greater concentration of wealth and property reduced upward mobility demographic stagnation and increased dogmatism If the last seventy years saw a massive expansion of the middle class not only in America but in much of the developed world today that class is declining and a new more hierarchical society is emerging The new class structure resembles that of Medieval times At the apex of the new order are two classes a reborn clerical elite the clerisy which dominates the upper part of the professional ranks universities media and culture and a new aristocracy led by tech oligarchs with unprecedented wealth and growing control of information These two classes correspond to the old French First and Second Estates Below these two classes lies what was once called the Third Estate This includes the yeomanry which is made up largely of small businesspeople minor property owners skilled workers and private sector oriented professionals Ascendant for much of modern history this class is in decline while those below them the new Serfs grow in numbers a vast expanding property less population The trends are mounting but we can still reverse them if people understand what is actually occurring and have the capability to oppose them

Ebony, 2008-03 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Hijacking the Runway Teri Agins, 2014-10-09 A fascinating chronicle of how celebrity has inundated the world of fashion realigning the forces that drive both the styles we covet and the bottom lines of the biggest names in luxury apparel From Coco Chanel's iconic tweed suits to the miniskirt's surprising comeback in the late 1980s fashion houses reigned for decades as the arbiters of style and dictators of trends Hollywood stars have always furthered fashion's cause of seducing the masses into buying designers clothes acting as living billboards Now forced by the explosion of social media and the accelerating worship of fame red carpet celebrities are no longer content to just advertise and are putting their names on labels that reflect the image they or their stylists created Jessica Simpson Jennifer Lopez Sarah Jessica Parker Sean Combs and a host of pop sports and reality show stars of the moment are leveraging the power of their celebrity to become the face of their own fashion brands embracing lucrative contracts that keep their images on our screens and their hands on the wheel of a multi billion dollar industry And a few celebrities like the Olsen Twins and Victoria Beckham have gone all the way and reinvented themselves as bonafide designers Not all celebrities succeed but in an ever more crowded and clamorous marketplace it's increasingly unlikely that any fashion brand will succeed without celebrity involvement even if designers like Michael Kors have to become celebrities themselves Agins charts this strange new terrain with wit and insight and an insider's access to the fascinating struggles of the bold type names and their jealousies insecurities and triumphs Everyone from industry insiders to fans of Project Runway and America's Next Top Model will want to read Agins's take on the glitter and stardust transforming the fashion industry and where it is likely to take us next
