of China He began to publish his works in the early 1990s and has published over two million words in major Chinese literary journals Liao has been awarded the third National Spring Literary Prize in 2004 the Feitian Prize for Literature in 2005 and

First published in 2002 in this innovative book two leading practitioners tell the stories of the people they have met as clients and how they as therapists tried to help them Through compelling case studies Peven and Shulman invite the reader into their thoughts and feelings about their clients their processes and treatment techniques and their subsequent successes and failures The authors describe a cognitive constructivist interpersonal dynamic approach based primarily on the principles of Alfred Adler s Individual Psychology The case studies represent several different DSM IV diagnostic categories and the authors offer their own theoretical perspectives and treatment methods for each category With compassion insight and skill the authors take complicated material and present it in a clearly written and easy to understand fashion Chinodya: Can We Talk and Other Stories ,2023-01-10 Shimmer Chinodya winner of the 1989 Commonwealth Writers Prize Africa region is one of Zimbabwe s foremost fiction writers This collection of short stories reveals his development as a writer of passionate questioning integrity The first stories Hoffman Street and The Man who Hanged Himself capture the bewildered innocence of a child s view of the adult world where behaviour is often puzzling and contradictory stories such as Going to See Mr B V provide the transition between the world of the adult and that of the child where the latter is required to act for himself in a situation where illusions founder on a narrow reality Among the Dead and Brothers and Sisters look wryly at the self conscious self centred desperately serious world of young adulthood while Playing your Cards The Waterfall Strays and Bramson introduce characters for whom ambition disillusion and disappointment jostle for attention in a world where differences of class culture race and morality come to the fore Finally in Can we Talk we conclude with an abrasive lucid sinewy voice which explores the nature of estrangement The charge is desolation Can we Talk and Other Stories speaks of the unspoken and unsaid The child who watches but does not understand the young man who observes but cannot participate the man who stands outside not sure where his desires and ambitions lead the older man estranged by his own choices Can we Talk is not a question but a statement that insists on being heard and demands a reassessment of our dreams The Christmas Present and other stories Grazia Deledda, Graham Anderson, 2020-01-01 A native of Sardinia Grazia Deledda's novels are mostly set in the rugged hills around her home town of Nuoro Her characters reflect the difficult lives of people still constrained by ancient customs and practices Her voice is powerful her tone often sombre But her wide ranging talent had a sunnier side revealed in many of her later works The Christmas Present first published in 1930 brings together a collection of folk tales children's stories and personal reminiscences that portray with humour and affection the lighter side of Sardinian life This is a book that will charm and delight opening a window on to the Sardinia of old and the formative influences on a Nobel laureate

Nardi,2017-05-04 An exploration of a new division of labor between machines and humans in which people provide value to the economy with little or no compensation The computerization of the economy and everyday life has transformed the division of labor between humans and machines shifting many people into work that is hidden poorly compensated or accepted as part of being a user of digital technology Through our clicks and swipes logins and profiles emails and posts we are more or less willingly participating in digital activities that yield economic value to others but little or no return to us Hamid Ekbia and Bonnie
