From Entitlement to Engagement: Affirming Millennial Students' Egos in the Higher Education Classroom Dave S. Knowlton, Kevin Jack Hagopian, 2013-09-12 This volume addresses theories and practices surrounding the entitled self absorbed students called Millennials Stereotypical Millennials are often addicted to gadgets demand service more than education and hold narrow perspectives about themselves and those around them when seen through this lens Millennial students can understandably frustrate the most dedicated of professors The contributors show how new and better educational outcomes can emerge if professors reconsider Millennials First and foremost many of these students simply don t fit their stereotype Beyond that the authors urge faculty to question commonly held assumptions showing them how to reevaluate their pedagogical practices relationships with students and the norms of college classrooms Contributors focus on practical means to achieve new and more evocative outcomes by treating Millennial students as serious collaborators in the learning process thereby helping those students to more closely identify with their own education The assignments that professors give the treatment of topics that they broach and the digital tools that they ask students to employ can shift students concerns away from a narrow focus on impersonal technical mastery of content and toward seeing themselves as Millennial thinkers who fuse their lives with their learning This is the 135th volume of this Jossey Bass higher education series New Directions for Teaching and Learning offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers

Nurses as Leaders William Rosa, 2016-06-13 Integrates the perspectives of contemporary nurse leaders to foster an innovative collaborative future Encompassing the wisdom of both established and emerging nurse leaders this expansive book demonstrates proof of theory in action and the influence of our great nursing legacy on today's luminaries as they carve out new terrain to benefit current and future health care needs. With a far reaching ambitious perspective it is the first text to link the ideas of nurse leaders from very diverse specialty areas including holism, advanced practice, education, policy, global health, journalism, and spiritual communities. The book examines the professional and scholarly accomplishments of these nurse leaders within an historical context and facilitates succession planning for the next generation through a combination of outcomes based writing, storytelling, and personal reflection. Dozens of expert contributors from practice and theory arenas describe how to develop leadership skills and tactics through the implementation of local, national, and international initiatives. With an eye to creative evolution in education, research, and clinical settings, they discuss how emerging nurse leaders can be agents of change beyond the confines of traditional practice and curricula through innovation and collaboration. Contributors also relate the circumstances and experiences that sparked their nursing passions, the moral/ethical foundation from which they practice, and inspired messages toward communal, societal, and global impact within nursing of the future. Each chapter author follows a template to ensure continuity and includes end of chapter reflection questions.

Key Features:

- Distills the perspectives of current and emerging nurse leaders from a diverse array of specialty areas to unify the collective of nursing.
- Redefines praxis possibilities in education, research, and practice.
- Outlines contributing nurse leaders' practical and scholarly accomplishments.
- Describes how to facilitate change through innovation and collaboration.
- Teaches the development of leadership skills and tactics.
