Presenting South Africa:

South Africa-- the Present as History John S. Saul, Patrick Bond, 2014 A new history of South Africa that examines today's post apartheid society through the lens of its earlier history

South Africa, Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa's dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa's current transformation are highlighted

South African Digest, 1964 The Presented Past B. L. Molyneux, P. G. Stone, 2003-09-02 The Presented Past is concerned with the differences between the comparatively static well understood way in which the past is presented in schools museums and at historic sites compared to the approaches currently being explored in contemporary archaeology It challenges the all too frequent representation of the past as something finished understood and objective rather than something that is constructed and therefore open to co existing interpretations and constant re interpretation Central to the book is the belief that the presentation of the past in school curricula and in museum and site interpretations will benefit from a greater use of non documentary sources derived from archaeological study and oral histories The book suggests that a view of the past incorporating a larger body of evidence and a wider variety of understanding will help to invigorate the way history is taught The Presented Past will be of interest to teachers archaeologists cultural resource managers in fact anyone who is concerned with how the past is presented

Cultural Heritage Management in Africa George Okello Abungu, Webber Ndoro, 2022-12-15 Cultural Heritage Management in Africa explores the diversity of Africa's cultural heritage by analysing how and why this heritage has been managed and by considering the factors that continue to influence management strategies and systems throughout the African continent Including contributions from prominent scholars and heritage professionals working across Africa the volume presents critical contemporary perspectives on the state of heritage in the area Chapters analyse the practices that emanated from different colonial experiences and consider what impact these had and continue to have on the management of African heritage It also critically examines the ideological influence of independence movements on the African continent's management and remembering of heritage and considers whether there are any differences in heritage management between countries that experienced armed conflicts and those that did not The volume will be the first to critically assess the state of heritage management now at a time when vital conversations about the balance between heritage and development is ongoing and the actions of new players have begun to impact the management and practice of heritage in the region Cultural Heritage Management in Africa will be essential reading for those engaged in the study of museums and heritage development archaeology anthropology history and African studies It will also be of interest to heritage and museum professionals who wish to learn more about the decolonisation of heritage Memory, Trauma and World Politics D. Bell, 2006-10-20 Memory Trauma and World Politics focuses on the effect that the memory of traumatic episodes especially war and genocide has on shaping contemporary political identities Theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich this book is an incisive treatment of the ways in which the study of social memory can inform global politics analysis The English-Speaking Alliance Ritchie Ovendale, 2024-11-01 As with appeasement myths and legends have proliferated about the origins of the Cold War It has often been treated as largely a European affair with the responses to the Russian threat being led by the Americans Before 1951 however the Cold War was almost global in scale extending across Europe and Asia penetrating the Middle East and Africa It was the British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin who was the principal architect of the Western alliance formed to counter the perceived menace Bevin organized Europe in preparation for the Marshall Plan initiated the Western Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization but his vision was wider Like Neville Chamberlain in the late 1930s Bevin outlined a plan for an English speaking defence alliance The French were defeatist and it was politically impossible to propose reliance on Germany for defence What was needed was a bond between Britain the United States and the old white Dominions First published in 1985 The English Speaking Alliance is the story of how the post war Labour governments sustained the image of Britain as a world power and laid the foundations of the West's Cold War foreign policy It is told from sources in the British American and Australian archives some of which have been used for the first time By laying bare the mechanics of the process of alliance building Ritchie Ovendale offers many new insights which challenge the orthodox view of this crucial period of international politics As such it will appeal to anyone with an interest in world politics and a desire to know more about how the current superpower regime developed Genres of Transition: Literature and Economy in Portuguese-Speaking Southern Africa Thomas Waller, 2024-07-22 This book argues that literary production in Portuguese speaking southern Africa has developed distinctive aesthetic idioms that critically respond to crises of global capitalism and related failures of post colonial governance Drawing from recent research at the intersection of world systems analysis and materialist theories of world literature it identifies and evaluates two generic trends in the post independence literatures of Mozambique and Angola From the mid 1980s to the early 1990s there is a marked tendency in Mozambican literary production towards fictional representations of ghosts spectral effects and gothic narrative techniques In Angola there is an analogous outburst of literary expression from the mid 1990s onwards in which writers increasingly turn towards dystopian images of apocalypse ecological crisis and the disintegration of existing modes of social reproduction Away from a restricted focus on the decline of the post independence Marxist Leninist state the book contends that the upswing in these two genres of writing functions to critically register a world systemic horizon that both surpasses and includes locally determined national realities The patterned repetition of spectral and dystopian forms in Portuguese speaking southern Africa occurred at a time of heightened capitalisation in which the region was subjected to newly expropriative forms of accumulation and ecological enclosure via integration into a reconstellated world system headed by neoliberal finance capital Through close readings of texts by authors such as Mia Couto Suleiman Cassamo Ungulani Ba Ka Khosa Pepetela and Ondjaki this book asks What factors drove literary production towards the figure of the spectre in Mozambique and towards dystopia in Angola What emerging energies and social contradictions found shape in these generic idioms in ways that existing vocabularies were unable to express What does the geo temporal passage from spectrality to dystopia tell us about the history of capitalist development in southern Africa and about the restructuring of political economic parameters across the globe Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Relations: Past, Present, Future LIT Verlag,2023-03-15 Is the impression of a new dynamism in African Asian relations empirically correct Is it a process that will once be accepted as one of the fundamental transformations of World Society in the 21st century This volume addresses these questions in 14 chapters from a look back to 2000 years of African Asian contacts and exchange to the analysis of the origins of this new inter regional dynamism On the Asian side the focus is on China which has with the Forum on China African Cooperation FOCAC the Belt and Road Initiative with numerous infrastructure projects development assistance resource deals and the support for the African Union in Africa drawn most attention but also recent initiatives by India and South Korea are described On the African side the recent developments in Burkina Faso Cote d'Ivoire Ethiopia Angola Guinea Tanzania Ghana Zimbabwe and South Africa are analyzed in detail with a special focus on the various impacts of the recent and ongoing projects and initiatives and the conditions under which they exert developmental or detrimental economic Do we witness the repetition of past mistakes of development policies at higher level or is this time everything different Patrick Ziltener is an Associate Professor at the University of Zurich Switzerland Christian Suter is Professor of Sociology at the University of Neuchâtel and President of the World Society Foundation Zurich Switzerland Congressional Presentation United States.
