is a current and well balanced account of the main literary figures connections and ideas that characterized the first half of the twentieth century In this readable highly informative book the author explores significant developments in American drama fiction and poetry and discusses how the literature of the period influenced and was influenced by cultural trends in both the United States and abroad Considering works produced during America's rise to prominence on the world stage from both regional and international perspectives MacGowan provides readers with keen insights into the literature of the period in relation to America's transition from an agrarian nation to an industrial power the racial and economic discrimination of Black and Native American populations the greater financial and social independence of women the economic boom of the 1920s the Depression of the 1930s the impact of world wars massive immigration political and ideological clashes and more Encompassing five decades of literary and cultural diversity in one volume A History of American Literature 1900 1950 Covers American theater poetry fiction non fiction memoirs magazines and literary publications and popular media Discusses the ways writers dramatized the immense social economic cultural and political changes in America throughout the first half of the twentieth century Explores themes and influences of Modernist poets expatriate novelists and literary publications founded by women and African Americans Features the work of Black writers Native Americans Asian Americans and Jewish Americans A History of American Literature 1900 1950 is essential reading for all students in upper level American literature courses as well as general readers looking to better understand the literary tradition of the United States Depression Glass Monique Vescia, 2014-02-04 First Published in 2006 This is part of the literary criticism and cultural theory collection Situated within the larger narrative of the symbiosis between photography and modern poetry in America during the 1930s each text examined by the author is a discrete object constituting a series of empirical statements expressing certain empirical truths particular to its time and place The Poets of Rapallo Lauren Arrington, 2021 Explores W B Yeats and Ezra Pound's relationship as played out against the backdrop of Mussolini's Italy in the 1920s and 1930s and shows how Yeats Pound and others in their Italian network developed a late modernist style aimed at effecting world change Extending ecocriticism Peter Barry, William Welstead, 2017-10-30 This volume of essays explores the scope for a further extension of ecocriticism across the environmental humanities Contributors who include both established academics and early career researchers in the humanities were given free rein to interpret the brief The collection is unusual in that it considers collaboration between individuals both in the same discipline and across creative disciplines Subjects include familiar environments close to home and those such as Iceland and Antarctica where narratives of climate geology and ecology provide a stark backdrop to creative output A further innovation is the inclusion of essays on public art natural heritage interpretation and the visualisation and aesthetic impact of wind farms The book will be of interest to writers artists students and researchers in the environmental humanities and those with a general interest in the cultural response to the environment The Mind's Landscape David Clippinger, 2006 Throughout the latter half of the twentieth century the poet William Bronk 1918 1999 was a significant voice in the American literary landscape Even though he spent nearly all of his life in Hudson Falls NY Bronk was a vital presence in American poetry as evidenced by his connections to Robert Frost Charles Olson George Oppen Robert Creeley Wallace Stevens Susan Howe Rosemarie Waldrop and others The Mind's Landscape attempts to present a fresh perspective of twentieth century literary history as seen through the lens of Bronk's life as a writer Dissonant Voices Joseph Pizza, 2023-09-28 Dissonant Voices Race Jazz and Innovative Poetics in Midcentury America explores the braiding together of racial politics popular music and avant garde poetics in post war American culture Ranging from roughly the late 1940s to the early 1970s this study examines the development of open field poetics alternately termed projective verse after Charles Olson's influential essay of the same name In doing so it traces projective verse from its creation amidst the crucible of racial integration at Black Mountain College to its development through a series of interracial friendships explored among writers involved in the Boston San Francisco and downtown New York scenes to its reimagining by African American poets working in Harlem Los Angeles and beyond as part of the Black Arts Movement Because the histories of integration jazz and postwar poetics have been studied too often as the subjects of disparate narratives and separate disciplines this arc of their shared development has also been largely obscured To remedy this the present study takes an interdisciplinary approach with insights from contemporary histories performance studies sound studies critical race theory and literary criticism informing the mix of literary analysis musicology and historical detail that comprises each chapter Accordingly the book argues for an integrated approach to the New American Poetry and the Black Arts Movement one that situates the midcentury poetics of breath and performance in the context of the Civil Rights era politics and jazz music that informed it Moreover it also unearths significant and little understood connections between Black Mountain the Beats the Boston Renaissance the New York scene and the Black Arts Movement expanding thereby our understandings of each and in a more general sense of contemporary American poetry politics and music in the process

The Body and the Book Glennis Byron, Andrew J. Sneddon, 2008 The stimulating mix of academics and practising poets that have contributed to this volume provides an unusual and illuminating integration of critical and creative practice and a vibrantly diverse approach to questions of poetry and sexuality Each section of essays is complemented by poems which creatively illustrate or develop the theme with which the essays critically engage Rather than being limited to a specific genre tradition time or place this collection seeks to make a virtue of contrast comparison and juxtaposition The collection is arranged into sections that range broadly across the thematic ground of dichotomies traditions and revisions microscopic and macroscopic perspectives women and embodiment and the notion of play and performance Positioning eighteenth century tinkers ballads alongside medieval Hebrew lyrics and the Blues of Gorgeous Puddin or making Dionysus rub shoulders with Sharon Olds and Mrs Rochester provides new perspectives on familiar material and valuable insights into more obscure work and the nature of sensual poetry as a mode of expression As the editors suggest the essays and poems presented collectively argue that writings about sexuality are always already about the way poets see and represent our bodies the world and poetic language itself absence of clutter Paul Stephens, 2020-03-24 An exploration of minimal writing texts generally shorter than a sentence as complex powerful literary and visual works In the 1960s and 70s minimal and conceptual artists stripped language down to its most basic components the word and the letter Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer Carl Andre Lawrence Weiner and others built lucrative careers from text based art Meanwhile poets and writers created works of minimal writing visual texts generally shorter than a sentence One poem by Aram Saroyan reads in its entirety eyeeye In absence of clutter Paul Stephens offers the first comprehensive account of minimal writing arguing that it is equal in complexity and power to better known more commercial text based art Minimal writing Stephens writes can be beguilingly simple on the surface but can also offer iterative reading experiences on multiple levels from the fleeting to the ponderous absence of clutter for example the entire text of a poem by Robert Grenier is both expressive and self descriptive Stephens first sets out a theoretical framework for reading and viewing minimal writing and then offers close readings of works of minimal writing by Saroyan Grenier Norman Pritchard Natalie Czech and others He reverse engineers recent works by Jen Bervin Craig Dworkin and Christian B k that draw on molecular biology and explores print on demand books by Holly Melgard code poetry by Nick Montfort Twitter based work by Allison Parrish and the use of Instagram by Hans Ulrich Obrist and Saroyan Text it seems is becoming ever more prevalent in visual art meanwhile poems are getting shorter When reading has become scanning a screen and writing tapping out a text absence of clutter invites us to reflect on how we read see and pay attention

Rethinking the Vanguard John W. Maerhofer, 2009-05-27 How has political revolution figured into the development of avant garde cultural production Is the vanguard an antiquated concept or does its influence still resonate in the 21st century Focusing closely on the convergence of aesthetics and politics that materialized in the early part of the twentieth century this study offers a re interpretation of the historical avant garde from 1917 to 1962 a turbulent period in intellectual history which marked the apex crisis and decline of vanguardist authority Moving from the impact of the Bolshevik Revolution to the anti imperialist and decolonizing movements in the Third World to the emergence of neo vanguardism in the wake of postmodernity this study opens the way for understanding the transformation of vanguardist cultural paradigms from a global perspective the implications of which also reveal its relevance and application to the contemporary period
